33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It is clear from this passage in Luke's Gospel that when the world ends, some terrifying events will occur. The clear message, however, is that we should not face these events with apprehension, but rather with trust — trust that God wants us to have everlasting life with him. Instead of being afraid, we are called to find strength and courage in God's love and persevere in our faith. Today's Gospel makes it clear that we should persevere in our faith and be faithful disciples. We are most responsible for evangelizing our own children.

There is an expression, "Faith is caught, not taught." How do our children see us live out our faith? How do we witness the greatness of God's love and our personal response to that love? Share with your child(ren) what it means for you to walk with Jesus.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Luke 23: 35-43

We gather next weekend proclaiming that Christ Jesus is the King of our world and our life. The Gospel puts before us the image of Calvary's hill.

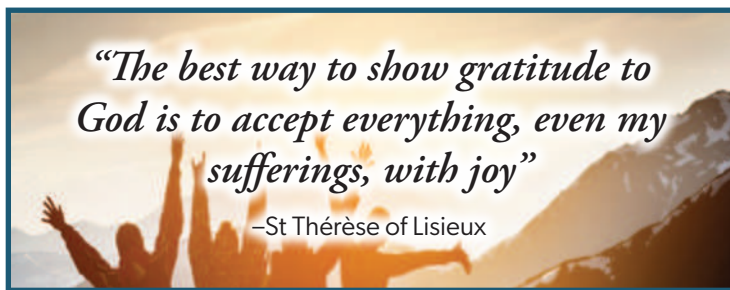

Three crosses are there. One is the past - sin.

Another is the Future - Paradise. That past and future meet at the cross in the center. That throne from which he reigns crowned is not covered in gold and jewels, but in the color of his blood. This is a King of victory who subdues the final enemy to celebrate the eternal peace. The weapon he used to bring real peace is mercy and forgiveness. All that Jesus accomplished is revealed in that scene. The death of Jesus on the cross reveals a God who stands with us when we are afraid and is at our side while we are suffering. He did this simply so that we could know God today and love him more. Our repentance, our giving over of our lives to God, will assure us today that God's presence is never closer than when we suffer. Now, through Christ, we may bring the past and the future into the present where, with the power of mercy and forgiveness, we shall and always know peace.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

"The best way to show gratitude to God is to accept everything, even my sufferings, with joy"

—St Thérèse of Lisieux

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Love is Stronger than Death

The seeds of death are at work in us, but love is stronger than death. Your death and mine is our final passage, our exodus to the full realization of our identity as God's beloved children and to full communion with the God of love. Jesus walked the path ahead of us and invites us to choose the same path during our lifetime. He calls to us, "Follow Me." He assures us. "Do not be afraid."

This is our faith.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME

There is a resource you have that is far more precious than money. It is universally nondiscriminatory and equally distributed. Everyone receives the same amount every day. It can be spent or wasted, but it can never be saved or returned.

That resource is time — a true gift. The key to your future lies in how you spend the time you have been given. The way you steward your time has a major impact on your ability to earn money, the depth and success of your personal relationships, and even your overall health. Each of us has the same amount of this valuable resource:

- 60 seconds in a minute
- 60 minutes in an hour
- 24 hours in a day
- 365 (or 366) days in a year

That's 31,536,000 seconds or 525,600 minutes every year. No one gets more, no matter how much money or power they have.

In the strictest sense, there is no such thing as time management—only time stewardship—because time passes regardless of what we do or don't do. You can't manage time; you can only fill it, use it, or waste it. Time stewardship is the careful, wise, and Godly use of the time God gives you.

We must accept the time given to us and decide how to fill it: with something productive and Godly, or with something else. Excuses don't work. You don't need more time because you're “busy.” You don't need a 26-hour day because your schedule is full. The issue isn't a lack of time—it's poor scheduling and poor time stewardship. If you were given more hours, you would likely fill them the same way. So, the question is this: What will you do with the time God has allotted to you? Will you be a good steward and use your time for the good of others at St. Agnes, or will you waste it?

Please take a moment to fill out the commitment card found in the pew and return it in the baskets this week or next.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Formerly called Last Rites or Extreme Unction, this Sacrament is for those experiencing a serious illness, facing an operation or dying. Anointing of the Sick should be performed before death is imminent, when a person is conscious and able to receive comfort from the sacrament.

We make every effort to provide pastoral care and the sacrament of anointing to all who request it; however, families are encouraged to call sooner rather than later. If a loved one is at home and needs the sacrament, please call the office at 592-1949 to arrange for a priest to visit.

In the Hospital?

Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament. Be aware that because of HIPAA

Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

15 de noviembre del 2025

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Ahora que se acerca el Día de Acción de Gracias, permítanme asegurarles mis oraciones para que tengan una celebración bendecida y feliz. En esta época en la que reconocemos y apreciamos todo lo que se nos ha dado, es importante recordar también a los menos afortunados.

Muchas personas mayores de la Diócesis de Venice viven con ingresos fijos y han sentido profundamente el impacto de la actual situación económica. Como resultado, muchos carecen de necesidades básicas, como alimentos y vivienda, especialmente en las zonas rurales de la Diócesis. Este año, la Diócesis de Venice llevará a cabo la Colecta para el Cuidado de los Ancianos el fin de semana del 22 y 23 de noviembre del 2025, con el fin de apoyar a esta población que a menudo se pasa por alto.

Los fondos recaudados gracias a su generosidad para esta colecta ayudarán a la Diócesis a proporcionar asistencia caritativa a las personas mayores, tanto a través de Catholic Charities como de iniciativas de vivienda. El Papa León XIV ha dicho: «Las personas mayores son un regalo, una bendición que hay que acoger». Por favor, considere con espíritu de oración la posibilidad de contribuir a esta colecta. Su apoyo puede marcar una diferencia real en la vida de nuestros hermanos y hermanas mayores necesitados.

¡Que Dios les bendiga por su amabilidad y generosa respuesta!

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Catholic Jewish Dialogue of Collier County invites you to the 60th Anniversary of NOSTRA AETATE

The Symposium is a collaboration of the Catholic-Jewish Dialogue of the Collier County (CJD) the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Naples (JCRC), and Ave Maria University. 2025 marks the 60th anniversary of the landmark document known as Nostra Aetate (In Our Time) which was a result of Jewish and Catholic collaboration during the Second Vatican Council. This program brings together eight theologians and professors to discuss the document that changed 20 centuries of Catholic-Jewish relations and its impact on our lives.

Both locations will feature the same program.
Please attend the one that is most convenient for you.

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Alejandro Giraldo-Roldán son los jueves y viernes de 1:00 p.m. a 4:00 p.m. Por favor, llame a la oficina para hacer su cita al (239) 592-1949.

Según la tradición, el martirio de San Pedro tuvo lugar en los jardines de Nerón, en el Vaticano, donde se había construido el circo de Calígula, y se afirma que fue sepultado cerca de ese lugar. Algunos autores sostienen que, en el año 258, las reliquias de San Pedro y San Pablo fueron trasladadas temporalmente a una catacumba poco conocida llamada San Sebastián, con el fin de evitar su profanación. Años después, las reliquias regresaron al sitio donde se hallaban originalmente.

En el año 323, el emperador Constantino inició la construcción de la basílica de San Pedro sobre el sepulcro del Apóstol. La basílica permaneció prácticamente idéntica durante dos siglos, y poco a poco los papas fueron estableciendo junto a ella, al pie de la colina vaticana, su residencia. El altar mayor se erigió directamente sobre la tumba de Pedro.

El martirio de San Pablo tuvo lugar a unos once kilómetros del de San Pedro, en Aquae Salviae (actualmente Tre Fontane). Su cadáver fue sepultado a unos tres kilómetros de allí. La gran iglesia de San Pablo Extramuros fue construida principalmente por el emperador Teodosio I y el papa san León Magno. En 1823 fue destruida por un incendio, pero posteriormente se reconstruyó siguiendo el modelo de la anterior, y fue consagrada por el papa Pío IX en 1854.

Rafael, Bramante, Miguel Ángel y Bernini, eximios maestros de la expresividad artística occidental, trabajaron en estas basílicas plasmando en ellas lo mejor de su arte. La basílica de San Pedro mide 212 metros de largo, 140 de ancho y 133 de altura; ningún otro templo del mundo cristiano la iguala en proporciones.

Esta celebración nos brinda la ocasión de resaltar el significado y el valor de la Iglesia. La belleza y la grandeza de las basílicas deben recordarnos la "solidez" de esa "Iglesia", fundamento de nuestra esperanza y confianza:

"Yo te digo que tú eres Pedro, y sobre esta piedra edificaré mi Iglesia, y las puertas del infierno no prevalecerán contra ella."

November 15, 2025

As we approach Thanksgiving, allow me to assure you of my prayers for a blessed and happy holiday. During this time when we recognize and appreciate all that we have been given, it is important to also remember those who are less fortunate.

Many seniors within the Diocese of Venice live on a fixed income and have strongly felt the impact of the current economic environment. As a result, many lack basic needs, such as food and shelter, particularly in the rural areas of the Diocese. This year, the Diocese of Venice will be taking up the Elderly Care Collection on the weekend of November 22-23, 2025, to support this often-overlooked population.

Funds raised by your generosity towards this collection will assist the Diocese in providing charitable outreach for the elderly, both through Catholic Charities and housing initiatives. Pope Leo XIV has said, "The elderly are a gift, a blessing to be welcomed." Please prayerfully consider contributing to this collection. Your support can make a real difference in the lives of our senior brothers and sisters in need.

May God bless you for your kindness and generous response!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
