Spiritual Reflection for World Mission Sunday

“One in Christ, United in Mission” a call to unity, generosity, and Gospel witness

World Mission Sunday 2026 marks the 100th anniversary of this day, instituted in 1926 by Pope Pius XI to unite the Church worldwide in prayer, solidarity, and support for evangelization. This year's theme, “One in Christ, United in Mission”, invites us to reflect on the deep unity that flows from our communion with Christ and with one another, as the source and fruit of the Church's missionary life.

The readings for this Sunday speak of God's saving plan, the virtues of faith, hope, and charity, and Jesus' call to give to God what is God's. The Gospel's reminder to “repay to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's” challenges us to balance our duties to the world with our total devotion to God. In the Spirit, we are called to be “missionary disciples” — not only in word, but in life, love, and service.

The Church's mission is not the work of a few; every baptized person is a mission. As Pope Leo XIV reminds us, mission begins in the heart: reconciled, united, and open to the Holy Spirit. This unity is the most powerful witness to the Gospel, especially in a world marked by division. Our generosity — in prayer, time, and material support — is a tangible sign of this unity, sustaining mission communities and future Church leaders.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,

grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

to be understood as to understand,

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

and it is in dying that we are born

to eternal life.
