17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus compared the Kingdom to a valuable treasure. First it was a buried treasure and second it was like a rare and priceless pearl. These findings were more valuable than anything we have known previously and that is what the Kingdom will be, too. When we finally understand the Kingdom of God, it will be like finding the greatest treasure we can imagine. However, it will be God who sorts out the good from the bad. Judgment is not ours. Look through family photos and identify members of your immediate and extended family. Describe a way in which each one of those people is a special jewel in the Kingdom of God. In what way does each person represent a special gift from God?

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

18th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 14: 13-21

We shall hear once again, the story of the Transfiguration next weekend. What actually happened to Jesus on that mountain is irrelevant. What happened to the disciples is not. They heard what God expected of them. "Listen to my Son." It does no good for us to hear this story and fail to understand that when we do, we hear what God expects of us. Once again, we are reminded that listening to what Jesus says is what is expected of us. There comes a time when Bible Study must become Bible Listening because by listening we can begin to know what God is like. If we want to hear God's voice in our own time, if we want to know the will of God, we have to listen. The wonder of the Transfiguration is not a light show but an invitation. If we want to know what God really looks like, we will gaze on those who love God. They come with curly hair and bald heads. They are old and young, Christian, Muslim, Jew and more. No one can imagine all the different ways God chooses to appear among us. When we stop to listen to one another, the world will be transfigured. Often missed when we hear or read this Gospel passage is that final gesture of Jesus. Notice that after the disciples fell to the ground, Jesus touched them. There is power in that touch not in the vision. It was a healing touch giving them strength and courage for what was to come.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

Dwelling With God

John's Gospel develops this image, and so we find Jesus saying, "Make your home in me, as I have made my home in you" (see John 15:4). Jesus came to make us into his home and to invite us to dwell in his house. Suddenly all those biblical images of God's hospitality come together and we realize that we are God's home and that we are invited to make our home where God has made God's own home. Our bodies, our hands, our face, our heart are becoming the place where we and God can dwell together in freedom.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

TRUE STEWARDSHIP

This is an excerpt from the U.S. bishops’ pastoral letter on stewardship and is worth your reflection: Stewardship is about sharing one’s gifts and blessings with the Church, and much more. We need to be stewards of our personal vocations, life and health, along with our own intellectual and spiritual well-being and that of others. That community of disciples, that Body of Stewardship includes sharing our gifts and blessings with the Church, and much more. The more we share this great call to live and grow as stewards in all aspects of our lives, the greater the likelihood that people of all ages and stages of life and faith will hear the call and enthusiastically respond.

True stewardship is a way of life rooted in discipleship and a growing relationship with Christ. Stewardship leaders are called to help others understand that every aspect of lifetime, talents, relationships, resources, faith, and service—is a gift from God to be used for His glory.

- Stewardship leads to holiness. Living as a good steward helps connect faith with everyday life and deepens one’s relationship with God.
- Leadership through example. Stewardship leaders should inspire others to discern their own call to ministry, service, and discipleship.
- Stewardship extends beyond money. While financial support of the Church is important, stewardship also involves caring for:
 - Personal vocations and gifts
 - Physical, intellectual, and spiritual well-being
 - Family and community relationships
 - Material resources
 - The environment
 - Cultural and human heritage
 - The Church itself
- Shared responsibility. As members of the Body of Christ, we responsible for supporting one another, rejoicing together in successes and suffering together in hardships (1 Corinthians 12:26).
- A call for all people. The broader and more faithfully stewardship is presented, the more likely people of every age and stage of faith will respond enthusiastically to God’s invitation. We are to move beyond viewing stewardship as fundraising and instead embrace it as a lifelong commitment to discipleship, service, gratitude, and responsible use of all God’s gifts. By living this message authentically, believers help lead others closer to Christ and strengthen their faith communities.

Santos Marta, María y Lázaro

Amigos cercanos de Jesús

29 de julio

Santos Marta, María y Lázaro amigos y discípulos de Jesús. Según las escrituras el Señor se hospedó al menos en tres oportunidades en la casa de ellos, en Betania, ciudad ubicada a unos kilómetros de Jerusalén. Lázaro fue resucitado por el Señor, después de tres días de haber muerto.

Algunos datos de los patronatos que cada uno de los hermanos lleva: Santa Marta es patrona de los imposibles, del hogar, de las casas de huéspedes, de las cocineras, amas de casa, hoteleros y lavanderas, pedimos su ayuda en las urgencias y dificultades, es porque ella conmovió a Jesús con su fé: "Señor, si hubieras estado aquí, no habría muerto mi hermano". Luego le pide al Maestro con confianza absoluta que lo devuelva a la vida: "Pero aun ahora yo sé que cuanto pidas a Dios, Dios te lo concederá". Y Jesús le contesta: "Tu hermano resucitará". Es también a Marta a quien el Señor le dijo, mientras estaba alojado en su casa: "Marta, Marta, te preocupas y te agitas por muchas cosas; y hay necesidad de pocas, o mejor, de una sola. María ha elegido la parte buena, que no le será quitada. Marta cuyo deseo de servir era autentico, se dejó interpelar por Jesús. Él le mostró cuál es el último de cuanto hacemos por otros, empezando por el necesario servicio doméstico: amar a Dios. Por eso, así como ella es ejemplo para todo aquel que quiera cumplir sus deberes con diligencia y responsabilidad. Santa María, que es identificada como María Magdalena o la mujer que enjugó los pies del Maestro con perfume es patrona de quienes viven dedicados a la contemplación o a la oración, así como los vendedores de perfume. Ella es el ejemplo de la oración contemplativa, la relación cercana y contemplación de la palabra "la buena parte". San Lázaro de Betania es patrón de los moribundos y los necesitados. Jesús profesó un gran cariño por San Lázaro el que había caído gravemente enfermo. Jesús ocupado en su misión no acude al llamado que sus hermanas le habían hecho y cuando se entera, llora la muerte de su amigo y acude a resucitarlo para mostrar la Gracia del Padre. En conclusión: Si el trabajo se hace sin amor, no tiene sentido; lo mismo que si Dios no es el centro, aun las cosas nobles pueden hacer que se pierda de vista lo esencial.
