THE JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

SUNDAY REFLEXION

IN FRONT OF GOD,
WE ARE ALL EMPTY-HANDED

I think that the gospel of today will not be easily understood unless we keep in mind what the first reading teaches us of the justice of God. God is just, says Ben Sira, not because he grants each person what that person deserves, but because he saves the poor and listens to the cry of the miserable and defenseless. The gospel is telling us that God has this same attitude: he is moved by the publican who only presents his miseries and sins.

*Also, the second reading could be seen in this light.
Paul is saying that one day he will receive from God the “crown” that he, the just judge, will give to all those who have spent their lives for the sake of the Gospel. He is expecting it as a gift, not as a prize due to him.*
