THE KNIGHTS' CORNER COUNCIL 12887

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Christ is Risen, He is truly risen!

St. Cyril of Jerusalem says "Faith in the Resurrection of the dead is a great commandment and doctrine of the Holy Catholic Church; great and most necessary." The Resurrection is the foundation of our Faith. It is what makes our relationship with Christ and our Catholic faith unique in all the world.

Furthermore, St. Cyril links the Resurrection to our motivation to serve others: "The root of all good works is the hope of the Resurrection; for the expectation of the recompense nerves (motivates) the soul to good works."

Brothers, let us not rest on our laurels after our Lenten sacrifices. Get out there and serve Christ by serving others! Go to <https://www.knightsofcolumbusroseville.com/> to learn more.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE! HE IS RISEN, ALLELUIA!

This month we are collecting diapers and wipes for the Sacramento Life Center, the Sierra Pregnancy and Health Center (here in Roseville), the Gabriel Project, and the Bishop Gallegos home in Sacramento. We really appreciate your help to fill their shelves to support those women who choose life!!

Please remember to pick up a grocery list from the Treasure Chest if you are buying food for those in need. All items on the list are given to high school students. Believe it or not, a lot of students may not eat from Saturday to Monday because of varying situations at home, so what you buy makes a big difference in their lives.

How Can We Bring Our Whole Parish Together—Without Turning Anyone Away?

Too often, our most joyful parish events are limited by space. Vacation Bible School fills up quickly, forcing us to turn families away. Parish gatherings sell out. Even simple fellowship after Mass can feel crowded and exclusive.

With this new space, that changes. We can welcome more children, more families, more neighbors—growing programs like VBS into the vibrant, intergenerational experience they're meant to be. Parish-wide events, from fellowship Sundays to community celebrations, can finally include everyone.

Just as importantly, we can better serve families in times of sorrow. Funeral receptions—moments of comfort and community—will have the space and dignity they deserve, without scheduling conflicts.

And our call to serve will expand. With reliable space, ministries like Social Concerns can once again host outreach efforts such as The Gathering Inn. We can respond to local needs, offer shelter in emergencies, and make it easier for parishioners to live out the Works of Mercy.

This is how we become not just a parish—but a true community.
