About me:

Life gave me lemons, and I turned them into Sweet Lemonade Photography... a multi-six-figure business. And now I'm making even sweeter lemonade, helping women photographers create their own powerful legacy.

After I became a single mom to 3 young boys, I created a business that allows me the freedom to spend an abundant amount of time doing what I love most... spending time with family and traveling the world. Teaching photographers that they are capable of the same fills my bucket and makes my heart so happy!
