World Day of Prayer for Vocations

*"I am the door...go in and out and find pasture."
 (John 10:9)*

Jesus invites each of us to enter through Him, the door to life and abundance. On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, the entire Church is called to pray for more holy vocations. Offer a Rosary, asking the Lord to guide hearts to go where He wants them to go, be who He wants them to be, and do what He calls them to do.

Faith Formation Program K-12th Grade Children & Families

For questions, please contact Laura Rios, Director of Religious Education, at childrensministry@stclareroseville.org or (916) 772-4717 x113.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that He is the Good Shepherd. Many of the people who lived at the time and place of Jesus were shepherds, so this was a familiar job for lots of the people listening. Some shepherds were just hired to take care of the sheep. This meant that they didn't really care what happened to the sheep.

But we, the sheep, actually belong to Jesus, and He takes the most excellent care of us. What happens to us matters to Him! We should recognize His voice and run after Him.

How can you hear the voice of Jesus?

Pray, read the Bible, go to Mass, go to Confession, talk with holy people. Ask Him to help you hear Him—He is happy to answer that prayer!

Don't listen to the thieves and robbers who tempt us to sin. Listen for Jesus' voice.

Please join me in prayer:

Loving and gracious God,

We lift up to You our First Communicants and our Confirmation Candidates as they prepare to receive their sacraments on May 2nd and May 3rd.

Fill their hearts with joy, reverence, and a deep awareness of Your presence. As our First Communicants receive the Eucharist for the first time, may they always hunger for Your love and grow ever closer to You. As our Confirmation Candidates are strengthened by the Holy Spirit, grant them courage, wisdom, and a steadfast faith to live as true witnesses of Christ.

Bless their families, sponsors, and all who have guided them on this journey. May these sacred days be the beginning of a lifelong commitment to You and Your Church.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
