The provision of your Data for the purposes sub a) and b) is necessary and obligatory so that, in case of refusal, we will not be able to follow up the contractual relationship with you and the related provision of the requested services.

Processing activities under d) and e) do not require your specific consent as they are based on the legitimate interest of the Data Controller provided for in Article 6, c. 1, lett. f) of the GDPR. In any case, in accordance with the GDPR, we have carried out a thorough balancing of interests aimed at protecting and ensuring the privacy and fundamental rights of data subjects.

The use of some services of the Website may require the processing of personal data of third parties sent by you to the Controller. Compared to these assumptions, you act as an independent controller, assuming all the obligations and responsibilities of the law. In this sense, you grant the most extensive indemnity with respect to any dispute, claim, request for compensation for damage caused by treatment, etc. that may be received by the Controller from third parties whose personal data have been processed in violation of the law on the protection of personal data applicable. In any case, if you provide or otherwise process personal data of third parties in the use of the Website, you warrant as of now - assuming all related responsibility - that this particular case of treatment is based on a suitable legal basis under Art. 6 of the GDPR that legitimizes the processing of information in question.

3. Processing modalities

The processing of Personal Data will take place through automated and/or manual tools in order to ensure proper security measures to prevent access, disclosure, loss, incorrect, illegal or unauthorized use of data.

4. Data Sharing

Personal Data may be shared with the following external parties: i) Internet service providers and platforms used by the Data Controller as organizational tools, communication channels and/or online booking (e.g., Nozio S.r.l., booking engine provider); ii) consultants and other service providers who perform services for us or on our behalf and require access to such information to perform such work; iii) public entities to whom such data must be compulsorily disclosed due to legal provisions or orders of the Authority.

These subjects act as autonomous data controllers or data processors. In the latter case, the Controller has signed a contract pursuant to Art. 28 GDPR (Appointment as Data Processor).

The list of Data Processors can be obtained by contacting the Controller at the contact details given in paragraph 1 above.

Personal data will also be processed by the Controller's internal staff specifically authorised pursuant to Article 29 of the GDPR.

5. Data Processing Locations

Personal data are processed at the headquarters of the Controller, as well as in the servers that host the Website. Personal data are stored in servers located in the EU and will not be transferred outside the EU under any circumstances. The Data Controller ensures that when using cloud providers established outside the EEA, the processing of personal data by these recipients is carried out in accordance with applicable law. Transfers shall be carried out by means of appropriate safeguards, such as adequacy decisions, standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission or other safeguards provided for in the GDPR.

6. Data subject's rights

The User may exercise all the rights provided for by Articles 15-21 of GDPR, at any time and without unjustified limitations, by contacting the Data Controller at [•]. Requests shall be filed free of charge and processed by the Controller within 30 days.

Specifically, the User can:

- Obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data are being processed (Art.15);
- Obtain from the controller the rectification of inaccurate personal data (Art. 16);
- Obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data (Art. 17);
- Obtain from the controller restriction of processing (Art. 18);
- Have the right to receive the personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller (Art. 20);
- Have the right to object (Art. 21);

- With regard to the purposes of processing based on consent, withdraw it at any time.

7. Complaints

In any case, Users are always entitled to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority (Garante per la Protezione dei Dati Personali), under Art. 77 of the Regulation, if they believe that the Data Controller's processing of their Personal Data is in violation of the applicable law.

8. Amendments

The Controller reserves the right to amend and update the Privacy Policy as a result of any further new or revised provisions of any national and EU laws and regulations on personal data protection.
