MESSAGE FROM MRS. FREIBURGER

We've survived a week of school, and it's been a whirlwind of firsts! First day jitters, first "I'm too sick for school" call, first playground mishap, first kiddo feeling queasy in the classroom, and even the first lunch box that made it to school empty! Let's not forget the first trip to the principal's office, first parent dial-up, and first early sign-out. Just a parade of firsts marching all over the place!

But oh, the sweet symphony of teachers doing their teaching magic, kids chattering, giggling, and playing—it's the kind of melody that sticks with you forever.
