AUGUST 2026

THE HARBOR AT RENAISSANCE OF GREENE COUNTY

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

August brings its own kind of turning point. The sunsets come a little earlier, school buses make their rounds, and there’s that unmistakable hum of routines returning. Yet even as summer lingers at the edges, this season seems to ask us to slow down and pay attention—not just to what’s changing, but to the steady goodness that’s always been here.

With National Senior Citizen Day on the horizon, I find myself grateful for the quiet strength and deep wisdom that fill our community. It isn’t just the celebrations or big milestones that shape us—it’s the everyday moments when someone offers a listening ear, a steady hand, or a word of encouragement just when it’s needed most. Most acts of kindness are woven into the fabric of daily life, easy to overlook because they feel so natural. But every now and then, someone does something truly unexpected—a gesture so genuine, so far beyond what’s required, that it leaves a mark on everyone who witnesses it. These are the moments our Going the Extra Mile program was created to honor.

It’s remarkable how these acts ripple outward. For the person on the receiving end, a single, unexpected kindness can create a sense of belonging that lingers long after. And for the giver, the reward is just as real—a quiet satisfaction, a reminder that compassion has a way of coming back around, even if there’s no audience to applaud it.

The inspiration for Going the Extra Mile comes from the words of Jesus in the book of Matthew. In his time, it was law for Roman soldiers to ask civilians to carry their gear for a mile—a task no one relished. But Jesus urged, “If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles.” Not out of obligation, but as an act of radical generosity. That’s the spirit we celebrate: not just doing what’s expected, but choosing to offer more, simply because you care.

If you catch someone in the act of true generosity—something that goes beyond the boundaries of their role or duty—I hope you’ll consider sharing their story. Nomination forms can be found in the lobby, and every entry is a chance to shine a light on the quiet heroes who make this place feel like home. Each month, we recognize these acts, and at year’s end, our honorees are considered for the Legacy Champion Award—a tribute to the legacy of kindness that defines us.

Thank you for letting us walk alongside you and serve this extraordinary community. Whether you’re here for a visit, a story, or a smile, you are always welcome—and may this month bring you peace, joy, and the quiet blessings of belonging.

Sincerely,

Sandy Siler
Executive Director

LIFE ENRICHMENT Connections

Volunteering at The Harbor: One of the best parts of my job is seeing the impact our volunteers have on life at The Harbor. I get to work with people like Keith, who shows up every week for Bingo, and Nancy, who consistently steps in to help with activities several days a week. Our church groups come once a month to lead sermons and special events—each of them brings their own spark and energy, and our residents truly benefit from those connections.

I'm always looking to bring more people into this circle. If you've ever thought about volunteering, I'd love to talk with you. Whether you want to share a hobby, play some music, bring your pet for a visit, or lead a Bible study, you'll find a place here—and I know our residents will be thrilled to welcome you. You can call me at (434) 985-4481, or just stop by and pick up a volunteer application. Whatever your interests or talents, there's a way for you to make a meaningful difference here!

ASHLEY WELCHER AUGUST WINNER

"If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles." Matt 5:41

We are delighted to recognize Ashley Welcher as our latest Going the Extra Mile honoree. Ashley was chosen for this award because of her remarkable dedication to our residents, her willingness to support her team, and the bright, positive energy she brings to The Harbor every day.

Ashley joined The Harbor just last year, and in that short time, she's become an integral part of our community. She started out as a caregiver, where her compassion quickly stood out. Through hard work and determination, Ashley recently passed her RMA tests and is stepping into the role of nighttime Med Tech. This achievement is a testament to her commitment to growing in her career and making an even greater impact on those around her. We are thrilled to watch her continue to flourish and know she has truly found her calling here.

Outside of work, Ashley is devoted to her three wonderful children, who are the light of her life. Raised right here in Madison County, she still finds joy in the simple things—whether she's cooking up a meal at home, tending to chores, or soaking up the sunshine while mowing or fishing. No matter what she's doing, Ashley brings warmth and genuine care to every moment.

Ashley's kindness shines through in everything she does. She's known for always being ready to lend a helping hand, and her passion for supporting others is felt by residents, families, and staff alike. Her heart of gold makes a lasting difference here at The Harbor, and we are grateful for the positive spirit she shares with our entire community.

Ashley, thank you for your unwavering dedication and for letting your light shine so brightly. We are so proud to have you on our team and can't wait to see all that you'll accomplish in your new role. Please join us in celebrating Ashley Welcher and expressing our heartfelt gratitude for all she does.

CAN YOU HEAR THAT?

An old man decided his old wife was getting hard of hearing. He called her doctor to make an appointment to have her hearing checked.

The doctor said he could see her in two weeks, and meanwhile, there's a simple, informal test the husband could do to give the doctor some idea of the dimensions of the problem.

"Here's what you do. Start about 40 feet away from her, and speak in a normal conversational tone and see if she hears you. If not, go to 30 feet, then 20 feet, and so on until you get a response."

So that evening she's in the kitchen cooking dinner, and he's in the living room and he says to himself, "I'm about 40 feet away; let's see what happens."

"Honey, what's for supper?" No response.

So he moves to the other end of the room, about 30 feet away. "Honey, what's for supper?" No response.

So he moves into the dining room, about 20 feet away. "Honey, what's for supper?" No response.

On to the kitchen door, only ten feet away.

"Honey, what's for supper?" No response.

So he walks right up behind her. "Honey, what's for supper?"

"For the fifth time, CHICKEN!"

THE SPARK OF JOY IN THE ROOM: MEET Gertie Dailey

Some people have a way of lighting up a room before they even step inside—if you’ve spent time at The Harbor, you know that’s Gertrude “Gertie” Dailey. Her laughter, sharp wit and open-armed kindness never seem to run out.

Gertie’s story starts in the heart of Washington, D.C., where she learned early what it means to be part of a bustling, close-knit family. Catholic school gave structure to her days and faith to her spirit, while life in Arlington, Virginia, offered new adventures and a community she’d grow to love. At Washington and Lee High School, Gertie was the kind of student you remember—quick to help, always ready with a joke and never one to shy away from a challenge.

From a young age, Gertie’s warmth and sense of responsibility set her apart. As a bus driver for Prince William County, she greeted each child with a reassuring smile and a wave, quietly making every passenger feel safe. Later, she found a new way to care for people as a Licensed Practical Nurse at UVA Hospital. Her gentle presence and easy humor made her a comfort to patients and colleagues alike—she was the nurse who remembered your story, the one who always knew how to lift your spirits.

Family has always been Gertie’s heartbeat. She married the love of her life—a partnership built on laughter, resilience and that rare ability to weather whatever life brings, together. Six children filled their home with noise and love, and as the years passed, the table grew crowded with grandchildren and great-grandchildren, each one drawn to Gertie’s warmth and her bottomless supply of hugs.

Travel opened up new worlds for Gertie, but one trip stands out as her favorite: visiting her daughter in Germany. She still talks about it—the sights, the surprises, the joy of adventure with family by her side.

Gertie believes in savoring life’s small pleasures. Mornings start with a hot cup of coffee, afternoons are better with an ice-cold Diet Coke and there’s always room for something sweet. She’s never happier than when there’s a dog nearby—she has a gentle touch with animals and an obvious soft spot for furry friends.

Energy like Gertie’s can’t be contained. She loved the friendly competition of bowling, the pure fun of dancing and the peace she found at Saturday Mass. She’s a people person to her core—generous with her time, ready with a zinger and known for a smile that makes strangers feel like old friends.

At The Harbor, Gertie’s presence is a kind of sunshine. People know her voice before they see her—her laughter travels down the hallway and her conversations brighten every gathering. She brings people together, whether it’s at a meal, a game or just in the quiet moments that make up a day.

Music is another thread in the tapestry of her life. When musicians visit, Gertie is front and center, singing along, tapping her foot and letting the music lift her even higher. She loves to relax in the courtyards, soaking up the sun, breathing in the fresh air and sharing a story or two with anyone who joins her outside.

Gertie Dailey is more than a resident—she’s The Harbor’s spark, the friend you hope to sit beside and the reason the place feels like home. Her story is still unfolding, and we’re honored to be part of it. We celebrate Gertie, her laughter and the way she makes every day brighter for all of us.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

My name is Zachary Shifflett, and I'm excited to step into the role of chaplain at The Harbor and The Renaissance. Greene County has always been my home—I grew up here, and I still live here today. During the week, I work in my family's business, and I'm also a full-time student, working toward a Bachelor's in Christian Ministry at Liberty University.

Faith is at the heart of my life. I find real joy in reading scripture, listening to sermons, and thinking deeply about what it means to follow Christ. When I'm not studying or working, you'll probably find me diving into a book about history or enjoying time with my family.

Some of you might remember me from my earlier visits to The Harbor, especially when my wife was the activities director. I loved those opportunities to connect with residents and hear their stories.

I believe Jesus calls us to bring light and hope wherever we go and I look forward to sharing the light He's brought into my life with you all. I look forward to getting to know each of you along this journey together.

A Walk Down MEMORY LANE

What was school like for you?

Beverly Newman: School was something I enjoyed a lot. Seeing my friends and learning something new. Yeah, I liked it. I liked it so much, I went on to be a schoolteacher. I really enjoyed my time as a schoolteacher; the kids were just wonderful. I looked forward to going. I don't remember having a favorite subject, I really liked them all. English class was fun. I enjoyed doing sports in school as well. I still like those sports a lot today.
