WELCOME TO LOVEGRASS!

It's time!

We're glad that you've joined us for the 2026 Lovegrass Music Festival. Lovegrass is a non-profit organization that aims to promote the bluegrass arts in our rural Kansas communities, enhancing the quality of life for all. Our mission extends beyond this as we strive to provide shared cultural experiences and partnerships to make a significant economic impact on our local communities and beyond. And you're a huge part of that!

One important housekeeping item: You must purchase a State Park Vehicle Pass to park your vehicle in Wilson State Park, these can be purchased upon entering the park at the office.

As a non-profit, we depend on the generosity of sponsors, foundations, and people like you! You can support us with a donation (click here to donate, thanks in advance!) Another great way to support Lovegrass is to purchase 50/50 raffle tickets – this is a CASH ONLY raffle.

While you're visiting this gorgeous corner of the state, be sure to check out the local businesses, take in a hike on one of Wilson Lake's scenic trails, and let Lovegrass carry you away on a wave of sound! You could be anywhere in the world, we're glad you chose to spend a few days with us!

After the festival, please fill out our post-event survey, not only does this help us improve the festival, but it also helps us secure grant funding to make future Lovegrass events happen.

Keep pickin',

EAST NASH GRASS

SATURDAY AUGUST 9

WEBSITE | STREAM ON SPOTIFY

One of the most electrifying bands to emerge from Nashville in recent years, East Nash Grass brings a fresh, fearless approach to bluegrass. With roots planted firmly in the tradition but a sound that stretches into bold new territory, they've earned national acclaim and a devoted following for their razor-sharp musicianship, dynamic arrangements, and irresistible stage chemistry.

Featuring a powerhouse lineup of award-winning players — including IBMA Fiddle Player of the Year Maddie Denton — the band combines smoking banjo and mandolin work, rock-solid bass, inventive guitar, and vocals that cut straight to the heart. Their latest album, All God's Children, showcases the band's trademark blend of tradition, innovation, and pure fire, earning praise from critics and fans across the country.

Live, East Nash Grass is a force: tight, joyful, explosive, and wholly unforgettable. This is the kind of headlining set that turns into a festival memory — the one people talk about for years.

JOHNNY MULLENAX

FRIDAY AUGUST 7

WEBSITE | STREAM ON SPOTIFY

Johnny Mullenax is the kind of guitar player and songwriter that simply cannot be contained in any one genre of music — country, rock, bluegrass, blues, jazz, or otherwise. There's just too much talent radiating off of him and too much curiosity built into his makeup. Virtually born with a guitar in his hand and Tulsa-red dirt under his fingernails, he was raised on fireside singalongs, parking lot jams, and sneaking into clubs underaged, and his brand-new EP, "This Joint's for You Too," shows off the depth and breadth of his musical upbringing, with searing electric guitar solos, extremely technical flatpicking, and more energy than your local nuclear reactor.

Johnny comes into his full powers as a bandleader who knows when to let the band rock out and when to step to the front and blow everyone's hair back.

As Mullenax works on his full-length debut for 2027, the summer of 2026 will see him criss-cross the country for more than 50 dates — and cross the pond for tours of Spain and France while he's at it. There will be any number of folks a few years from now telling people that they saw Johnny Mullenax way back when.

DEBUTANTS

SATURDAY AUGUST 9

FACEBOOK | STREAM ON SPOTIFY

Debutants is a high-energy string band with eclectic influences and a penchant to play anything they feel. Dancing between songs and styles of old and new, this fun-loving collective dazzles with impressive musicianship, earnest songwriting, and dynamic live performances.

Debutants have evolved from a duo between longtime friends, Lynn Nicholson and Jon Swain, into a formidable 7-piece string band with a string section. What always comes through loud and clear is the fun they're having playing together, and the vibrant life breathed into their music.

On their debut release, Indiana Newgrass, Debutants went into the studio with banjoist Michael Earl Newsome, fiddle player Sean Hoffman, and bassist/vocalist Colin Taylor. Also instrumental in capturing their sound, was engineer and producer Tyler Thompson at his Studio 110 in Pittsburgh, PA.

With the same lineup in 2023, the band tackled their first full-length album, River on the Moon. Nicholson and Swain were now joined by Hoffman and Taylor in songwriting. This release conveys their most ambitious and cohesive sound yet, in part due to recording all of it "live" circled together around a few microphones.

THE MATCHSELLERS

FRIDAY AUGUST 8

WEBSITE | STREAM ON SPOTIFY

Hailing from Kansas City, The Matchsellers are a rollicking, American string-band that formed in 2013 — and over the years they've become one of the Midwest's most original and sought-after acoustic groups.

Their music blends traditional bluegrass and old-time roots with a modern, “art-house” twist — reinterpreting classic forms while pushing boundaries in storytelling, humor, and stagecraft.

With tight harmonies, flat-picking fire, fiddle, banjo, bass (and sometimes puppetry!) in the mix, The Matchsellers' live shows have a reputation for being unpredictable, hilarious, emotionally vivid, and downright unforgettable.

If you loved them in years past — or haven't seen them yet — this is your chance. Expect soaring fiddles, flat-picked guitar, laugh-out-loud moments, and music that refuses to sit still.

TORNADO ROSE

SATURDAY AUGUST 8

WEBSITE | STREAM TORNADO ROSE

Tornado Rose delivers an uplifting blend of Americana, bluegrass, country and folk with gorgeous vocals and high-flying strings. Lead singer and songwriter Brooke Bell's voice shines with an enchanting power and clarity, beautifully supported by rich bass lines, captivating melodies and smooth solos.

Brooke is a multi-instrumentalist on the guitar, autoharp and fiddle, and her exceptional vocal abilities complement her songwriting, which often reflects her experience growing up in Independence, Kansas. She earned first place in the Love Song Category for her song "Wilderwood Flower" at the 2014 Winfield Bluegrass Festival.

Steeped in the rich traditions of the Kansas plains, the band has set their sights eastward to the Washington, DC metro area, weaving the soulful sounds of Appalachia into their ever-evolving tapestry.

80 PROOF ALICE THURSDAY AUGUST 6

WEBSITE | STREAM ON SPOTIFY

Bluegrass “straight outta Kansas.”

Hailing from Hays, Kansas, 80 Proof Alice is a high-energy trio that artfully fuses various musical influences to create their unique bluegrass sound. They have been making waves across the state, appearing on numerous Midwest festival lineups. The group features Tyson Lesage, whose dynamic flatpicking brings a spirited energy to their performances, and the 2022 Kansas State Banjo Champion, Jason Riegel, whose melodic banjo riffs add depth and texture to their music. Completing the ensemble is Aimee Riegel, whose steady bass lines provide a solid foundation, enriched by her soulful vocals and harmonious melodies that resonate with emotion.

In March 2024, the trio busted onto the scene with the release of their debut self-titled EP, showcasing their exceptional talent and musical versatility. They followed this with a full live album in December 2024, capturing the raw energy of their performances. Looking ahead, 80 Proof Alice has exciting plans to launch a full studio album in 2025, promising even more captivating tunes for their growing fanbase.

Shakedown Strings, consisting of Adam Galblum (vocals & violin), Clayton DeLong (vocals & acoustic guitar), and Rick Willoughby (vocals & upright bass), bring their energy, passion, and joy to the stage. Drawing upon their improvisational prowess and experience as jazz musicians, they celebrate the music of the Grateful Dead and explore the band's vast repertoire of songs and musical ideas.

If you love exploratory jams, rich vocal harmonies, and string-band fireworks with a Deadhead heart, you're not going to want to miss Shakedown Strings at Lovegrass.

BREANNE STONE

FRIDAY AUGUST 7

WEBSITE | STREAM ON SPOTIFY

BreAnne Stone is a singer-songwriter creating soulful, honest music rooted in connection and presence.

I write music from a place of magic — the space between our inner world and the world we cannot see, but deeply feel. If you've had the opportunity to hear me play, you know exactly what I mean. I write music for our souls to feel.

Music has been the backbone of my emotional world since I was a child. Like many musicians, it's how I process, how I learned to feel, and how I make sense of the world around me. Now, it's a gift I choose to share with those who resonate with it.

Thank you for being here.

All my love, BreAnne
