3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Despondent and discouraged, two of Jesus' apostles walked from Jerusalem to Emmaus. They talked on their way about the events that had occurred in the past several days. A stranger joined them, actually Jesus, but they didn't recognize him at first. Jesus asked the apostles what they had been discussing, and they responded with a summary of the events surrounding Jesus' death. The disciples still did not understand the resurrection, but Jesus questioned their resistance to believe what the prophets had foretold. Despite their hopelessness the apostles invited Jesus to stay with them. He accepted. It was that evening, when Jesus broke bread with them, that the disciples finally recognized the stranger to be Jesus. The next morning, the disciples returned to Jerusalem.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

John 10: 1-10

Next weekend the image of a Shepherd gets put before us. I have always been uncomfortable with a superficial reading of John 10. Without careful reflection and study it supports a kind of “clericalism” that is not helpful for us as a church suggesting that shepherds are in charge, and we are sheep, passive and willing to fall in line at the shepherd’s orders. Most likely what John is proposing is that the Church is Shepherd, not just some members. Think of it this way: if Jesus is Shepherd, then the Church, the Body of Christ is Shepherd, and what he describes as the behavior of the Shepherd is the behavior of the Church that carries on the mission and presence of Christ in this world. We are not being called, “Sheep.” We are called to be Church, a “Shepherd” and a “Gate” through which those seeking security, salvation, and hope might have access to peace that comes with hearing the Word of God, and being affirmed, respected, cared for, and called by name. That is what Shepherds do. Through our patient mercy, our willing forgiveness, our generous service, our faithfulness to the Word of God, others can see through us the way to salvation. This is not the responsibility of those entrusted with leadership. It is their role to remind, encourage, support, and keep us focused so that we may truly be the gate for those who have not yet found one.

Your Heart Is Greater Than Your Wounds

It is better to cry than to worry, better to feel your wounds deeply than to understand them, better to let them enter into your silence, then to talk about them. The choice you face constantly is whether you are taking your hurts to your head or to your heart. In your head, you can analyze them, find their causes and consequences, and coin words to speak and write about them. But no final healing is likely to come from that source. You need to let your wounds go down into your heart.

Then you can live them through and discover that they will not destroy you. Your heart is greater than your wounds.

Henri Nouwen

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

God doesn't need our money—but He invites us to trust Him with our money. When we place our trust in God, we discover a beautiful truth: we can never outdo God's generosity.

Take a moment to reflect: Why are you here? What is the purpose of your life?

Simply put, we are created to love God. Loving God is what we are “for.” It is the purpose of our lives. True peace and lasting joy are only found when God is at the center of all that we do.

—Carl Brown

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus teaches us three sacred practices that shape a life of sacrifice: prayer, fasting, and giving alms. Each of these invites us to offer something of ourselves to God.

When we pray, we offer our time.

When we fast, we surrender our comfort.

And when we give alms, we release our sense of control.

Sacrifice is one of the clearest expressions of love—and love is measured by what we are willing to give.

So why do we love God?

He is all-powerful and all-knowing.

He is always present everywhere and.

Much of who He has remained beyond our understanding, yet we trust and love Him all the same.

Some of my personal reasons for loving God include:

- He died for me.
- He created me.
- He gave me my parents.
- He blessed me with free will.
- He gave me friends and community.
- He gifted me with unique charisms.
- And above all, He loves me unconditionally.

The list could go on, but now it is your turn. Take time to reflect: Why do YOU love God?

God has done so much for each one of us. Our response is gratitude—and gratitude is lived out through the giving of our time, talent, and treasure.

In Mark 12:41–44, Jesus points to the widow who gave all she had, though it was very little, while others gave from their surplus. Her gift was small in the eyes of the world, but great in the eyes of God.

So, we are invited to ask ourselves: How am I giving?

Am I giving from what is left over—or am I giving generously in response to all that God has given me?

This is an opportunity to pray and discern how God is calling you to give, and how you might support the CFA and our Capital Campaign when it begins, with a grateful, trusting, and generous heart.

GENEROSIDAD SACRIFICIAL

Dios no necesita nuestro dinero, pero nos invita a confiar en Él con lo que tenemos. Cuando ponemos nuestra confianza en Dios, descubrimos una hermosa verdad: nunca podremos superar su generosidad.

Tómate un momento para reflexionar: ¿Por qué estás aquí? ¿Cuál es el propósito de tu vida?

En pocas palabras, fuimos creados para amar a Dios. Amar a Dios es para lo que existimos; es el propósito de nuestra vida. La verdadera paz y la alegría duradera solo se encuentran cuando Dios está en el centro de todo lo que hacemos.

—Carl Brown

En el Sermón del Monte, Jesús nos enseña tres prácticas sagradas que forman una vida de sacrificio: la oración, el ayuno y la limosna. Cada una nos invita a ofrecer algo de nosotros mismos a Dios:

Cuando oramos, ofrecemos nuestro tiempo.

Cuando ayunamos, renunciamos a nuestra comodidad.

Cuando damos limosna, soltamos nuestro sentido de control.

El sacrificio es una de las expresiones más claras del amor, y el amor se mide por lo que estamos dispuestos a dar.

Entonces, ¿por qué amamos a Dios?

Él es todopoderoso y todo lo sabe.

Está presente en todo lugar.

Mucho de quién es permanece más allá de nuestra comprensión, y aun así confiamos en Él y lo amamos.

Algunas razones personales para amar a Dios pueden ser:

Murió por mí.

Me creó.

Me dio a mis padres.

Me bendijo con el libre albedrío.

Me dio amigos y comunidad.

Me regaló dones y carismas únicos.

Y, sobre todo, me ama incondicionalmente.

La lista podría continuar, pero ahora es tu turno. Tómame un tiempo para reflexionar: ¿Por qué amas tú a Dios?

Dios ha hecho tanto por cada uno de nosotros. Nuestra respuesta es la gratitud, y la gratitud se vive a través de la entrega de nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro.

En Marcos 12, 41-44, Jesús señala a la viuda que dio todo lo que tenía, aunque era muy poco, mientras que otros daban de lo que les sobraba. Su ofrenda era pequeña a los ojos del mundo, pero grande a los ojos de Dios.

Por eso, estamos invitados a preguntarnos: ¿Cómo estoy dando?

¿Doy de lo que me sobra o doy generosamente en respuesta a todo lo que Dios me ha dado?

Esta es una oportunidad para orar y discernir cómo Dios te está llamando a dar, y cómo puedes apoyar la Campaña Anual Católica (CFA) y nuestra Campaña de Capital cuando comience, con un corazón agradecido, confiado y generoso.

Adaptado de Carl Brown, "Los beneficios espirituales de dar", editado por Gloria Carter.
