

Join SGA and

Network with like-minded colleagues who share your goals for advancement
Learn from some of the most successful veterinary practice leaders in the country
Capitalize on economic changes, industry trends and efficiency improving strategies

About SGA

SGA, a study group created in 2010, accepts for membership veterinary practice owners who are recognized for their high standards and excellent reputations as leaders of the industry.

The key to success of an SGA Study Group is the confidential sharing of financial and operational data. This valuable data is thoroughly analyzed, formatted and shared with study groups by advisors at Burzenski & Company, P.C., leaders in the fields of accounting and financial consulting for veterinary practices.

Member Benefits

- Two meetings per year that include hospital management and financial RACE approved CE at resort locations
- Peer networking, including opportunities to collaborate and compare practice strategies in confidential environment
- Interactive and engaging meeting format
- Twice a year one-on-one management consulting sessions
- A semi-annual financial benchmark report with personalized charts and other data points
- Insights and strategies that will improve your practice

You're Invited to Join

The benefits of membership in an SGA Study Group are invaluable for owning and managing a successful veterinary practice. We invite you to become a member today by contacting:

Gary I. Glassman, CPA

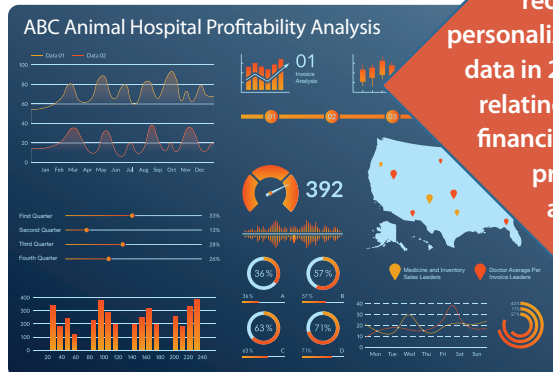

Burzenski & Company, P.C.
gary@burzenski.com
203.468.8133 ext. 102

or

Monica Dixon Perry, CVPM

Director of Veterinary Consulting Services
Burzenski & Company, P.C.
monica@burzenski.com
203.468.8133 ext. 148

JOIN SGA TODAY and align yourself with veterinary industry leaders who share like-minded strategies for success!

Members receive annual personalized and formatted data in 22 key categories relating to operations, financial performance, productivity, and more.

