2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Matthew's Gospel, we learn of John's continued warning for us to be ready for Jesus when he comes again. It is not enough that we are sons and daughters of Abraham, but by our own desire, we want to live a life pleasing to God. The Gospel challenges us to bear fruit. It was not enough for the Sadducees nor is it enough for us to simply follow the rules and rituals of our faith. The very actions of lives must show what we believe about our faith. Continue using the Advent wreath as a tool for prayer. Light the second candle today and offer one suggestion of something you will do this week to take some quiet, reflective time. Think of at least one way you (individually or as a family) will create peace for yourself or someone near you.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 4: 12-23

Next weekend we pick up Matthew's Gospel through which God will speak to us for most of this year. Two things speak to us as Jesus comes out of the desert to begin his ministry, and there are two things he reveals to us. They both come from his action. He has no intention or any thought that he could or should carry out his mission alone. He not only shares his message, he shares his power as well. He comes from the desert and immediately begins to form the church with the apostles. He will share with them his power to forgive, heal, comfort and feed. God needs us and we need one another is the message here. There are a lot of people these days who think they don't need anyone and some who think they don't need the Church. Their lives are an endless desert of desperate loneliness and hunger for food that perishes. We come into Communion because we know we can't and should not try to go it alone. Then, the second thing we may take home is that God meets us where we are. Peter, Andrew, James, and John were doing what they did every day. It was there that God found them and it was there they met Christ Jesus. They were not in the Temple or the Synagogue. They did not disown their family, but they opened up a new sense of who was brother or sister. They did not have to stop fishing, they simply began to fish for something else.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

"This morning my soul is greater than the world since it possesses you, you whom heaven and earth do not contain."

— Margaret of Cortona

A Response of the Heart

The movement from loneliness to solitude should lead to a gradual conversion from an anxious reaction to a loving response. Loneliness leads to quick, often spastic, reactions which make us prisoners of our constantly changing world. But in solitude of heart, we can listen to the events of the hour, the day and the year and slowly "formulate," give form to, a response that is really our own. In solitude, we can pay careful attention to the world and search for an honest response.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

THE CORE OF DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

Our first reading, from Isaiah, contains this prophecy of Christ and what His saving message would mean to all who embrace it: “The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone.” We are among those blessed people on whom the light of Christ has shone. By virtue of our Baptism, we—who were once in the darkness of original sin—have been reborn into the great light that is God’s grace within us. We are cherished members of God’s family.

What a privilege! Yet with this privilege comes the responsibility to live for God and to bring His Good News to all those we meet—at work, at school, in our community, and within our own homes—in other words, to live as His good stewards.

There is also a sense of urgency in the call to a stewardship way of life, as we hear in our Gospel passage from Matthew. Jesus says, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” In other words, turn away from selfishness, turn toward God, and live as His disciple now—do not wait.

In this same passage, the first disciples provide us with a powerful example of a good steward’s prompt “yes” to the Lord’s call. Jesus invites them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” They did not hesitate, but “at once they left their nets and followed Him.” They placed our Lord and His will first.

This is the essence of a stewardship way of life—to be ready and willing to respond when our Lord calls us to bring His light to others. Stewardship is more than something we do; it is who we are.

How Can You Live Stewardship This Week?

- Pray daily for guidance to put God first in all decisions.
- Offer your time by volunteering in a parish ministry or helping someone in need.
- Share your talents by using your gifts to serve others—through music, teaching, or simple acts of kindness.
- Give generously by supporting your parish and charitable causes as an expression of gratitude.
- Invite someone to Mass or offer a word of encouragement to a friend or family member.

SANTA INÉS

Patrona de las jóvenes, las novias y la pureza.

El nombre de Inés proviene del griego Agnes/Agnus, que significa “cordero”, el más dócil de los animales, símbolo de nobleza, mansedumbre, ternura, pureza, protección, sencillez y delicadeza. No es casualidad que sea también símbolo de Cristo.

Santa Inés nació en el año 291 en una familia noble romana. Desde muy joven fue pretendida por muchos jóvenes ricos e influyentes. Al rechazarlos uno a uno, alegando estar comprometida con Cristo, fue denunciada por desobedecer las órdenes del emperador ante las autoridades civiles. Eran tiempos del cruel Diocleciano, quien ordenó sanciones que culminaron con su ejecución.

Santa Inés murió a los 13 años. Pese a su juventud, dio ejemplo de inmensa fortaleza al permanecer firme durante el martirio: “No tenía edad aún para ser condenada, pero estaba ya madura para la victoria... fue capaz de dar testimonio de las cosas de Dios, siendo una niña incapaz legalmente de dar testimonio de las cosas humanas, porque el Autor de la naturaleza puede hacer que se superen las leyes naturales.”

En este tiempo de materialismo, que su ejemplo sea un modelo de castidad para la juventud. La liturgia la presenta como ejemplo de los éxitos que puede alcanzar una persona con una gran fe. La fe en Dios y en la eternidad conduce al heroísmo.
