THE JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

ADVENT REFLECTION
SECOND SUNDAY

The Second Sunday in Advent invites us into a deeper posture of preparation and hope. The readings often center on the voice of John the Baptist, calling us to “prepare the way” - not just in the world around us, but in the quiet place of our own hearts.

This week is about clearing the path, letting go of grudges, softening hardened attitudes, and making space for God’s presence. Advent isn’t only about waiting; it’s about active readiness – choosing kindness, seeking reconciliation, and living with hope that transforms our daily actions. Like a candle in the winter darkness, our faith is meant to shine brighter as Christmas draws near. The second flame of the Advent wreath, often called the Candle of Peace, remind us that Christ’s coming brings not just comfort, but a call to be peace makers I our families, communities, and the wider world.

Reflection question: What “rough places” in my life need smoothing so that Christ can enter more fully this season?
