PLEASE REMEMBER:

- We are a club staffed by volunteers
- Our clubs values are: Enjoyment, excellence, respect, participation & community: Share these with your kids!
- We have hundreds of kids registering, so your respect, support & patience is appreciated
- This is kids basketball not the NBA. Encourage your kids, help them manage mindset, remind them that they are part of a team and let's all have fun
- Referees - some are kids too. It could be your kid one day! Teach your kids to respect the referees - it's an important part of the game. Abuse is not tolerated at any level, from parents or players
- If you have an issue you would like to discuss, please start by speaking with your coach (not on game day) You are always welcome to email us with your concern as well.

LOOKING FOR PURPOSE? GET INVOLVED

- As our club continues to grow, we will have opportunities for volunteers in various capacities
- If you are interested in volunteering, please register your interest by emailing: carnegiebasketballclub@gmail.com with the title of your email "Volunteer"
- Tell us a little about yourself and when an opportunity arises, we will be back in touch

WE NEED YOUR HELP

- As a growing club, one of the biggest challenges that we face is finding enough courts
- If you know of a court that is available or open for hire (perhaps enquire at your child's school) please email to let us know: carnegiebasketballclub@gmail.com
- Your help is greatly appreciated!
