13th Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday Reflection

This Sunday's readings invite us into a deeper awareness of hospitality, commitment, and the cost of discipleship.

In the First Reading, the Shunammite woman's generosity toward the prophet Elisha reminds us that true hospitality is more than politeness—it's an openness of heart. She welcomed not just a guest, but God's presence into her home, and in return, she received blessings beyond her expectations.

In the Gospel (Matthew 10:37–42), Jesus speaks with striking clarity: following Him means placing Him above all other attachments. This isn't a call to neglect our loved ones, but to love them more deeply through the lens of God's love. When Christ is at the center, our relationships, choices, and priorities align with a greater purpose.

The promise that even a simple cup of cold water given in His name will not go unrewarded reminds us that discipleship is lived in both great sacrifices and small acts of kindness. Every gesture of love, no matter how small, becomes part of God's work in the world.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our defense against the wickedness
 and snares of the Devil.
 May God rebuke him,
 we humbly pray, and do thou,
 O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
 by the power of God,
 thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,
 who prowl about the world
 seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel,
 defiéndenos en la lucha.
 Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad
 y acechanzas del demonio.
 Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder,
 es nuestra humilde súplica.
 Y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial,
 con el poder que Dios te ha conferido,
 arroja al infierno a Satanás,
 y a los demás espíritus malignos
 que vagan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.
