33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Only the one who does not Risk is condemned

The theme of this Sunday is the duty of every Christian to perform an active to exercise a ministry within the community.

The gospel says that we are not using our own capital and that we shall be asked an account of the work done and the fruit yielded.
The first reading was chosen appropriately, and it gives us an example of very industrious person: the woman.

The second reading is connected to this theme because it tells us that the master will come unexpectedly; life must be taken very seriously, and we should not lose any time.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi
(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
