HEY... how are you?

Hope you are having a great day today! We appreciate you taking a little bit of time out of what is likely a busy day to read about an opportunity we have.

Are you scrolling through jobs, waiting for one that can provide you with this?

- The best summer of your life, meeting and working with incredible people from all over the world
- A chance to try new activities and keep doing the fun ones you already love in the mountains
- The opportunity to live on your own with private accommodation, AKA: Your Own Room !
- A chance to be part of an amazing team culture that truly lives by #makethetime
- The opportunity to develop valuable life skills—connecting and engaging with people, communication, decision-making in a fast-paced environment, responsibility, and teamwork—all of which will help you in any career path you choose to pursue

Then you should keep reading...

Actually, maybe it's better to call it an experience—a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to do something really cool with your life. This experience will take you to one of the most beautiful places in the world, surrounded by like-minded people who are passionate about creating extraordinary experiences for our guests and our team.

Kananaskis Country Golf Course is quite simply a special and different place. Literally and figuratively, it is a breath of fresh air. What makes it so special? Certainly, our setting doesn't hurt! We are located in the heart of the spectacular Canadian Rockies—about 55 minutes west of Calgary and 45 minutes from Banff. It's paradise if you enjoy a fun environment surrounded by nature, incredible hiking, kayaking, rollerblading, camping, and GOLF !

But the setting alone doesn't even begin to tell our story.

The secret to this special place for over 40 years has been our team— incredible people like you who understand the power of connection and paying attention to the details that show others you truly #makethetime for them.

So, what do you think so far? Does this place sound interesting? Is your gut telling you to read on and find out more about what we're looking for? Are you intrigued by the fact that this job posting isn't like most others you've read before?

Let us give you the gist.

In a nutshell, we need givers—not takers. We're looking for people who crave connection, are passionate about people, love being busy, and aren't afraid to put their phone down and try something new.

Our culture is something we call #makethetime. It's our rallying cry, our mantra, and our reason for being in business. What does it mean, and why is it so important to you? Two reasons:

Have you ever made someone feel truly special, appreciated, or acknowledged? That feeling you get when you go above and beyond for someone—and how good it makes you feel—is what we're all about. We want to teach you how to create that feeling more often, because we're sure you'd love to feel that way every day! We have literally HUNDREDS of opportunities every day to experience this, and we want to give you the tools and put you in a position to do it.

2.

There are so many distractions in this world that pull us away from what truly matters. We want to teach you to put your phone down and have real-life experiences that you'll remember forever—those moments that make you say, "I want to do this again, soon!" Learning how to #makethetime for yourself gives you energy. And it all starts by surrounding yourself with like-minded people in a new environment where you can explore and try new things.

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS... (actually, a million)

K-Team Life

We could go on and on about how great it is to be a member of our family—but instead, why don't we just show you?
