11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus called the twelve disciples and sent them as missionaries to continue the work God began in him. The disciples were to go out to the people and proclaim the Good News of the coming Kingdom. Each one of us is an apostle for Jesus. Think of the many gifts each person in your family has. Help point them out for one another. There may be examples of faith, service, caring and sensitivity. Identify for one another how these gifts help carry the message of the Good News into the world. Let each member of the family consider at least one new way he or she will use these gifts to take the Gospel message to one new person this week.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

12th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 10: 26-33

Next week we hear these words: “Be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body.” If we ever stop to wonder who that is, we will discover that we are the only ones who can do that to ourselves. Others may destroy our body, but we are the only ones who can destroy both body and soul. When Jesus sends out disciples, he cautions them about how to respond when they are not welcomed or mistreated. His caution remains the same today. Be careful how you respond. Physical or emotional harm is nothing compared to the power revenge has to eat away one’s soul and destroy one’s inner or spiritual wellbeing. Revenge will make life hell. Living now in a world gone mad by the evil power of revenge, we see communities destroyed, friendships and marriage broken, as wars begin that never end. Revenge is an infection, and we are living through a pandemic of it. Our sense of Justice is corrupted into revenge. What God wants for us is goodness, peace, and joyful happiness living together in God’s love. Yet, that is impossible when there is anger and revenge. The best revenge is always forgiveness, and that revenge will set us free. Without it, we are caught in a self-destructive cycle. None of us can get ahead while trying to get even, and the only people we should get even with are the people who have helped us.

-Fr. Tom Boyer

First Reading: Ex 19:5

Second Reading: Rom 5:8

Gospel: Mt 9:36

Adults: When have you been most blessed and when have you felt a little "broken" in your service to others?

¿Cuándo te has sentido más bendecido y cuándo te has sentido un poco «roto» en tu servicio a los demás?

Children: Why is it important to keep on giving, even when you are tired?

¿Por qué es importante seguir dando, incluso cuando estás cansado?

Living at the Place of Innocence

I know that I am called to live at the place of innocence – the place where Jesus chose to live. There he made his home and asks me to make mine. In that place I am loved and well held. There I do not have to be afraid. And from there I can forgive and heal and make things new...I know that every time I choose for my innocence, I don't have to worry about the next ten years. I can simply be where I am, listening, seeing, touching in the very moment, always sure that I am not alone but with him who called me to live as God's child.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

- St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

OUR MISSION: STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares His mission of proclaiming the Kingdom of Heaven with His disciples. The signs of the Kingdom's presence are evident in the works He has already been performing: the sick are healed, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. Jesus now sends His disciples to continue the work He has begun.

This moment marks a transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus shifts from the ministry of Jesus to the mission of the community He established. More than any other Gospel, Matthew emphasizes the role of the Church, which continues Christ's work after His death and resurrection.

The Gospel tells us that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars see the Twelve as a symbol of the twelve tribes of Israel, highlighting the continuity between Israel and the Church. Matthew lists the names of the Twelve, as do Mark and Luke, but he also refers to them as apostles. The word apostle means “one who is sent.” Matthew uses this title to emphasize the mission entrusted to them: to proclaim the Kingdom of Heaven through both word and action.

Just as Jesus sent His disciples to continue His mission, He sends us today. The Church is Christ's continuing presence in the world, and every member of the Church is called to participate in that mission.

Through Baptism, we become disciples of Jesus Christ and are called to share the Gospel with everyone we encounter. This is the heart of stewardship: the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes God's many gifts, receives them with gratitude, and shares them generously out of love for God and neighbor.

-Adapted from Loyola Press, edited by G. Carter.

There are many opportunities here at St. Agnes. A few that currently need assistance include:

- Adult Altar Servers — prepare the altar for Mass
- Hospitality — assist our team in serving parish events and functions
- Ushers — serve at weekend Masses

For more information on these opportunities, please call Gloria Carter at 239-592-1949 ext. 118.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BUSINESS MANAGER

As I approach the close of my first year serving St. Agnes, I am filled with gratitude. This parish is truly something special, and that is entirely because of you – the parishioners who give so generously of your time, your talent, and your treasure.

I also want to thank you for your patience as I got up to speed in my role. As things have come into focus this past year, one thing became clear – the financial updates had fallen behind, and that needed to be made right. Therefore, this week you will find three quarters of financials presented together. Starting next week, we will return to our regular monthly reporting in the bulletin.

Your faithfulness makes this community thrive, and it is a privilege to serve alongside you.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

God bless you all.

Jeff Vespo, Business Manager

Children are welcome – we'll have toys available so little ones can play while moms connect.

DATES: Mondays
May 4 • May 18 • June 1 • June 29

TIME: 9:15 am – 10:15 am
(after daily mass)

LOCATION: Parish Center – Classroom 2

Come as you are, bring a friend, and join us as we build a supportive community together.

We look forward to seeing you!

Optional book: "A Book of Saints for Catholic Moms" by Lisa Hendey.

Waiting in Love: A Grandparents' Support Ministry

"Grandchildren are the crow of the aged..."
(Proverbs 17:6)

Being a grandparent is a special time in a person's life. However, family rejection can leave grandparents with no contact with their grandchildren, causing disbelief and sadness. This Support Ministry will provide an opportunity for participants to hear one another's burden learn new information, and spend time in prayer for each other's needs. It will also help participants (without providing therapy) find peace in the present, while maintaining hope for the future.

This ministry will meet on the First Thursday of every month at 9 a.m. in the Rome Room at St. John the Evangelist Church, 625 111th Ave N in Naples.

For additional information, please contact Bill Shipman: wshipman@sjecc.org

CATHOLIC CHURCH

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are welcome!

FOR CHILDREN
AGES 5-10*
DURING 11AM
MASS EVERY SUNDAY

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.

Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahlra at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

San Bernabé Apóstol

Patrono de la paz

11 de junio

San Bernabé fue considerado Apóstol por los primeros Padres de la Iglesia y por San Lucas, aunque no formó parte del grupo inicial de los Doce elegidos por Jesucristo. Una vez convertido a Cristo, fue el Espíritu Santo quien le confió misiones específicas, que él cumplió con gran celo y generosidad.

Bernabé era apreciado por ser un hombre bondadoso, lleno del Espíritu Santo y de una profunda fe. Provenía de la tribu de Leví. Su nombre original era José, pero los Apóstoles le dieron el nombre de Bernabé, que significa "hijo de la consolación", "el que anima y entusiasma" o "el esforzado".

En el libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles aparece una historia relacionada con él: vendió sus propiedades y entregó el dinero a los discípulos para que fuera distribuido entre los más necesitados.

Bernabé trabajó muy de cerca con San Pablo en el anuncio de la Buena Nueva. Ambos permanecieron durante algún tiempo en Antioquía, ciudad que se convirtió en el centro de la evangelización de Asia Menor y donde, por primera vez, los seguidores de Cristo recibieron el nombre de "cristianos".

Desde Antioquía, Pablo y Bernabé fueron enviados a Jerusalén llevando una colecta para ayudar a quienes padecían hambre en Judea. Posteriormente recorrieron numerosas ciudades, fortaleciendo a los nuevos creyentes y ordenando presbíteros para las comunidades cristianas.

Más tarde regresaron a Jerusalén para participar en el primer Concilio de Jerusalén, donde se declaró que los gentiles convertidos al cristianismo no estaban obligados a cumplir el mandato de la circuncisión. Con esta decisión se puso fin a una de las primeras controversias que afectaron a la Iglesia naciente.

Nosotros
somos su
pueblo
y ovejas de su rebaño.

SALMO 100

PASTOR

Al ver Jesús a las multitudes,
se compadecía de ellas,
porque estaban extenuadas
y desamparadas, como ovejas sin pastor.
