32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Church waits for her Spouse

The first Christians used to repeat frequently "The Lord is coming" and they were always ready to receive him. The theme of vigilance is the one linking together her three reading of today.

The second reading tells us how this expectation and vigilance was lived in the community of Thessalonica. The gospel shows us the same theme through a parable recommending vigilance.

The first reding can be taken as a commentary on the gospel.

The gospel teaches that "wise" are those virgins who know how to prepare themselves for the coming of the Lord, while the first reading says that the most precious gift for the human person is the wisdom that comes from God.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi
(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
