JULY 19, 2026

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This Gospel is a way of explaining why there is good and evil in the world today. As Jesus explained in the parable, the weeds (or evil) are allowed to grow with the wheat (or good). Only at the harvest (the end time) would God separate the good from the evil just as the farmer will separate the wheat from the weeds in Jesus' parable. How do we answer our children when they ask why bad things happen to good people? This parable of the wheat and the weeds may be a way of explaining why God allows evil, like the weeds, to grow next to goodness in our world today. Evil will not really be gone until the fullness of God's Kingdom.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 13: 44-52

The end of Chapter 13 and this string of surprise Parables comes next weekend. It concludes with two finders.

One gets something he does not deserve. He is a crook finding something on someone else's property and keeps it for himself. He gets a treasure he does not deserve. In contrast there is another man who has been searching and finally discovers what he has been looking for. The first one loses his morals. The second one keeps his. They both get a treasure and find joy. Notice that they do not become joyful until they have sold all that they have. We are left to wonder both what it is they find, and what it is that brings joy. Many in this world confuse joy with happiness. They are not the same. Happiness comes and goes, and it does not bring joy. It is the result of something that happens (Notice how similar the words are.) Joy, on the other hand is the result of choices we make. All us pursue happiness. You've heard that phrase before. Yet, in the end, we have to choose joy, which is something we know. Happiness is something we feel. Next week's Gospel speaks to us about joy and about the choices we make and what we seek in life. It is the seeking that matters, and we have been encouraged by Jesus Christ to "Seek first the Kingdom of God" with the promise that all things will be given to us. Seeking matters for us all.

Simple Quiet Rest

Why, O Lord, is it so hard for me to keep my heart directed toward you? Why do the many little things I want to do, and the many people I know, keep crowding my mind, even during the hours that I am totally free to be with you and you alone?

Why does my mind wander off in so many directions, and why does my heart desire the things that lead me astray?... The only thing you ask of me is not to hide from you, not to run away in despair, not to act as if you were a relentless despot. Take my tired body, my confused mind, and my restless soul into your arms and give me rest, simple quiet rest.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

STEWARDSHIP AND SPIRITUALITY

When many people hear the word stewardship, they think only about money. But biblical stewardship is about much more. It is about how we care for everything God has entrusted to us—our time, our talents, our treasure, our relationships, our gifts, and even our influence.

Stewardship is not about guilt or obligation. It is about gratitude. It is our response to God’s abundant generosity. It is a way of saying, “Lord, thank You for all You have given me. Help me to use it in a way that pleases You and glorifies You.”

The truth is that nothing we possess is truly ours. Everything is a gift from God, and we are simply the stewards—the caretakers—of His blessings.

Stewardship is a spiritual discipline: a regular, intentional way of living that deepens our relationship with God. It is not limited to financial giving or attending church. Rather, it is about offering our whole lives to God and allowing Him to direct how we use every gift He has entrusted to us.

The goal of the Christian life is to become more like Jesus Christ. Stewardship helps us move toward that goal. When we allow God to guide the way we spend our time, share our talents, care for our resources, and serve others, our hearts are gradually transformed into the likeness of Christ.

As Dallas Willard beautifully wrote:

“The disciple is one who, intent upon becoming Christ-like, systematically and progressively rearranges his affairs to that end.”

Stewardship, then, becomes much more than an occasional act of generosity—it becomes a way of life.

Stewardship as Spirituality

Stewardship invites us:

1. To grow in awareness of God’s presence and deepen our relationship with Him.
2. To strengthen our faith, making God the first priority and center of our lives.
3. To cultivate trust, confidently surrendering ourselves to Him, knowing He will always provide for our needs.
4. To develop grateful and content hearts, appreciating all that God has given us rather than constantly seeking more.
5. To use God’s gifts wisely and generously—for our own good, for the service of others, and above all, for the glory of God.

Stewardship is not simply something we do; it is who we become. It is both a spirituality and a lifestyle—a daily way of living our faith.

It is deeply rooted in the person of Jesus Christ, who gave Himself completely for the glory of the Father and the salvation of the world. Following His example, we are called to offer our own lives in loving service.

God has entrusted each of us with a unique mission. He has given every person gifts, opportunities, and responsibilities that no one else can fulfill in exactly the same way. As with every aspect of the spiritual life, each person’s stewardship journey is unique. No two paths are identical, yet all are invitations to faithfully respond to God’s call with grateful hearts, generous hands, and lives that reflect Christ.

St. Agnes Parish, it's wonderful to be with you!

It's a great joy to be spending the month of July with you. My name is Alexander Baugh, and I am a seminarian for the Diocese of Venice, currently studying at Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary in Boston. I am entering Third Theology this fall and, God willing, will be ordained to the transitional diaconate this coming spring. Please know how grateful I am to Fr. Bob for his mentorship and warm welcome as I spend some time with you this summer.

Music has been a constant and formative presence in my life for as long as I can remember. Our family home was filled with the sounds of classical music, and my sister and I both began our musical journeys at the piano. In time, I developed a deep bond with the guitar and ukulele, instruments that would eventually open many doors. After studying Hospitality Management at the University of Central Florida, I pursued a career as a musician, traveling and performing both with a band and as a solo artist across the United States and several continents. Performing has always been about more than music for me; it has been a way to share joy, connect with others, and lift people's spirits.

In recent years, my work in Christian music became a powerful instrument of God's grace. Many listeners reached out to share how their faith had been renewed or deepened through my songs. Those messages moved me deeply and stirred something within my own heart. I began attending daily Mass, drawn more and more into the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. As I tried to speak about God with friends and acquaintances, I often met with polite silence or little interest. It was in those moments that a clearer call began to emerge: God was inviting me not only to sing about Him, but to serve His people more directly, to help feed His sheep.

Responding to that call, I moved to Sarasota and entered the Diocese of Venice. I have a deep devotion to Our Lady, and the Holy Rosary has been a great strength to me throughout my discernment and my daily desire to do God's will. I am truly excited to be here at St. Agnes this July and look forward to meeting many of you. Whether through song, preaching, or the quiet work of pastoral ministry, my deepest desire is to help others encounter the joy of Christ and to walk with you as a faithful servant of the Church.

I am ready, sails unfurled, for the Holy Spirit to guide this next chapter. Please pray for me and know that I am praying for all of you. Ave Maria!

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

• HYGIENE PRODUCTS DRIVE •

The Naples Council of St. Vincent de Paul operates a food pantry serving families throughout Naples. While generous food drives keep the pantry stocked for much of the year, donations decline during the summer months—just as the need is at its highest due to seasonal layoffs and reduced work hours.

Although the Council is able to purchase food, limited funding makes it difficult to provide personal hygiene products.

The St. Agnes Conference of St. Vincent de Paul will be collecting personal hygiene items before all Masses on the weekend of July 25-26. A list of suggested donation items will be distributed after all Masses on July 18-19.

Thank you for helping provide dignity and hope to our neighbors in need. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

El Consejo de San Vicente de Paúl de Naples administra una despensa de alimentos que atiende a familias de toda la comunidad. Aunque las generosas colectas de alimentos mantienen abastecida la despensa durante gran parte del año, las donaciones disminuyen durante los meses de verano, precisamente cuando la necesidad es mayor debido a los despidos temporales y la reducción de horas de trabajo.

Aunque el Consejo puede comprar alimentos, sus recursos limitados dificultan la compra de artículos de higiene personal.

La Conferencia de San Vicente de Paúl de Santa Inés estará recolectando artículos de higiene personal antes de todas las Misas del fin de semana del 25 y 26 de julio. Se distribuirá una lista de los artículos sugeridos después de todas las Misas del 18 y 19 de julio.

TOGETHER, WE CAN SPREAD DIGNITY, ONE ITEM AT A TIME.

JUNTOS PODEMOS BRINDAR DIGNIDAD, UN ARTÍCULO A LA VEZ.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are welcome!

FOR CHILDREN AGES 5-10*
DURING 11AM
MASS EVERY SUNDAY

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.

Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahla at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Alejandro Giraldo-Roldán son los jueves y viernes de 1:00 p.m. a 4:00 p.m. Por favor, llame a la oficina para hacer su cita al (239) 592-1949.

Originaria de Magdala, de allí recibió su nombre. Siguió de cerca las enseñanzas de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, y fue elegida para ser testigo de la Resurrección de nuestro mesías, de la victoria definitiva sobre la muerte, inclusive antes que los apóstoles. El llamado de su discipulado es un modelo para todos los bautizados que estamos llamados a evangelizar. Ella encarna la figura del que anuncia el mensaje gozoso de la Pascua: la nueva vida con Cristo, a la que todos estamos invitados a participar.

El Papa Benedicto XVI reflexionaba: "La historia de Maria Magdalena recuerda a todos una verdad fundamental: discípulo de Cristo es quien, en la experiencia de la debilidad humana le pide ayuda, ha sido curado por él, y le ha seguido de cerca, convirtiéndose en testigo de la potencia de su amor misericordioso, que es más fuerte que el pecado y la muerte".

EL evangelio nos trae muchas historias de Maria Magdalena, como la pecadora arrepentida que había hecho de su vida un extravío y perdición, como una de las mujeres que seguía al Señor, como Maria de Betania la hermana de lázaro, su compañía incluso al calvario y se quedó acompañando a la Santísima Virgen Maria y en la mañana del domingo de resurrección, fue la primera que vio a Cristo resucitado, en cuerpo glorioso. En consecuencia, la Iglesia la reconoce desde siempre la importancia que tuvo ella en la vida del Salvador y en la experiencia de la primera comunidad cristiana. La conversión de Maria Magdalena es el ejemplo del poder transformador del perdón y la gracia, capaz de brindar una nueva vida, libre del poder del pecado y sus terribles consecuencias. Su perdón divino tiene el poder de reconstruir lo que estaba roto, y permite el nacimiento de un hombre nuevo, de una persona que vive y anuncia el amor.

ORACIÓN centrante

Es la apertura de la mente
y del corazón, de todo nuestro ser, a Dios.

La Oración Centrante está basada en la enseñanza de Jesús en el Sermón de la Montaña:

"Pero tu cuando reces, entra en tu pieza, cierra la puerta y ora a tu Padre que está allí, a solas contigo. Y tu Padre, que ve en lo secreto te premiará."
