14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus called those who would follow him “infants.” Compared to the Scribes and Pharisees they lacked social standing and religious expertise, but these infants were open to understanding. It was the “wise” who were prevented from hearing Jesus’ message because they were arrogant about their position and knowledge. Jesus offered his followers a lighter burden than that of the Jewish teachers.

Share a human interest story from the local newspaper. With the whole family try to determine how the people in the story either understood today’s Gospel as they simply acted as a child of God or how they received help from a child of God. Try to recall a time when your family had such an experience.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

15th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 13: 1-23

For the next three weeks, we hear Matthew 13 with the greatest concentration of parables in the whole Gospel. No matter which Father chooses to proclaim next week, a longer or a shorter version, the shorter is the more important. That "interpretation" was added later by a scribe copying the Gospel for others. The opening line sets the focus on the sower because Jesus is revealing something about the Father. Jesus tells this parable to the crowds raising a question about how much we are like the Father in whose image we have been made. Sadly, for many of us, the comparison can be disturbing. We are not always quite as generous with our gifts, time or attention as the Father who throws that seed everywhere. We like to measure out just how much we can spare or how much someone might deserve. We like to consider whether or not there will be a return on our investment, if there is risk. And so, the purpose of this parable is to give us pause to think again not just about how much like the Father we have become, but also to be reminded that even a little bit, or just a part of what we sow can produce an amazing harvest. It reminds us too that even though there may be disappointment over what we have done or failure to bear fruit, we can be sure that some will produce, and that it will be greater than we could ever imagine.

Standing Open to God

The heart means the core of our being. It includes the deep recesses of our psyche, our moods and feelings, our emotions and passions, and also our intuitions, insights, and visions. The heart is the place where we are most human. A listening heart therefore means a heart in which we stand open to God with all we are and have. That is a great act of trust and confidence.

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

PRAYERS FOR AMERICA ON THIS FOURTH OF JULY

America became a free country on July 4, 1776, however, what many may not know - or forget - is that America is also a nation under God founded on Christian principles.

Did you know? 54 of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Christians, 27 held theology degrees. Many went on to form Bible societies.

This is a prayer by our first president of the United States of America, George Washington.

“Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.

Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom your Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to your law, we may show forth your praise among the nations of the earth.

In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble, do not allow our trust in you to fall; all this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.” AMEN!

According to the late Ronald W. Reagan, the 40th President of the United States, “Without God there is no virtue because there is no prompting of the conscience....without God there is a coarsening of the society; without God democracy will not and cannot long endure....If we ever forget that we are one Nation Under God, then we will be a Nation gone under.”

Prayer for America

Eternal God, stir our minds and stimulate our hearts with a high sense of patriotism on this Fourth of July. May all that this day symbolizes renew our faith in freedom, our devotion to democracy, and redouble our efforts to keep a government of the people, by the people, and for the people truly alive in our world.

Grant that we may highly resolve on this great day to dedicate ourselves anew to the task of ushering in an era when goodwill shall live in the hearts of a free people, justice shall be the light to guide their feet, and peace shall be the goal of humankind: to the glory of your holy name and the good of our Nation and of all mankind. Amen. Chaplain, Rev. Edward G. Latch, D.D.

Let us not forget the principles that our country was built on. God Bless America.

HONORING OUR NATION'S SEMIQUINCENTENNIAL

THROUGH PRAYER, GRATITUDE AND SERVICE

As our nation celebrates its semi quinentennial year, 250 years of history, struggle, growth, and grace – we as Catholics are invited to reflect on this moment not only as citizens, but as people of faith. This year is more than a historical marker. It is a reminder of God's enduring presence across generations and a call to renew our commitment to the Gospel in the life of our nation.

A STORY INTERWOVEN WITH FAITH

From the earliest missionaries who brought the sacraments to this land, to the countless Catholic immigrants who built parishes, schools, and hospitals, the Church has been woven into the fabric of our national story. Our 250th year invites us to remember these contributions with gratitude.

We also acknowledge the complex and sometimes painful chapters of our shared history. The Church teaches that truth and reconciliation are essential to healing. As we reflect on our 250 years, we hold in prayer the indigenous communities, the enslaved peoples, and all who suffered injustice. Our faith calls us to honor their dignity and to work toward a more just society.

A CALL TO UNITY AND COMMON GOOD

Catholic social teaching reminds us that we are one human family. In a time when division can feel overwhelming, the semi-quinentennial offers a moment to commit ourselves to the common good. We are called to be bridge-builders – people who listen, who seek understanding, and who bring Christ's peace into our communities.

As Pope Frances reminded us, dialogue and encounter are pathways to healing. Our parish can be a place where those virtues take root.

LOOKING TOWARD THE NEXT 250 YEARS

While we honor the past, our faith urges us to look forward with hope and realization that the future will be shaped by how we live our discipleship today.

As Catholics, we are called to:

- Defend Human Dignity, from conception to natural death
- Serve the poor and vulnerable, following Christ's example
- Strengthening families and communities, the foundation of society
- Witness to the Gospel, even in challenging times
- Protect God's creation, recognizing the earth as a gift entrusted to our care.

A YEAR OF PRAYER, GRATITUDE AND SERVICE

Throughout the quinentennial year, may our parish community:

- Pray for our nation's leaders and for all who work for peace
- Give thanks for the blessings we enjoy and the freedoms we cherish
- Serve generously, remembering that faith becomes real when expressed in love
- Reflect deeply, asking how we can be instruments of God's grace in our country's next chapter.

As we celebrate this 250th year, and this 4th of July, may we place our nation under the protection of the Blessed Mother, asking her to intercede for us as we strive to build a future rooted in faith, hope, and charity.

Happy 250th America!

Happy 4th of July, from The Justice and Peace Committee

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION ADORERS NEEDED

Eucharistic Adoration Chapel Spend One Hour with the Lord

Our Eucharistic Adoration Chapel is open 24 hours a day, providing a quiet place to pray and spend time in the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

We are currently seeking additional adorers, as several Holy Hours are covered by only one person. Our goal is to have two adorers present during every hour of adoration. Please prayerfully consider committing to one hour each week or serving as a substitute when needed.

To sign up or learn more, visit the parish website or contact the parish office.

"Could you not keep watch with me for one hour?"

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are welcome!

FOR CHILDREN
AGES 5-10*
DURING 11AM
MASS EVERY SUNDAY

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.

Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahla at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Alejandro Giraldo-Roldán son los jueves y viernes de 1:00 p.m. a 4:00 p.m. Por favor, llame a la oficina para hacer su cita al (239) 592-1949.

Maria nació en 1890 en Italia, fue la tercera de siete hijos, en el seno de una familia pobre de bienes terrenales pero rica en fe y virtudes, comunicadas por medio de la oración en común, rosarios todos los días y domingos Misa y sagrada comunión. Recibió su primer sacramento al día siguiente de su nacimiento además fue consagrada a la Santísima Virgen Maria. A los seis años recibió el sacramento de la Confirmación. Debido a la crisis económica la familia emigró a las llanuras de los campos Romanos, poniéndose a la orden del conde Mazzoleni, y es cuando Maria muestra sus virtudes: su gran obediencia, la transparencia en lo que hablaba, su docilidad, inteligencia y madurez. Después de un largo año de trabajo duro, su padre contrae paludismo, enfermedad fulminante que acaba con su vida, dejando a la familia al cargo de su madre, quien empieza a trabajar para llevar el sustento a sus hijos. Maria siempre llevaba con ella su rosario y contemplaba constantemente el crucifijo, fuente de inspiración que aumentaba el amor hacia Dios y horror por el pecado. Ella deseaba recibir a Cristo en la sagrada comunión, por eso le pregunta a su madre cómo podía adelantar este momento, que para esa época era a los 11 años que la niña busca ayuda con sus vecinos para aprenderse el catecismo y estos al ver el interés de la niña, les regalaron la ropa y zapatos necesarios. Logrando recibir a nuestro señor en la Eucaristía, de esta manera a sus 7 años cumplió el sueño de estar siempre con Jesús. Su comunión constante aumenta su pureza y el deseo de defender esta virtud angélica y defenderla a toda costa. En la familia que vivía cerca a ellos, había un muchacho de 19 años que era indecente, vicioso, peleón que empieza a hacerle proposiciones deshonestas a Maria, quien las rechaza y deja ver su postura. Este muchacho aprovecha un momento donde la madre de la niña esta en el campo trabajando y la agarra violentamente que al resistirse es amenazada por el muchacho con un cuchillo y la hiere de muerte, sale huyendo, dejándola herida de muerte, cuando la encuentran ella dice lo sucedido. Es llevada al hospital, donde por la gravedad de sus heridas llaman al capellán, y Maria hace su confesión y perdona a su agresor deseando la salvación de su alma. Quien se arrepiente y se convierte a los caminos del Señor. Santa María Goretti, ruega por nosotros y por nuestros jóvenes.
