24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday Reflection

Forgiveness without any limit

The gospel of today is from the last part of chapter 18 which, as we have seen already last Sunday, deals with the problems in the life of Matthew's communities. Today it has emphasized forgiveness. How should Christians behave with those who offend them? Can they retaliate? Not even once?

Both the gospel passage and the first reading reply clearly that the only possible human and Christian attitude is forgiveness.

The second reading is connected to this because it recommends understanding towards those who within the community hold opinions which are different from ours.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray, and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha.
Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad
y acechanzas del demonio.
Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder,
es nuestra humilde súplica.
Y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial,
con el poder que Dios te ha conferido, arroja al infierno a Satanás,
y a los demás espíritus malignos que vagan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.
