32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus told the story about ten maidens waiting for a bridegroom to return home with his new bride. Most likely he had been delayed at her home working out the negotiations for her with the bride's father. Five of the maidens came with enough oil to keep their lamps burning through the night. The other five foolishly brought none. This passage is clearly about the end times and our being ready for it. The maidens needed oil to keep their lamps burning in order to be ready for the bridegroom. The message for us relates back to the Great Commandment we read about two weeks ago. We need to love God and our neighbors to insure that our lamps are ready for the end time.

Gospel Reflection for next Sunday

33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time
Matthew 25: 14-30

We are about to get another one of those "not fair" parables next week. If it seems that way to you, go deeper. Charging interest at that time for Jews was against the law. It seems even more unfair when men get praised for doing what was wrong at the time while the man who kept the rule gets in trouble for it. We must remember that there was no capitalism when Jesus spoke these words. Increasing wealth by investment never crossed their minds. They had a notion that there was a limited about of good. There is only so much wealth to go around and an increase for one person means taking from another. Anyone with more than they needed would be seen as greedy and wicked. The man with all the goods is not representing God. That is not what is going on here. What we get is a warning that a reckoning is coming. What we see at the end is what can happen to those who blow the whistle on the rich and powerful. The parable encourages disciples to find ways to stand together confronting unjust systems and not be found in a vulnerable solitary position like the third man. This ought to lead us to think about fear and greed reminding us with money to be vigilant in stewardship with this third of three parables stressing the need for disciples to be found faithful when Christ come again.

Save the Date!

Join us on March 9, 2027, as we celebrate the 20th Anniversary of St. Agnes Catholic Church! Mark your calendars and plan to be part of this special celebration of faith, community, and the many blessings God has given our parish family over the years. More information and details to follow.

Pray for Peace and Safety:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

KEEP THE LIGHT OF FAITH BURNING

"Stay awake and be ready." This invitation lies at the heart of this week's readings, calling us to grow in wisdom, remain watchful, and live each day with faith and purpose. Because we do not know when the Lord will come, we are invited to prepare our hearts—not with fear or anxiety, but with trust, hope, and a willingness to recognize God's presence in our daily lives. Faith is not something we put off until tomorrow; it is a gift we are called to nurture and live today.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds his disciples that no one knows the day or the hour of his coming. Rather than worrying about the future, we are called to remain faithful and attentive, ready to welcome him whenever he comes. His message speaks to us across the centuries, reminding us that readiness is not simply about waiting for the Lord's return, but also about recognizing him in the people we encounter and the opportunities to love and serve that each day brings.

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins becomes even more meaningful when we consider the wedding customs of first-century Palestine. The young women, friends and relatives of the bride, waited to welcome the bridegroom as he arrived to bring his bride to her new home. Since his arrival could be delayed, they needed to be prepared. The oil in their lamps reminds us of the faith, love, and hope we must continually nurture within our hearts. These gifts sustain us as we wait for the Lord and help us keep our faith alive, even when the way forward is uncertain.

True wisdom is more than knowledge; it is the ability to live with God at the center of our lives. Wise choices do not spare us every difficulty, but they help us face challenges with greater peace, trust, and clarity. As we grow in wisdom, we learn to love more generously, serve more faithfully, and place our future in God's hands. In this way, we keep the light of faith burning, even in moments of uncertainty or trial.

Ultimately, the question is not simply when Jesus will come, but whether we are making room for him in our hearts today. Are we living in a way that reflects his love? Are we ready to recognize his presence and welcome him with joy? May we nurture the faith that sustains us, the hope that strengthens us, and the love that prepares us to meet the Lord with hearts full of peace.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Formerly called Last Rites or Extreme Unction, this Sacrament is for those experiencing a serious illness, facing an operation or dying. Anointing of the Sick should be performed before death is imminent, when a person is conscious and able to receive comfort from the sacrament. We make every effort to provide pastoral care and the sacrament of anointing to all who request it; however, families are encouraged to call sooner rather than later. If a loved one is at home and needs the sacrament, please call the office at 592-1949 to arrange for a priest to visit.

In the Hospital?

Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament. Be aware that because of HIPAA Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

FOR CHILDREN AGES 5-10* DURING 11AM MASS EVERY SUNDAY

All are welcome!

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.
Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahla at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

New to St. Agnes?

Fr. Bob and the entire clergy and staff warmly invite all individuals and families, who are new to St. Agnes since January of 2026, to attend a special Newcomer get-together.

Please join us for fellowship and light refreshments in the Parish Hall on Friday, November 20 from 5:30 - 6:30 pm.

Purpose: To meet clergy, key staff, and other new parishioners. To discover the stewardship opportunities available to help you engage more fully, and to learn more about St. Agnes.

Wine and Cheese

When: Friday, November 20
Time: 5:30-6:30 p.m.
Place: St. Agnes Parish Center

RSVP: to Stewardship Coordinator, Gloria Carter by November 9, either by phone or email: gloria@stagnesnaples.org phone: (239) 592-1949 x118.

We look forward to meeting you.

¿Nuevo en St. Agnes ?

El Padre Bob, junto con todo el clero y el personal, invita cordialmente a todas las personas y familias que se han unido a St. Agnes desde enero de 2026 a una reunión especial para nuevos feligreses.

Acompáñenos para compartir un momento de confraternidad y refrigerios ligeros en el Salón Parroquial el viernes 20 de noviembre de 2026, de 5:30 a 6:30 p. m.

Propósito: Conocer al clero, al personal clave y a otros nuevos miembros de la parroquia. Descubrir las oportunidades de corresponsabilidad disponibles para ayudarte a involucrarte más plenamente y aprender más sobre St. Agnes.

God sent prophets at critical times to call the people back to their covenant relationship with him. Prophets proclaimed the consequences of continued sin, called people to repentance, and declared God's faithful love. They also spoke of the future to shed light on current events and to reveal God's plans and purposes.

In The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy, discover how God is constantly calling you to a deeper relationship with him, as well as the ways you are called to be the voice of God to others.

> "I love this study! ... Now we know where they were when they said it, why they said it. Thomas was so clear. He illuminated it so well that it was easy to understand."

Hombres y Mujeres Preparados

La sabiduría esa asemejada a la mujer, que está dispuesta y está sentada esperandonos , si nos apresuramos a buscarla, para conducirnos por el camino correcto al Reino del Señor. La sabiduría sale de la boca del señor y de aquel que medita el mensaje bíblico, para el que allanará su camino a la salvación. Pablo por su parte, nos indica que no solo los que vivan al momento de la segunda venida podrán alcanzar la salvación, sino todos aquellos que murieron en Cristo. Y así debemos entender que sucederá con todos los que murieron cumpliendo la Ley divina, todos tendrán la posibilidad de la Resurrección. Pero para ello debemos estar atentos y prevenidos porque esperamos la venida del Señor, pero si nos descuidamos y no estamos presentes al momento de su llegada nos puede suceder como a las novias necias que no pudieron entrar a la boda. Así, el aceite representa nuestra preparación espiritual , la constancia de nuestra fe y nuestra acción constante acorde con el mandato divino y debemos tener suficiente para que la llama de la sabiduría, del conocimiento del mensaje de Cristo, se mantenga viva y nos dé suficiente claridad para disfrutar de la resurrección y la vida eterna. Recordemos que no sabemos ni el día ni la hora en la que debamos enfrentarnos al juicio divino. Así pues, acerquémonos al conocimiento del mensaje divino para conocer las exigencias que impone el Altísimo para tener encendidas nuestras lámparas el momento de la llegada de ese momento crucial.
