30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday Reflection

The Christian catechism is not difficult: it can all be learnt in one lesson. Whoever fulfils the commandment of love has already fulfilled all the law. All the rest is just comment and explanation. This the message we learn from the gospel today.

The first reading applies this commandment to the less fortunate brothers and sisters: the strangers, the orphans and the widows.

The second reading is linked to this theme because it shows the example of the early Christian communities practicing reciprocal charity and love.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
