When you eat this fun snack, be thankful for Jesus, who is our Bread of Life.

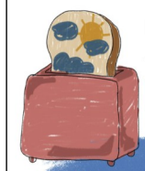

What you need:

- Small cups
- Milk
- Food coloring
- Clean, food-safe brush
- Slice of bread
- Toaster or toaster oven
- Butter, optional

What you do:

1. Set out one small cup for each color you want to use.
2. Pour 1 to 2 tablespoons of milk into each cup.
3. Add a few drops of food coloring to each cup and stir until the color is bright.
4. Using a clean, food-safe brush, gently paint a picture or design on the bread. Be careful not to soak the bread.
5. When you're finished painting, toast the bread. Add a little butter, if desired, and enjoy!

Reminder:

What's your favorite Thanksgiving celebration?
Following is a list of some favorite ways to celebrate:

Macy's Thanksgiving day Parade (from NYC). This is the most famous U.S. Thanksgiving event which, for many, marks the start of the holiday season.
Philadelphia's Thanksgiving Day Parade. This is the oldest U.S. Thanksgiving parade, dating back to 1920.
America's Hometown Thanksgiving in Plymouth Massachusetts. This historic celebration is at the site of the first Thanksgiving, with reenactments, a parade, and cultural exhibits.
Other meaning full traditions:

- Breaking the wishbone for good luck after the meal.
- Creating a "thankful Tree" where each person hangs a note of gratitude.
- Watching "A Charlie Brown Thanksgiving' for a nostalgic family movie night.
- Hosting a themed Thanksgiving celebration (vintage, modern, or cultural).
- Organizing Turkey Day games or crafts for kids.
- Volunteering at a food bank or shelter to combine gratitude with service.

In short: If you're looking for a favorite Thanksgiving celebration, the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is the most iconic public event, while Plymouth's historic festival and family-centered traditions like gratitude circles and themed meals are among the most cherished personal ways to make the day.
So what traditions will you celebrate this year? Just remember to be thankful. That's what it's all about!
