18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus was still very sad about John the Baptist's death. But even in his sorrow, Jesus remembered the needs of others. As he tried to go to a deserted place, the crowds followed him in hopes that he would heal the sick among them. When it was late and everyone was hungry, the disciples suggested that everyone go away and buy something to eat. Instead, Jesus told the disciples to give them something to eat. They brought five loaves of bread and two fish which turned out to be more than enough for the crowd. At the very least, this Gospel today is about sharing. As you look around at your family's resources, you probably think you need everything you have. But look again. Try to find some things you can share with someone else and make plans to see that it happens. Maybe you have some toys, clothing, or household items you can give to someone else. Maybe you have some time to visit with someone who might be lonely. Maybe you have the health and energy to do a chore for someone who does not.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

19th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 14: 22-33

It is easy to miss something very important next week because we are not Jewish. For those men in that boat, it must have come as a great shock that may have added to their fear. It is a moment of profound significance in Matthew's Gospel when the very identity of Jesus is revealed, explaining why the disciples do Jesus homage and declare him to be the "Son of God." What we may miss is how Jesus responds to the fear of those in the boat. He speaks the name no Jewish person would ever speak. It is the name of God revealed to Moses at the burning bush. Jesus says: "I AM." In other words, God is there. This is a story well told in our own times when there is so much chaos all around, when there is so much to frighten us, so much darkness, with so many sinking into the chaos. This story reminds us that God is in our midst at the darkest of times. Yet, we are so used to having control that when we lose it, as always happens, we sink even deeper into chaos. We often like to play God, like Peter, and walk on water.

This is not a good plan. We need to stay in the boat (A symbol of the church). Jesus will get us to the other side. We are urged to stay in the boat where we shall and should do homage. Trying to play God is not the role of disciples. We bear witness to the presence of God even to the God we may fail to recognize.

In the House of the Lord

Be with Jesus. Be quiet. Listen to the one who invites you to his home. Gradually, we will notice that we are in his house not only for that half hour, but also throughout the day. We will discover that we are in the house of the Lord wherever we are and whatever we do. By dwelling with the Lord in prayer, we can live in a hostile, violent, competitive world and be at home.

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

STEWARDSHIP: TRUSTING GOD WITH OUR SMALL OFFERINGS

This Sunday's Gospel reminds us that God can bring abundance from even the smallest offering. When the disciples present Jesus with only a few loaves and fish, He blesses their gift and multiplies it beyond all expectation. This miracle reveals an important truth: God works through those who trust Him and generously place what they have in His hands.

Stewardship is our cooperation with God's plan. It is not simply about receiving God's blessings; it is about responding with generosity, faith, and a willing heart. Whatever we offer—our time, our talents, or our treasure—can become a source of blessing for many when entrusted to the Lord. Even the smallest act of love or service can have an impact far beyond what we imagine.

The multiplication of the loaves also points us to the Eucharist, where Christ continues to feed His people with the Bread of Life. Just as He satisfied the hunger of the crowd, He nourishes us with His abundant grace and strengthens us to serve others with compassion and love.

As faithful stewards, we are called to trust that God will provide what we need as we cooperate with His work. Our generosity is not measured by the size of our gift but by the faith and love with which it is offered.

This Week's Stewardship Challenge

Reflect on how you can cooperate more fully with God's plan in your daily life. Offer your time, talents, or resources with confidence, trusting that God can multiply even your smallest gift for the good of others and the building of His Kingdom.

CORRESPONSABILIDAD: CONFIANDO EN DIOS CON NUESTRAS PEQUEÑAS OFRENDAS

El Evangelio de este domingo nos recuerda que Dios puede sacar abundancia incluso de la ofrenda más pequeña. Cuando los discípulos presentan a Jesús solo unos pocos panes y peces, Él bendice ese don y lo multiplica más allá de toda expectativa. Este milagro nos revela una verdad importante: Dios obra a través de quienes confían en Él y ponen generosamente en sus manos lo poco que tienen.

La corresponsabilidad es nuestra cooperación con el plan de Dios. No se trata simplemente de recibir las bendiciones de Dios, sino de responder con generosidad, fe y un corazón dispuesto. Todo lo que ofrecemos —nuestro tiempo, nuestros talentos o nuestros bienes— puede convertirse en una fuente de bendición para muchos cuando lo ponemos en manos del Señor. Incluso el acto más pequeño de amor o de servicio puede tener un impacto mucho mayor de lo que imaginamos.

La multiplicación de los panes también nos conduce a la Eucaristía, donde Cristo continúa alimentando a su pueblo con el Pan de Vida. Así como sació el hambre de la multitud, también nos alimenta con la abundancia de su gracia y nos fortalece para servir a los demás con compasión y amor.

Como fieles administradores de los dones de Dios, estamos llamados a confiar en que Él proveerá todo lo que necesitamos mientras cooperamos con su obra. Nuestra generosidad no se mide por el tamaño de nuestra ofrenda, sino por la fe y el amor con que la presentamos.

El Desafío de Corresponsabilidad para Esta Semana

Reflexiona sobre cómo puedes cooperar más plenamente con el plan de Dios en tu vida diaria. Ofrece tu tiempo, tus talentos o tus recursos con confianza, sabiendo que Dios puede multiplicar incluso tu ofrenda más pequeña para el bien de los demás y la construcción de su Reino.

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Alejandro Giraldo-Roldán son los jueves y viernes de 1:00 p.m. a 4:00 p.m. Por favor, llame a la oficina para hacer su cita al (239) 592-1949.

El Santo Cura de Ars, es el patrón de los sacerdotes en especial de los que sirven como párrocos. Nació en el seno de una familia francesa campesina. Este santo cura tuvo un comienzo muy difícil en su vida académica, logró adquirir conocimientos de aritmética, historia y geografía, pero cuando en el seminario tuvo que aprender latín ahí llegó su gran dificultad pues sus profesores no encontraban en él respuestas de su aprendizaje. Pero su persistencia y el plan de Dios le colocarían compañeros que le ayudaban hasta que logró terminar su formación. Fue enviado a un pequeño pueblo francés llamado Ars de 250 habitantes muy pobre y abandonado, donde el santo Cura de Ars iniciaría una revolución espiritual que cambiaría no solo el pueblo, sino toda la nación. Se dedicaba a confesar y dar guía espiritual, con su gran don de profecía, lo que le permitía llegar a lo más profundo de las conciencias humanas. Su espíritu intuitivo acompañado de la Gracia de Dios logró convertir sus habitantes y gente de los alrededores que venían buscando su consejo y perdón de sus pecados. El P. Vianey fue un hombre de mucha humildad, ayuno, mortificación, servicio y capacidad de discernimiento, cualidades que lo hicieron un sacerdote modelo. "Arrebatarle almas al demonio" era su principal objetivo. Era un sacerdote desprendido de las cosas materiales, que hasta su cama la donó y por ello dormía en el suelo. Tuvo que afrontar los tiempos posteriores a la Revolución Francesa, cuando la incredulidad y falta de esperanza era un componente muy alto en las comunidades, por lo que El Santo Sacerdote se propuso preparar sus sermones, pasaba las noches enteras componiendo y memorizando los sermones para el día siguiente y poder transmitir el mensaje contundente para reavivar la fe de sus feligreses. También se preocupaba por la formación del catecismo en los niños, defendía el derecho de los campesinos de ir a misa el domingo, corregía a los que acudían a las cantinas. Habitantes de toda Francia acudían a este pueblito en busca de su consejo y siempre su consejo era convertirlos en piadosos hijos de la Santísima Virgen María, a quien consagra su parroquia y todo su servicio. A los 73 años paso a la eternidad y fue canonizado por el Papa Pío IX. Oremos por los sacerdotes, por su vocación, sus intenciones y su deseo de santidad.
