3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The reading today from Matthew's Gospel takes place early in Jesus' ministry. Several ideas are clear. First of all, Matthew strived to connect his Gospel for the early Christians to their Jewish heritage. He made several references in his Gospel like the one today in which prophecies of old are fulfilled in Jesus. The second thing was that Jesus learned of John the Baptist's arrest and resolved to begin his ministry away from Herod. Finally, Jesus called with some urgency, his first four disciples. The common thread to all this was that God's Kingdom was at hand. Following the evening meal or when your family gathers for bedtime prayers, share one thing about your day that indicates you are a "fisher of people." Encourage all members of the family to think about how they are disciples for Jesus—how they carry the Good News into the neighborhood, their school, or their work.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 5: 1-12

Next weekend it's back to basics, and in three weeks it will be Lent. Penance Rites will be scheduled everywhere, and the lines for Confession will grow longer with those taking the Lenten call to repentance seriously. Many of us were taught that most evil is rooted in breaking the commandments. An old confessor once directed me to Matthew 5 saying: "If you want to be holy, pay attention to this. If you want to grow spiritually, pay attention to this. If you want to know what God cares about, pay attention to this. If you think that just keeping the commandments will make you pleasing in God's sight, you are fooling yourself and looking for an easy way out." Not breaking a commandment does not make you good, holy, or faithful. It simply means you didn't do anything, and that may be a problem when judgement comes. There is nothing, noble, profound, or blessed in just keeping the commandments.

It is just safe. Take some advice from an old confessor who is also a penitent. Pay attention to the Gospel next weekend. If any of us stand before the Lord wanting a place among the Blessed, I don't think we can claim that place by saying we didn't steal, mess around with sex, or take the Lord's name in vain. We will have a claim when we have made peace, longed and worked for things to be right, lived simply, mercifully, and joyfully.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

"If things created are so full of loveliness, how resplendent with beauty must be the One who made them! The wisdom of the Worker is apparent in His handiwork."

— St. Anthony of Padua

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Restoring Hospitality

If there is any concept worth restoring to its original depth and vocative potential, it is the concept of hospitality. It is one of the richest biblical terms that can deepen and broaden our insight in our relationships to our fellow human beings. Old and New Testament stories not only show how serious our obligation is to welcome the stranger in our home, but they also tell us that guests are carrying precious gifts with them, which they are eager to reveal to a receptive host.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

— St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

STEWARDSHIP: A DISCIPLE'S RESPONSE

A New Year Reflection

“Once one chooses to become a disciple of Jesus Christ, stewardship is not an option.”

— Bishop John McRaith

As we begin this new year together, we are reminded of a truth that shapes our lives as followers of Christ: stewardship is not just something we do—it is who we are.

This year marks the 34th anniversary of the U.S. bishops’ pastoral letter Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response. Its message remains as relevant today as when it was first written: living as disciples means embracing a life rooted in gratitude, generosity, and mission.

Stewardship begins with discipleship—learning at the feet of Jesus and responding to His call.

Bishop Sylvester Ryan expressed this beautifully:

“We become disciples learning at the feet of Jesus and responding to Jesus who sends us forth to proclaim the Kingdom.”

Why This Matters for Us

- Our parish thrives when each of us lives as a faithful steward, sharing our time, talent, and treasure with love.
- What ministry has Christ placed on your heart that could benefit from your gifts and talents?
- Reflecting on stewardship helps us grow closer to Christ and strengthens our parish community.

Questions for Your Heart

- How does stewardship shape the way you live as a disciple of Jesus?
- How can you help our parish respond to Christ’s call to proclaim the Kingdom and grow as good stewards?

Let us take these questions to prayer—and to action. Together, may this new year be a time of renewal, as we live more fully as disciples who joyfully share God’s gifts.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

If you or a family member are grieving the loss of a family member or friend, we invite you to participate in a Saint Agnes support group designed to offer spiritual and emotional support. All are welcome including past participants. The 6-week program will begin Wednesday, February 11 from 2-3:30 p.m., Classroom 5 in the Parish Center.

Please call the parish office 239-592-1949 to register.
Mary Ann Okner, Facilitator

You are in our prayers.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Formerly called Last Rites or Extreme Unction, this Sacrament is for those experiencing a serious illness, facing an operation or dying. Anointing of the Sick should be performed before death is imminent, when a person is conscious and able to receive comfort from the sacrament.

We make every effort to provide pastoral care and the sacrament of anointing to all who request it; however, families are encouraged to call sooner rather than later. If a loved one is at home and needs the sacrament, please call the office at 592-1949 to arrange for a priest to visit.

In the Hospital?

Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament. Be aware that because of HIPAA

Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient.

La Corresponsabilidad: Respuesta de un Discípulo Reflexión para el Año Nuevo

«Una vez que uno elige convertirse en discípulo de Jesucristo, la corresponsabilidad no es una opción».

– Obispo John McRaith

Al comenzar este nuevo año juntos, se nos recuerda una verdad que da forma a nuestra vida como seguidores de Cristo: la corresponsabilidad no es solo algo que hacemos; es parte de quienes somos.

Este año marca el 34.º aniversario de la carta pastoral de los obispos de los Estados Unidos, La Corresponsabilidad: Respuesta de un Discípulo. Su mensaje sigue siendo tan actual hoy como cuando fue escrito por primera vez: vivir como discípulos significa abrazar una vida arraigada en la gratitud, la generosidad y la misión.

La corresponsabilidad comienza con el discipulado: aprender a los pies de Jesús y responder a su llamado. El obispo Sylvester Ryan lo expresó bellamente:

«Nos convertimos en discípulos aprendiendo a los pies de Jesús y respondiendo a Jesús, quien nos envía a proclamar el Reino».

Por Qué Esto Es Importante para Nosotros

- Nuestra parroquia prospera cuando cada uno de nosotros vive como un fiel corresponsable, compartiendo su tiempo, talento y tesoro con amor.
- ¿Qué ministerio ha puesto Cristo en tu corazón que podría beneficiarse de tus dones y talentos?
- Reflexionar sobre la corresponsabilidad nos ayuda a crecer más cerca de Cristo y fortalece nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Preguntas para el Corazón

- ¿Cómo da forma la corresponsabilidad a la manera en que vives como discípulo de Jesús?
- ¿Cómo puedes ayudar a nuestra parroquia a responder al llamado de Cristo para proclamar el Reino y crecer como buenos corresponsables?

Lleemos estas preguntas a la oración y a la acción. Juntos, que este nuevo año sea un tiempo de renovación, viviendo más plenamente como discípulos que comparten con alegría los dones de Dios.

– Leisa Anslinger, Editado por G. Carter
