19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A storm arose on the sea and the disciples saw Jesus walking on the water toward them. At first they thought it was a ghost, but then they recognized Jesus. In an effort to show his great faith, Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. Peter was focused and walked toward Jesus. All went well until he looked at the storm. The same is true for us. If we stay focused on Jesus, we will be strong. It's when we get distracted by adversity that we begin to sink. Make a conscious effort to avoid distractions sometime this week. Pick a time when you can all be together in a peaceful setting, maybe a walk or a hike, a picnic or watch a sunset. In your time together share the "storms" you faced this week and offer one another a peaceful gesture or words of support.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

20th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 15: 21-28

A tough Gospel story is told next week. A woman about to be shoved out of the way reminds us that even strays can become family pets. The will of the Father for unity is being revealed here. The disciples want to send her away just like they did with the hungry crowd. She is not the right kind. Her skin color may have been different. Maybe she had an accent, who knows? To make matters worse for her, she is a woman in a man's world. At first Jesus seems to go along with this, but she will have none of it. She fires back with what might be a mother's love suggesting that even strays can become pets. What happens in this episode raises questions about how we identify ourselves in relationship to others, and it shapes our relationships with others. Concern about who is in and who is out continues on and on. We organize ourselves in families, neighborhoods, parishes and all sorts of groups that give us identity, responsibilities and privileges. We are usually quick to know who belongs and who does not, guarding our privileges that come from belonging so that those who do not belong get no share. My friends, we have the greatest privilege because of the gift of faith. It comes with a great burden and serious responsibility not to keep anyone out, but to draw them into the love of the Lord which they shall first experience by our own love.

–Fr. Tom Boyer

*"Prayer is sitting in the silence until it silences us, choosing gratitude until we are grateful,
and praising God until we ourselves are an act of praise."*

–Richard Rohr

We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Chosen to be Beloved

To become the Beloved we, first of all, have to claim that we are taken. That might sound very strange at first, and, still, to be taken is essential in becoming the Beloved. As I have mentioned already, we can desire to become the Beloved only when we know that we already are the Beloved. Therefore, the first step in the spiritual life is to acknowledge with our whole being that we already have been taken. It might help at this point if, instead of "take," which is a somewhat cold and brittle word, we used a warmer, softer word with the same meaning: the word "choose." As children of God, we are God's chosen ones.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

RESPONDING TO CHRIST'S CALL

When we hear the word vocation, we often think of someone discerning a call to the priesthood or religious life. Yet the word vocation comes from the Latin vocare, meaning “to call.” In this sense, every Christian has a vocation: to hear and respond to God’s call in daily life.

Certainly, one’s state in life must be discerned prayerfully, but our vocation goes beyond a particular role or ministry. Each of us is called to follow Jesus Christ by seeking God’s will, proclaiming the Good News, caring for those in need, and living as faithful disciples. God has blessed every person with unique gifts, talents, and resources, and He invites us to use them in service to others.

As disciples of Christ, we are called to be good stewards of all that God has entrusted to us—our time, talents, treasure, and presence. Whether at home, at work, at school, within our parish, or in the wider community, each of us has something valuable to contribute to the mission of Christ. Stewardship is our response to God’s generosity and our cooperation with His plan.

As the U.S. bishops remind us in their pastoral letter on stewardship: “Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. At every step forward, one is challenged to go further in accepting and loving God’s will.”

Stewardship is not simply about receiving God’s blessings; it is about responding with generosity, readiness, and faith. Whatever we place in God’s hands—our time, our talents, or our resources—can become a “five loaves and two fish” moment. No gift is too small when offered with love and trust in Him.

The Gospel’s call to feed the hungry and care for one another reminds us that Christ continues His work through us. The miracle of the multiplication of the loaves points us to the Eucharist, where we are nourished by God’s abundant grace and sent forth to become bread broken for others. As faithful stewards, we answer Christ’s call by sharing His love generously, trusting that He will multiply every gift offered in faith.

Gather in Faith. Celebrate Together.
08.15.26

On Saturday, August 15, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary*, our parish family will joyfully celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the first Mass celebrated in the newly constructed St. Agnes Catholic Church.

We warmly invite all parishioners, former parishioners, and friends of St. Agnes to join us for this special Bilingual Mass of Thanksgiving at 8:00 a.m. in the church.

Together, we will give thanks to God for the countless blessings He has bestowed upon our parish over the past twenty years and remember with gratitude all those whose faith, generosity, and dedication have helped build and strengthen our community. We look forward to celebrating this joyful milestone together as one family in Christ.

San Maximiliano Kolbe

Sacerdote mártir en Auschwitz. Promotor de la devoción al Inmaculado Corazón de María.

14 de agosto

Fraile Franciscano conventual que intercambió su vida por la de un padre de familia, salvándolo de la ejecución en un campo de concentración, durante la segunda guerra mundial. Compartiremos datos importantes de su vida:

*Se le apareció la Virgen María: Cuando era niño hizo una travesura que su madre reprochó y corrigió al que Maximiliano pide en oración a la Santísima Virgen María que le dijera que sería de Él. Entonces se le apareció la Virgen, teniendo en las manos dos coronas: una blanca y otra roja. La blanca significaba la perseverancia en la pureza y la roja que sería mártir. A lo que El contestó que las aceptaba, a los que la Virgen María lo miró con dulzura y desapareció, relato Maximiliano. *fue muy devoto a la Inmaculada Concepción: en 1917 Maximiliano fundo un movimiento llamado "La milicia de la Inmaculada", para consagrarse a la Virgen María y luchar con todos los medios para la construcción del Reino de Dios en el mundo. A su vez publicó una revista llamada: "Caballero de la Inmaculada" para promover el conocimiento amor y servicio a la Madre de Dios. Esta revista tuvo muy amplia difusión u alcanzo el principal mensaje de la Evangelización en el amor a nuestra madre del cielo. *Fue misionero en Asia: En 1931 el Papa Pío XI pidió sacerdotes misioneros para Japón y Maximiliano respondió al llamado. Allí fundó una ciudad dedicada a la Inmaculada "Mugenai No Sono" y también publicó una revista con los mismos fines de evangelización. Luego viajó a la India y fundó un monasterio sirviendo como ejemplo para que otros Franciscanos siguieran su huella y fundaran otros centros marianos.

*Fue condenado a morir de hambre, pero sobrevivió: Lo apresaron y lo enviaron al campo de concentración, donde les daba consuelo y les enseñaba a los prisioneros del amor de la Santísima Virgen María. En una ocasión fueron escogidos 10 presos para ser ejecutados, y uno de ellos tenía familia, rogándoles para que perdonaran su vida, Maximiliano paso a ocupar su lugar de ejecución. Fueron condenados a morir de hambre, en la celda El los alentaba en la fé hasta que todos murieron. Murió a los 47 años de edad. Fue canonizado por el Papa Juan Pablo II- su compatriota- honrándolo con las siguientes palabras: "Maximiliano Kolbe hizo como Jesus, no sufrió la muerte sino que donó la vida".
