Some Families Choose to Have a Catered Event

If you wish to have a meal or light refreshments, let your funeral director know. Some families need this time to catch up with others, watch the tribute video and take a moment to share special stories while celebrating a loved one's life. Your funeral director will walk you through the planning of a menu, creating a personalized event and take care of set up and break down.

During the Visitation: A family may opt for the light refreshments where the funeral home coordinates to have tea, water, or other beverages, cookies, light finger foods available for your guests.

A Meal: This meal is coordinated by the director and personalized, use of the large visitation room with tables set, includes plates, cutlery, set up and breakdown with a full course meal and desert. Your director will give you some choices of menu and times. This meal can also be brought to the home for families to enjoy, leaving the burden of planning to the funeral home.
