LEGACY VILLAGE OF ATHENS

NEWSLETTER | FEBRUARY 2026

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

After a long day, I found myself in the checkout line of a busy grocery store. Around me, the rhythmic beeps of scanners punctuated the shuffle of carts, while nearby, friends exchanged the familiar, half-to "grab lunch soon"—a well-meaning filled. In the next lane, an elderlyelling who I can only assume was hisdchild that when they got home, he'dff of her." I was utterly flummoxed,ddled, and completely nonplussed—as this tomfoolery unfolding in the-or-less express lane? I couldn't wait and dive online—curious whether Pa-merit or if his imagination had simply

-it-all, Google, told me the tradition: lay over the wart, then bury it—some low-tech magic hoping, carried away by the earth. It's a of faith, hope, and folk wisdom, a time when healing was as much about human connection as it was about the heart of it is intention, the deeply true healing begins in the heart and by small acts of care and kindness.

a shiny metal; it has natural properties, known for centuries to aid in and the science, this story—and others something far more precious: the power of storytelling and tradition. They are the threads that tie us to those who came before, the lessons and love passed down through generations.

In our fast-paced world, these stories risk fading away, lost in the shuffle of modern life. Yet they hold a quiet power—not just in what they teach us about healing or health, but in how they remind us to pause, listen, and share. To tell our own stories, to pass along the wisdom tucked into everyday moments, and to treasure the customs that shape who we are.

In our community, that spirit flourishes every day. Healing isn't always about grand cures; it's found in the smiles shared, the hands held, and the quiet presence beside someone who needs it most. Like the copper penny, these small acts carry a weight far greater than their size, weaving a fabric of care, connection, and hope.

As we move forward into this year, let's take time to share our stories—those old family traditions, those little-known remedies, those moments of kindness and resilience that define us. Because when we tell these tales, we keep the past alive, strengthen our bonds, and build a future rooted in love, respect, and community.

May this year bring stories shared, memories made, and healing found in the simple power of connection.

Warmly,
Melissa Chapp
