MESSAGE FROM MRS. FREIBURGER

On Monday, students from grades 4 through 8 attended the All Schools Mass at the Coliseum. We were honored to have Bishop Rhoades co-celebrate alongside numerous priests from the Diocese, delivering an inspiring homily focused on the Saints, particularly the Archangel Saints. Bishop Rhoades invited anyone dressed as one of the Archangel saints to join him on stage. We are delighted to highlight that Peter Karami chose to portray Saint Michael the Archangel. Great job Peter!

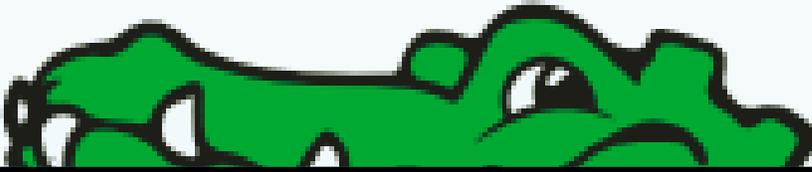

We take great pride in all of our fourth-grade Saints.

The JV squad wrapped up their season on Monday, battling Queen of Angels through three nail-biting sets. Big cheers to our mighty 3rd to 6th graders, who blossomed from day one to the final whistle! We're buzzing with excitement to see what adventures await these rising stars!

Varsity kicks off the tournament this Sunday, facing off against Our Lady of Good Hope. Go get 'em, Lady Gators! Good luck!
