AUGUST 16, 2026

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Cananite woman approached Jesus as a petitioner asking Jesus to heal her daughter. At first Jesus put her off by implying that she was not part of the salvation plan. She determined that she was and through her faith and recognition of Jesus as Lord knew that he could heal her daughter. Because of her great and persistent faith, Jesus healed the girl. Share stories about people of other religions who are experiencing troubling times in their lives. You may find stories in the newspaper or news magazines, or learn about them from other media. Try to imagine a family of that faith looking, caring and acting much like your own family. Share ideas about what they might be saying to each other, what they might be feeling, fearing, thinking, or praying.

As of June 30, 2026*GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY*21st Sunday of Ordinary TimeMatthew 16: 13-20*

You have to wonder sometimes about what God is thinking, which might be the whole purpose of the Gospel - to get us to wonder. After all, when it comes to building up this Kingdom of God, you would think that God would be looking for the best, the most skillful, the most faithful, the most holy of men and women. But no, God goes wandering around the seashore and calls simple fishermen who are neither wealthy nor educated. He calls someone who puts his foot in his mouth over and over again, and he keeps thinking he is in charge. He is full of doubts, and not very loyal or obedient. God chooses someone who gets out of the boat and sinks trying to play God. This is a person who falls asleep after dinner when asked to stay awake and watch. This is someone who cannot be found during the crucifixion even after declaring that he would die for that friend. No wonder the Kingdom of God is often so hard to see! Yet, Peter's story is about the extraordinary way God uses ordinary people to bring healing, forgiveness, hope, and joy to a lost and troubled world. God does not seem to care about how worthy we are, how adequate, or what skills we have. God seems to simply look into our hearts. When we are broken, feel ashamed and guilty, despair and believe that we cannot possibly be loved by God, Peter reminds us that we always get a second chance.

I Love You Too

God loved you before you were born, and God will love you after you die. In Scripture God says, "I have loved you with an everlasting love." This is a very fundamental truth of your identity. This is who you are whether you feel it or not. You belong to God from eternity to eternity. Life is just a little opportunity for you during the few years to say, "I love you, too."

Henri Nouwen

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

HOW MUCH FAITH DO WE HAVE?

Is our faith as small as a mustard seed—or as persistent as the faith of the Canaanite woman?

In the Gospel, we may wonder why Jesus first seems to ignore her and then speaks to her in a way that sounds harsh. Most of us know what it feels like to be ignored, left out, or made to feel that we do not belong. When our prayers seem unanswered, we may even begin to feel rejected by God, as though our needs do not matter.

This may be how it first appears to the Canaanite woman. Jesus tells her that He was sent to “the lost sheep of the house of Israel” and says, “It is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.” Yet she does not turn away. With humility and courage, she responds, “Even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”

No one likes to be rejected or overlooked. Yet what seems like rejection becomes a moment of revelation. The woman’s perseverance reveals the depth of her faith, and Jesus uses the encounter to teach that God’s mercy reaches beyond human boundaries.

Our Savior’s delay is not a refusal, but an invitation to bring our faith into the open and allow it to grow stronger. We, too, are formed through patience and perseverance. Sometimes waiting on the Lord prepares our hearts for a deeper relationship with Him.

Like the Canaanite woman, let us come to Christ with humility, patience, and persistence. Let us not allow fear or discouragement to overcome us, but instead place our trust in His mercy. God’s salvation is offered to all who turn to Him in faith.

With courage and perseverance, may we continue to follow Christ on the path that leads to the Kingdom of God.

—Adapted from Fr. Philip LeMasters; edited by G. Carter

¿CUÁNTA FE TENEMOS?

¿Es nuestra fe tan pequeña como un grano de mostaza, o tan perseverante como la fe de la mujer cananea?

En el Evangelio, podemos preguntarnos por qué Jesús parece ignorarla al principio y luego le habla de una manera que puede parecernos dura. La mayoría de nosotros sabemos lo que se siente ser ignorados, excluidos o hacer que sintamos que no pertenecemos. Cuando nuestras oraciones parecen no tener respuesta, incluso podemos comenzar a sentirnos rechazados por Dios, como si nuestras necesidades no fueran importantes.

Así pudo haberse sentido inicialmente la mujer cananea. Jesús le dice que ha sido enviado a “las ovejas perdidas de la casa de Israel” y añade: “No está bien tomar el pan de los hijos y echárselo a los perros”. Sin embargo, ella no se aleja. Con humildad y valentía, responde: “También los perros comen de las migajas que caen de la mesa de sus amos”.

A nadie le gusta sentirse rechazado o ignorado. Sin embargo, lo que parece un rechazo se convierte en un momento de revelación. La perseverancia de esta mujer manifiesta la profundidad de su fe, y Jesús aprovecha este encuentro para enseñarnos que la misericordia de Dios va más allá de las fronteras humanas.

La espera de nuestro Salvador no es un rechazo, sino una invitación a manifestar nuestra fe y permitir que se fortalezca. Nosotros también crecemos a través de la paciencia y la perseverancia. A veces, esperar en el Señor prepara nuestro corazón para una relación más profunda con Él.

Como la mujer cananea, acerquémonos a Cristo con humildad, paciencia y perseverancia. No permitamos que el miedo o el desánimo nos venganzan; pongamos, más bien, nuestra confianza en su misericordia. La salvación de Dios se ofrece a todos los que se acercan a Él con fe.

Con valentía y perseverancia, sigamos caminando con Cristo por el camino que conduce al Reino de Dios.

Thanks for your support

Thank you to everyone who supported the recent St. Vincent De Paul Personal Hygiene drive. Your generosity exceeded our expectations! The many items donated will ensure that our neighbors will have access to the products that they need to ensure that their families practice good hygiene habits. If you were not able to help with this drive or if you wish to help our neighbors in the future, you may do so by placing non-perishable food or hygiene donations in the bin in the narthex or monetary donations in the poor boxes (Checks should be made payable to St. Vincent de Paul, St. Agnes Conference in the memo line) throughout the year. These donations enable the St. Agnes Conference of St. Vincent De Paul to continue our work of helping the needy families in our area. Thank you again for your continued generosity.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are welcome!

FOR CHILDREN
AGES 5-10*
DURING 11AM
MASS EVERY SUNDAY

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

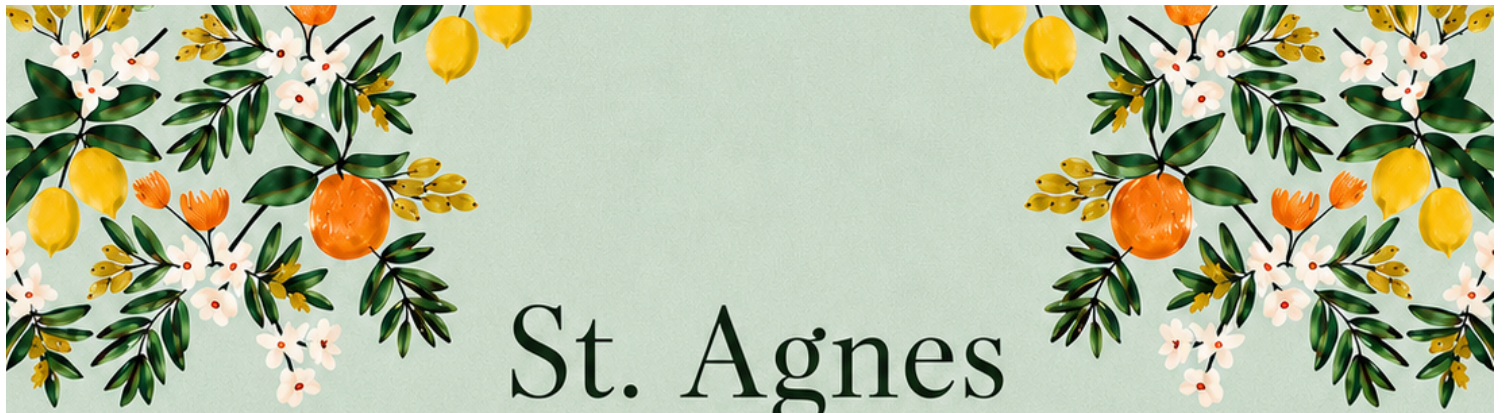

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.

Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahla at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

St. Agnes Moms' Group

A welcoming space for moms to encourage one another, build friendships, and grow together in faith.

Children are welcome!

Childcare is now available in the adjoining room so little ones can play while moms connect. **

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Alejandro Giraldo-Roldán son los jueves y viernes de 1:00 p.m. a 4:00 p.m. Por favor, llame a la oficina para hacer su cita al (239) 592-1949.

Su divina maternidad es el fundamento teológico para nombrar a la Santísima Virgen Reina y su función corredentora en la obra de salvación del género humano. Uniéndola al Padre celestial y a su divino hijo que es Rey universal por derecho propio. En la sagrada escritura se dice que la Virgen concebirá: "Hijo del altísimo será llamado y a El le dará el Señor Dios el trono de David su padre y en la casa de Jacob reinará eternamente y su reinado no tendrá fin. Y a Maria se le llama "Madre del Señor" de donde se deduce que Ella es también reina, pues engendró un Hijo que era rey y Señor de todas las cosas. Así, con razón, pudo escribir San Juan Damasceno: "verdaderamente fue Señora de todas las criaturas cuando fue Madre del Creador". Por ser colaboradora en la obra de la redención del género humano: La Virgen Maria, por voluntad expresa de Dios, tuvo parte excelentísima en la obra de Nuestra Redención. Por ello, puede afirmarse que el género humano sujeto a la muerte por causa de una virgen (Eva), se salva también por medio de una Virgen (Maria). En consecuencia, así como Cristo es Rey por título de conquista, al precio de su sangre, también Maria es Reina al precio de su compasión dolorosa junto a la cruz.

"La Beatísima Maria debe ser llamada Reina, no solo por la razón de su Maternidad divina, sino también porque cooperó íntimamente en nuestra salvación. Así como Cristo, Nuevo Adán, es Rey nuestro no solo por ser hijo de Dios sino también nuestro Redentor, con cierta analogía, se puede afirmar que Maria es Reina, no solo por ser Madre de Dios sino también, como nueva Eva, porque fue asociada al nuevo Adán.
