PENTECOST SUNDAY

Because we are celebrating the sending down of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples, you may want to also consider the second reading for 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13. In this reading Paul helps us understand the Gifts of the Spirit. There are many gifts of the Spirit, Paul explained, although they all come from one God. The Spirit comes to each of us that we may use our gifts to work for goodness. Even though we each have a variety of gifts, together we can use them for the glory of God. Sketch a simple figure of a body and call it by your family name. Label parts of the body such as ears, eyes, hands, feet, etc. and consider which members of the family are those parts of the whole body. For example, who is a good listener? Whose eyes are good at finding lost items? Who helps out at home doing extra chores, and who walks the dog? Certainly more than one person can claim a part. When you are finished, you will marvel at how many gifts you have together as a family.

A Joyful Welcome to Our New Shepherd

With hearts full of gratitude and hope, the parish family of St. Agnes Catholic Church joins the faithful throughout the Diocese of Venice in joyfully welcoming Bishop-elect Emilio Biosca Agüero, appointed by Pope Leo XIV as the next Bishop of Venice in Florida.

This moment marks an important and grace-filled chapter in the life of our Diocese. We give thanks to God for sending us a shepherd whose life has been marked by missionary zeal, humble service, and deep pastoral love for the people entrusted to his care.

Bishop-elect Emilio Biosca Agüero is a Capuchin Franciscan priest whose ministry reflects the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi: simplicity, compassion, joy, and a profound love for Christ and His Church. Born in Colorado Springs to a Cuban immigrant family and one of seven children, Bishop-elect Biosca has dedicated his life to serving God's people wherever the Lord has called him. His priestly ministry has taken him to missionary service in Papua New Guinea and Cuba, where he accompanied communities with faith, tenderness, and dedication. Most recently, he served as pastor of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart in Washington, D.C., where he became known as a compassionate shepherd and faithful spiritual leader.

As our new bishop prepares to begin his ministry among us, we welcome him with open hearts and prayers. We pray that the Holy Spirit grants him wisdom, courage, peace, and strength as he leads the Diocese of Venice with faithfulness and love. May he find in Southwest Florida a diocesan family ready to walk alongside him in unity, service, and the joyful mission of proclaiming the Gospel.

At the same time, we offer our deepest gratitude and affection to Bishop Frank J. Dewane for his faithful and devoted service during the past 20 years as Bishop of Venice. Through two decades of dedicated leadership, Bishop Dewane has guided our Diocese with steadfast faith, pastoral care, and a deep commitment to the mission of the Church. His love for the Eucharist, dedication to Catholic education, support for vocations, outreach to the poor and vulnerable, and tireless work for the spiritual growth of our diocesan family have left a lasting impact on countless lives.

Under Bishop Dewane's leadership, the Diocese of Venice experienced growth in faith, ministries, charitable outreach, and evangelization. His steady presence through times of blessing and challenge alike has strengthened our communities and inspired many to live their faith more deeply. We are profoundly grateful for his years of service, sacrifice, and love for the people of Southwest Florida.

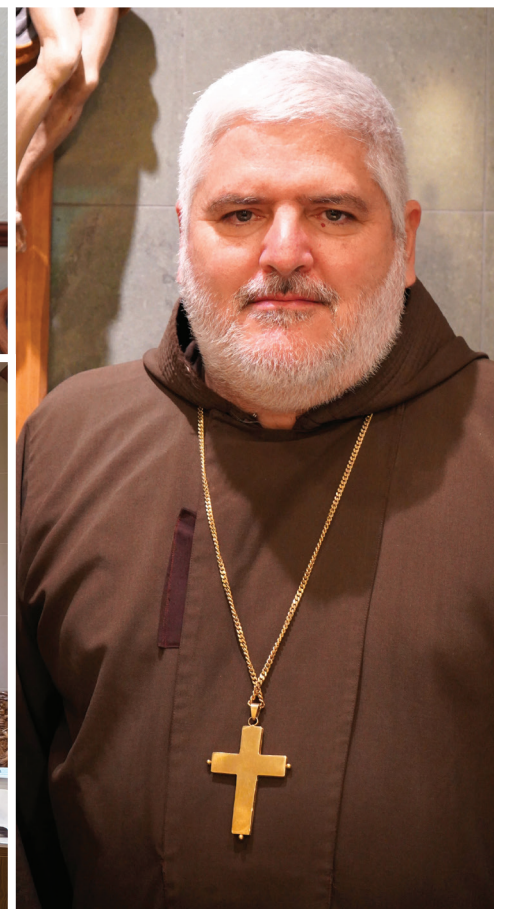

As we prepare to welcome Bishop-elect Biosca and honor Bishop Dewane's faithful ministry, let us continue to pray for our Diocese during this time of transition. May the Lord bless Bishop Dewane abundantly for all he has given to our local Church, and may He guide Bishop-elect Emilio as he begins this new journey as our shepherd.

Together, as one family of faith, we entrust both bishops and the entire Diocese of Venice to the loving care of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Welcome, Bishop-elect Emilio Biosca Agüero, to the Diocese of Venice and to the family of St. Agnes Catholic Church!

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Trinity Sunday

John 3: 16-18

I remain fascinated with the Word of God by the ongoing study of languages that refines our translations closer to what was originally intended by the writer. One of those changes reveals something about the Gospel we shall proclaim next weekend. A verse we have seen on billboards and signs says: "For God so loved the world." Recent studies suggest that this is better translated: "For in this way, God loved the world." It is a subtle change from how much God loved the world, to simply how God loved the world. If that is John's intention, he is telling us that God loves through this unique and only Son suggesting that God's love is shown by action, and the sending of that promised Spirit is one more powerful action that shows God's love. Lest we forget what has happened to us through the Incarnation, another incarnation with the Spirit comes to fill us with mercy, to keep us gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and shape us more profoundly into the very image of God revealed by Jesus Christ. It is about the wonder of a God who will not leave us alone, a God whose Spirit in us continues to be revealed by what we do and say in the name of his Son. This is the Trinity we experience greater than the Trinity of Theologians. It is the Father, the Son and a Spirit filled people who remember in whose image they were made.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

Dear Lord, As we remember the fallen who scarified their comforts, family time, and ultimately, their lives to give us the freedoms we enjoy today. Help us to never forget this selfless act – the service they paid for our free society. There is a time for everything and while we struggle with their time to leave earth, give us comfort and contentment that Your plan is in progress. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Surprised by Joy

With an eye focused on the poor, a heart trusting that we will get what we need, and a spirit always surprised by joy, we will exercise true power and walk through this valley of darkness performing and witnessing miracles. God's power becomes ours and goes out from us wherever we go and to whomever we meet.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

PENTECOST AND STEWARDSHIP

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace.”

— 1 Peter 4:10

What identifies a steward? One answer is the responsible care of both material and human resources. Another is the generous sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. As Christian stewards, we gratefully receive God’s gifts, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly and justly with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

Disciples as Stewards

- Stewardship begins with being a disciple—a follower of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- Mature disciples make a conscious decision to follow Jesus, no matter the cost.
- Christian disciples experience conversion: life-changing transformations of mind and heart that lead them to commit themselves fully to the Lord.
- Christian stewards respond in a special way to the call of discipleship, recognizing with gratitude the many gifts they have received from God.

Stewards of Creation

- God created the world and entrusted it to humanity.
- We are called to care for and cultivate creation as faithful stewards.

Stewards of Vocation

- Jesus calls us, as His disciples, to a new way of life—the Christian way of life—in which stewardship is an essential part.
- He does not call us as nameless faces in a crowd, but individually and personally by name.
- God intends each of us to play a unique role in carrying out His divine plan.
- Our challenge is to understand our vocation and respond generously to God’s call.

Stewards of the Church

- Stewards of God’s gifts are not passive beneficiaries.
- We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others.

Obstacles to Stewardship

- Today’s secular culture often contradicts religious convictions about the meaning and purpose of life.
- It frequently encourages self-centeredness and the pursuit of personal pleasure.
- At times, it becomes easy to ignore spiritual realities and deny faith a role in shaping human and social values.

A Steward’s Way of Life

- The life of a Christian steward reflects the life of Jesus.
- Though challenging and sometimes difficult, stewardship brings deep joy to those willing to live it faithfully.
- The Holy Spirit guides us on this journey.
- Stewardship is an essential part of the Christian way of life.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are welcome!

FOR CHILDREN
AGES 5-10*
DURING 11AM
MASS EVERY SUNDAY

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.

Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahla at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Alejandro Giraldo-Roldán son los jueves y viernes de 1:00 p.m. a 4:00 p.m. Por favor, llame a la oficina para hacer su cita al (239) 592-1949.

Reconocido por haber recibido el don de la sanación, de profecía y el poder de leer los pensamientos.

San Felipe Neri, recibió sus primeras enseñanzas religiosas de parte de los frailes dominicos. Tuvo una experiencia mística en la capilla de Monte Cassino y descubrió su vocación al sacerdocio y fue cuando decidió retirarse de la opulencia y los bienes materiales para desplazarse a Roma en 1533 a servir a Dios. Se dedicó a enseñar Catecismo a los pobres, en Roma que estaba pasando por un momento de ignorancia religiosa, los sacerdotes abandonaban a la feligresía y las iglesias, las costumbres de la época no eran las mejores. Durante 40 años Felipe fue el mejor catequista de Roma y logró transformar la ciudad. Su activo apostolado inició con la visita a hospitales. Tiendas, almacenes, bancos, lugares públicos, exhortando a las personas a servir a Dios. Recibió el Don de la alegría y amabilidad y así lograba hacerse amigo de obreros, empleados, vendedores, niños de la calle. Su pregunta era: "Y cuando vamos a volvernos mejores?" y a todo aquel que mostraba buena disponibilidad, solía explicarles de modos sencillos para llegar a ser más piadoso y comenzar a hacer la voluntad de Dios. San Felipe pasaba las noches en profunda oración y practicaba las obras corporales de misericordia. Fue ordenado sacerdote en 1551 y se dedicó principalmente a la confesión, tenía el don de leer el pensamiento de los penitentes y los guiaba con compasión por el camino de la santidad. También celebraba con gran devoción la santa misa, teniendo experiencias místicas que trataba de ocultar. Le fue concedido el don de curación y les devolvió la salud a muchos enfermos. Murió a los 80 años. Fue declarado el mejor catequista y director espiritual.
