27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Using a parable, Jesus got the Jewish leaders to admit their error. He described a vineyard owner (God) who sent slaves (prophets) to collect his share of the harvest from the tenants (Jewish leaders). But the tenants killed the slaves. The landowner sent more slaves, but the tenants killed them, too. Finally the owner sent his son (Jesus). Of course, they killed the son. Jesus summarized his point by telling the chief priests and elders that what they had rejected (their place in the kingdom) would now be given to the Gentiles. Go through your child(ren)'s photos from the time they were born (or joined your family) until the present. Share memories and notice how they have grown in so many ways. Reflect together on how they are good fruit and what their gifts are. Share with one another how these gifts help bring about the Kingdom of God while we are still here on earth. Are there any changes family members can suggest for themselves that will further enrich the harvest? How can we be better fruits for the Kingdom of God?

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Matthew 22: 1-14

A shallow reading of next week's parable may lead to thinking that something was unfair. A guest with no wedding garment had no advanced notice. According to the custom of the time, the host may have provided one, and the man refused to put it on. He is like many of us who like to do our own thing. Maybe he wanted to draw attention to himself. If so, he ended up without desert.

There is something about our culture that makes this parable more troubling than unfair. A lot of us still like to do our own thing, pick and choose calling that "freedom" even though the consequences of our choices are a problem for others. I believe this parable is a challenge to the "do your own thing" attitude especially when it comes to rules, customs, decorum, and even laws. This attitude is everywhere and sometime we have it. If you have any doubts, pay attention to how the rules of the road and the law is observed when it comes to speed and red lights at intersections. Picking and choosing what to believe or how to act does nothing to strengthen unity and peace among us. All it does is call attention to one's self all the while ignoring the identity of the community because I can do my own thing. It does not work. It insults the one who has called us to be together, and it makes us the center of attention rather than the one who provides such a lavish feast.

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

FAITHFUL STEWARDS OF GOD'S GIFTS

In this parable, the householder provides the vineyard with everything necessary for it to flourish and then entrusts it to the tenants. In the same way, God has given us all that we need to attain heaven. Our lives, our abilities, our opportunities, and every blessing we possess come from Him. These gifts are entrusted to us not for our own glory, but so that we may cultivate them faithfully and return them to God, bearing abundant fruit.

We must never forget that God is the true owner of everything we have, while we are merely stewards of His gifts. When we use our talents well, we honor the Giver. When we neglect, misuse, or reject them, we are ultimately rejecting God Himself. Like the tenants in the parable, we can fall into the temptation of acting as though what has been entrusted to us belongs to us by right, forgetting our responsibility to the One who has given it.

The tenants' greatest sin was not simply their violence, but their refusal to acknowledge the owner's authority and render to him what was due. Their hearts became consumed by selfishness and pride, leading them to reject the servants and ultimately the son. Whenever we place our own desires above God's will and fail to offer Him the fruits of our lives, we risk falling into the same error.

Yet the rejected Son becomes the cornerstone, revealing that human rejection can never frustrate God's plan. Though Christ was rejected by many, He became the foundation of our salvation. The vineyard is then given to those who will produce its fruits, reminding us that faith must bear visible results. God seeks fruits that reflect His Kingdom: justice, faithfulness, mercy, humility, and generous love for others.

This parable is both a warning and a source of hope. It warns us not to take God's gifts for granted or to claim ownership over what ultimately belongs to Him. At the same time, it assures us that God's purposes will prevail despite human failure. Through Christ, the cornerstone, God continues to build His Kingdom and form a people who seek not to dominate but to serve, not to possess but to give, and not to live for themselves but for His glory.

FIELES ADMINISTRADORES DE LOS DONES DE DIOS

En esta parábola, el dueño de la viña le proporciona todo lo necesario para que pueda prosperar y luego la confía a unos viñadores. De la misma manera, Dios nos ha dado todo lo que necesitamos para alcanzar el cielo. Nuestra vida, nuestras capacidades, nuestras oportunidades y cada una de las bendiciones que poseemos vienen de Él. Estos dones nos han sido confiados no para nuestra propia gloria, sino para que los cultivemos fielmente y los devolvamos a Dios dando abundantes frutos.

Nunca debemos olvidar que Dios es el verdadero dueño de todo lo que tenemos, mientras que nosotros somos simplemente administradores de Sus dones. Cuando utilizamos bien nuestros talentos, honramos al Dador. Cuando los descuidamos, hacemos mal uso de ellos o los rechazamos, en última instancia estamos rechazando a Dios mismo. Al igual que los viñadores de la parábola, podemos caer en la tentación de actuar como si aquello que se nos ha confiado nos perteneciera por derecho propio, olvidando nuestra responsabilidad hacia Aquel que nos lo ha dado.

El mayor pecado de los viñadores no fue simplemente su violencia, sino su negativa a reconocer la autoridad del dueño y entregarle lo que le correspondía. Sus corazones quedaron dominados por el egoísmo y el orgullo, llevándolos a rechazar a los siervos y, finalmente, al hijo. Cada vez que ponemos nuestros propios deseos por encima de la voluntad de Dios y dejamos de ofrecerle los frutos de nuestra vida, corremos el riesgo de caer en el mismo error.

Sin embargo, el Hijo rechazado se convierte en la piedra angular, revelando que el rechazo humano jamás puede frustrar el plan de Dios. Aunque Cristo fue rechazado por muchos, Él se convirtió en el fundamento de nuestra salvación. La viña es entonces entregada a quienes producirán sus frutos, recordándonos que la fe debe producir frutos visibles. Dios busca frutos que reflejen Su Reino: justicia, fidelidad, misericordia, humildad y amor generoso hacia los demás.

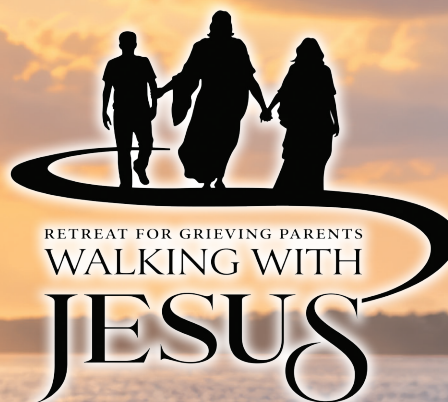

Esta parábola es, al mismo tiempo, una advertencia y una fuente de esperanza. Nos advierte que no debemos dar por sentados los dones de Dios ni apropiarnos de aquello que, en última instancia, le pertenece a Él. Al mismo tiempo, nos asegura que los propósitos de Dios prevalecerán a pesar de las fallas humanas. Por medio de Cristo, la piedra angular, Dios continúa edificando Su Reino y formando un pueblo que busca no dominar, sino servir; no poseer, sino dar; y no vivir para sí mismo, sino para Su gloria.

FOOD DRIVE

Saturday & Sunday
October 24-25

St. Vincent De Paul will conduct its Fall food drive on the weekend of October 24 - 25. Bags will be distributed at all Masses on October 17 - 18.

A list of needed items will be attached to each bag. Filled bags should be placed in the bins at each church entrance on the weekend of October 24 - 25. Your continued support of our food drive will provide groceries and hygiene items for the food pantry at our Family Assistance Center.

During the last few years, we have seen a huge increase in the number of neighbors requesting help with their rent and/or utility payments. Because of rising costs, we expect this trend to continue indefinitely. Donations from the food drive will be used to support these needs. If you wish to make a monetary donation, checks should be made out to St. Vincent De Paul, with St. Agnes Conference written in the memo line.

Please help our neighbors by supporting our food drive. Working together, we can do our part to help our relatives, friends and neighbors in need of our help.

Sábado y domingo
24-25 de octubre

La Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl llevará a cabo su campaña de recolección de alimentos de otoño el fin de semana del 24 y 25 de octubre. Se distribuirán bolsas en todas las misas los días 17 y 18 de octubre.

Cada bolsa incluirá una lista de los artículos necesarios. Las bolsas llenas deberán depositarse en los contenedores ubicados en las entradas de la iglesia durante el fin de semana del 24 y 25 de octubre. Su continuo apoyo a esta campaña permitirá abastecer de alimentos y artículos de higiene la despensa de nuestro Centro de Asistencia Familiar.

En los últimos años, hemos observado un aumento considerable en el número de vecinos que solicitan ayuda para pagar el alquiler y/o los servicios públicos. Debido al incremento de los costos, prevemos que esta tendencia continúe indefinidamente. Las donaciones recaudadas en esta campaña se destinarán a cubrir estas necesidades. Si desea realizar una donación económica, los cheques deben emitirse a nombre de "St. Vincent De Paul", indicando "St. Agnes Conference" en la línea de concepto (memo).

Por favor, ayude a nuestros vecinos apoyando esta campaña de recolección de alimentos. Trabajando juntos, podemos aportar nuestro granito de arena para ayudar a familiares, amigos y vecinos que nos necesitan.

God sent prophets at critical times to call the people back to their covenant relationship with him. Prophets proclaimed the consequences of continued sin, called people to repentance, and declared God's faithful love. They also spoke of the future to shed light on current events and to reveal God's plans and purposes.

In The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy, discover how God is constantly calling you to a deeper relationship with him, as well as the ways you are called to be the voice of God to others.

“I love this study! ... Now we know where they were when they said it, why they said it. Thomas was so clear. He illuminated it so well that it was easy to understand.”

SEEING GOD IN EVERY FACE

A CALL TO PROTECT THE SACREDNESS OF LIFE AND UPHOLD HUMAN DIGNITY

Have you ever wondered what God looks like? You do not have to search the heavens. Just look at the person beside you. Now glance in the mirror. You will find the sacred imprint of God's image in every person - stranger, neighbor, loved one. Our sacred origin is revealed in Genesis: "God created human beings in His image."

Every human being bears God's likeness - the imago Dei - regardless of birthplace, background, skin color, or beliefs. This includes the most vulnerable among us: children living in poverty, those seeking a better life in our Country, veterans with visible or unseen wounds, seniors navigating declining health, and all who endure isolation or profound hardship. When we start to recognize the image of God in others, we begin to recognize the holiness of every life and the sacred ties that bind us as one human family.

To be a Christian is to recognize the image of God in every person. The true disciple of Jesus does not turn away from the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, or the suffering. Catholic Social Teaching teaches that protecting human dignity comes with a responsibility to defend rights and fulfill duties - to family, community, and society at large. When we fail in our responsibility to protect the vulnerable, the foundation of our common humanity is weakened. St. Maximillian Kolbe, a Franciscan priest murdered at Auschwitz, referred to such indifference as "the most deadly poison of our time." No authority or circumstance can take away the sacred worth of a person. Our founding fathers echoed this truth: "All men are created equal, endowed by their Creator with unalienable Rights - Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness."

During Respect Life Month, the Justice and Peace Committee of St. Agnes Parish asks readers to seek and recognize God's image in every person and take action to protect the sacredness of life and the dignity of every person from conception to natural death, and every moment in between. Let us resist the pull of indifference knowing that as true followers of Christ, our faith requires action.

WAYS TO ACT:

- Advocate for life-affirming policies that protect the unborn and support families, the elderly, the disabled, veterans, and the dignity of migrants and refugees.
- Work to end the death penalty, embracing restorative justice over vengeance.
- Firmly denounce all forms of violence, whether in homes, schools, or public places, and teach children that mercy and love are the foundations of true justice.
- Before posting on social media, pause and ask: "Does this reflect the human dignity I'm called to uphold?" Choose empathy over fearmongering.
- Stand firm against racism and ethnocentrism. Challenge harmful stereotypes and commit to examining your own assumptions.
- Combat hunger by donating food and advocating for free and reduced meals in schools. Share a meal with someone in need.
- Consider opening your home as a foster parent to children who have suffered abuse or neglect. Contact the Children's Network of SW Florida at 855.933.5437 or visit childrensnetworkflorida.org.

“I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so should you also love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, by your love for one another.”

—John 13:34-35

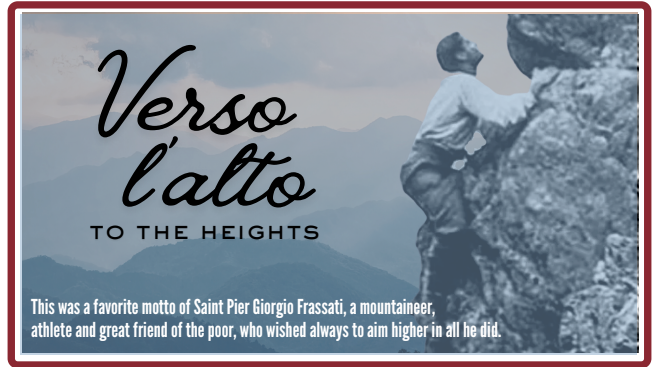

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

VIRGEN DEL ROSARIO

Cada 7 de octubre, celebramos la Advocación que nos recuerda la importancia de dirigirnos afectuosamente a Nuestra Madre en la oración, por medio del rezo del Santo Rosario. Fue la misma Virgen María quien nos pidió que lo recemos y lo demos a conocer, para obtener las gracias abundantes prometidas.

El Rosario es una oración Mariana, y significa corona de rosas, que consiste en repetir el saludo que el ángel le dio a María; interponiendo un Padrenuestro. Nos ayuda a aumentar el amor a la mujer por quien vino la salvación al mundo por medio de la meditación de la misma vida de Cristo, por lo sabemos que es una oración Cristocéntrica. En el año 1208 la Virgen se le apareció a Santo Domingo de Guzmán, fundador de los Dominicos, y le entregó en las manos un rosario y le enseñó como orarlo. Este Rosario era la respuesta a las oraciones que SANTO Domingo venía pidiéndole ayuda para contrarrestar la herejía albigense (otra versión del catarismo o religión de los puros) para ser derrotada. La Virgen María le pidió a Santo Domingo que difundiera la oración como práctica Universal. Posteriormente en 1571 en la conocida Batalla de Lepanto donde las tropas navales cristianas se debían enfrentar a la armada del Imperio Otomano para evitar la expansión en occidente. Antes de la batalla las milicias cristianas se encomendaron a la Virgen María y rezaron juntos el rosario. Ese día los cristianos obtuvieron un triunfo contundente que fue atribuido a la intercesión de la Madre de Dios, protectora de la Cristiandad. De esta manera esta importante devoción Mariana, se extendió y muchos pontífices realzaron la importancia de meditar el santo rosario. El Papa Pío X instauró el día 7 de octubre como la fiesta oficial de la Virgen del Rosario, inmortalizándola con la siguiente frase: "Denme un ejercito que rece el Rosario y este vencerá al mundo".
