Policy

Background

West Coast Steiner School (WCSS) is committed to safeguarding and promoting the safety, welfare and wellbeing of all students and expects all staff, volunteers and visitors to share this commitment. To assist the School in providing a safe and positive educational climate for all students, we request visitors and volunteers comply with the guidelines and procedures associated with this Policy. Additionally, volunteers must also read and uphold the School's Child Safe Statement of Commitment (Appendix A) prior to taking on any voluntary work for the School. This document is available from Reception or the School's website, and is provided as part of the induction process for regular volunteers.

West Coast Steiner School explicitly forbids the use of any form of child abuse, corporal punishment or other degrading punishment, as defined in our Child Protection Policy.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy and associated procedures is to ensure that the obligations and responsibilities for visitors and volunteers at West Coast Steiner School are identified and clearly communicated.

Application

This policy applies to and is binding upon all parents, employees, visitors and volunteers of West Coast Steiner School, on school grounds or when acting for the School at an external venue for an excursion or camp. For the purpose of this policy 'parent(s)' includes step-parents, foster parents, legal guardians, carers and grandparents.

Definitions

Volunteers are defined in Section Four (4) of the Volunteers and Food and Other Donors (Protection from Liability) Act 2002 (The Act). According to the Act, a volunteer is defined as a person who does community work on a voluntary basis. Voluntary means the person receives no remuneration for doing that work other than:

- remuneration that the person would receive whether or not the person did that work
- the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by the person in doing that work
- receives remuneration that is not greater than the amount, if any, prescribed by the regulations.

Community work includes work organised by a community organisation to be done for a religious, educational, charitable or benevolent purpose.

Policy Review and Dissemination

This policy and related procedures will be made available to the public and staff members on the School website and is available to staff in the Policies and Procedures folder in the School Office. The School may, at any time, make amendments to this policy to ensure continuous improvement. The policy will be reviewed at least once every three years by the School Principal.

Visitors

Apart from parents delivering students to School prior to the start of the school day or collecting students at the end of the school day, all visitors are required to report to Reception to sign in before proceeding to other parts of the School. Short term visitors who remain in Reception do not need to sign in, e.g. parent collecting a form or paying fees, or a courier.

For the purpose of this policy, visitors may also include:

- prospective parents, students and employees
- invited speakers and officials, sessional instructors and others addressing learning and development
- persons conducting business e.g. uniform suppliers, booksellers, official school photographers children's services agencies
- children's services agents, including allied health professionals provided through the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)
- tradespersons (tradespersons contracted to work at the School must read and comply with the WCSS Contractor Management Policy)

Visitor Protocols

Visitors should remain in Reception until they are collected by a member of staff. Visitors must not be left to roam around the school grounds unaccompanied. Visitors must return their visitor's badge to Reception at the conclusion of their visit and sign out of the Visitor Log Book.

The Visitor Log Book contains information such as the date, the visitor's name, who they are visiting, the time of arrival and departure. If not already wearing an official badge, visitors will be provided with a visitor's badge which must be worn for duration of their visit. This assists us in ensuring the safety of students and staff and also to identify persons on the school premises in the event of an emergency evacuation.

Any visitor to the school site who is not wearing a visitor's badge should be challenged politely in relation to who they are and their business on the school site. They should then be escorted to Reception to be issued with a visitor badge if approved and reminded of the school procedure. An example of such an exchange could begin with a greeting by a staff member, followed by "I can see you don't have a Visitor's Badge. Let me show you to Reception where you can sign in and collect one."

In the event that the visitor refuses to comply, they should be asked to leave the site immediately and the Principal informed. The Principal will consider the situation and decide if it is necessary to inform the police. If an unknown/uninvited visitor becomes abusive or aggressive, they will be asked to leave the site immediately and warned that if they fail to leave the school grounds, police assistance will be requested.

Safeguarding Children

Whilst on school property, visitors must not:

- discipline or reprimand students about their behaviour
- use their position to take advantage of any child or young person
- bring harm of any kind to a student or behave in a way which actually or apparently seeks to establish an inappropriate relationship with a student.

West Coast Steiner School will ensure that our Child Safe Statement of Commitment is available and visible to visitors when they sign in. All visitors are expected to uphold the Child Safe Statement of Commitment with the understanding that breaches may lead to their being asked to leave the school site, may include disciplinary action or the termination of engagement with West Coast Steiner School.

Health and Safety

Your safety and well-being during your visit are important to us. As a visitor, you have a legal duty to care for the health and safety of yourself and others. Visitors should observe safe work practices which avoid unnecessary risks and report any safety hazard or hazardous practice they observe to the Finance/Business Manager or Principal. Any injury or accident sustained whilst on school grounds must be reported to Reception so that an Accident/Incident/Hazard Report can be completed.

The School's emergency management procedures will ensure that visitors within the school grounds at the time of any emergency or practice drill will be recognised and appropriately catered for. All visitors follow reasonable safety instructions given by school staff.

In the interest of public health, visitors are asked not to come on to school grounds whilst managing potentially contagious illnesses and must not smoke, or use, possess, or be under the influence of alcohol or illicit drugs.

Respect for Others

Visitors should treat students, staff and other members of the school community with respect, and in particular should:

- treat everyone with courtesy, sensitivity, tact, consideration and humility
- assist in creating an environment free from fear, harassment, racism or exploitation
- respect the culture, beliefs, opinions and decisions of others.

Communication

Visitors should use appropriate communication skills when engaging with students, staff and other members of the school community and in particular should:

- avoid swearing or other use of profanities
- use non-discriminatory, respectful and non-judgmental language
- refrain from using mobile phones
- maintain appropriate levels of confidentiality.

Volunteers

West Coast Steiner School values the contribution of all members of the school community in volunteering their time and effort. In general, a volunteer is defined as a person who does community work on a voluntary basis. At WCSS, a volunteer school worker is a person who voluntarily engages in school work without payment or reward. This volunteer school work may include such activities or functions as:

- School Council
- West Coast Steiner School Community Association
- Golden Threads shop and café
- Class Volunteers including one off assistance, block assistance or helping on excursions/camps
- Project Volunteers such as 'busy bees'
- Library Care or Craft Group.

A volunteer at WCSS may include:

- parents/carers or relatives of a child currently enrolled at WCSS
- former pupils or members of staff
- university students or students on work placements
- members of School Council
- community members who do not have children enrolled at WCSS.

A full description of the types of volunteer work that may be available at School can be found in the School Handbook (see Appendix B).

Parent volunteer hours count towards the School's Family Commitment Scheme. Each family may donate a minimum of 5 hours per term (20 hours per family per year) to agreed volunteer activities at the School. For further information please see the Family Commitment Scheme Policy which is available on our website or at Reception.

Obligations of Volunteers

At West Coast Steiner School, a volunteer's most important responsibility relates to their care to children and maintaining a safe school environment. Volunteers working with the School must read and uphold the School's Child Safe Statement of Commitment and behave in a manner consistent with the conduct requirements described therein.

Confidentiality in the Workplace

While you are working as a volunteer you may receive or overhear confidential information regarding students, staff or other volunteers. Privacy laws protect personal information about volunteers, students and staff. These laws also apply to photographs and video footage (see the School's Privacy Policy and Photographing, Filming and Recording Students Policy).

Discussing information you have received during your volunteer role with staff, students, family, friends or other volunteers inside or outside the School, is not acceptable. If you have an issue or concern, please discuss this with the Principal.

Volunteer Screening

The Working With Children Check (WWCC) is a compulsory screening strategy in Western Australia and the Christmas and Cocos (Keeling) Islands for people who engage in certain paid or unpaid work with children, described as “child-related work” under the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Act 2004.

Volunteers involved in child-related work with students, other than parents who have a child currently enrolled at West Coast Steiner School, are required to undergo a Working with Children Check. It is the responsibility of the volunteer to advise the School should a matter arise that would affect their application for a Working with Children Check. This includes advising the School if an Assessment Notice is received regarding the application. If volunteers do not meet this requirement, they may be refused access to the School until such time as they obtain the required check.

Exemptions to this apply to volunteers who are:

- students under 18 years of age on unpaid placement as part of their educational or vocational course of study
- short-term visitors to Western Australia, who are not ordinarily residents, for two weeks after their arrival and for no more than two weeks in any 12 month period.

Please note that parents who have a child currently enrolled at WCSS and who are volunteering do not require a WWCC, unless they are volunteering for overnight camps. However, if the School identifies specific activities where a criminal record check would improve safety, the School may require that exempt volunteers and/or volunteers, including parents, have either a National Police Check for Volunteers or a National Police Certificate.

All volunteers at West Coast Steiner School are required to sign a Confidential Declaration indicating that they do not have any convictions or reasons that might preclude them from working with or near children. (See Appendix D Volunteer Declaration and Confidentiality Agreement)

Under the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Act 2004, schools have a number of obligations. West Coast Steiner School meets these obligations by:

- maintaining a register of all volunteers, noting those who require a WWCC, the expiry date of their WWCC and that the volunteer has applied for renewal in a timely manner.
- sighting and copying details of the WWCC before a volunteer is engaged in child-related work or recording the receipt number of a volunteer’s application for a WWCC if they are waiting on a certificate
- ensuring that the School does not disclose information about a volunteer, that has been acquired from the carrying out of the WWCC, except in certain circumstances listed in the Act, such as for the purposes of a reference check in respect of child-related work
- maintaining records of volunteers in line with the Privacy Act (1988) and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act (2012).

Health and Safety for Volunteers

West Coast Steiner School is committed to providing a healthy and safe workplace for all its community members. Each person has a duty of care as outlined in the Work Health and Safety Act, to perform their role in a safe and professional manner. Volunteers at WCSS are asked to:

- follow instructions and guidance provided to you
- inform the School if you have any medical conditions or are taking any medication that might impact your duties at the time of volunteering - any information provided will be kept confidential
- consider work health and safety standards for clothing/equipment when conducting duties
- be sun safety conscious– sun block is available on request and wear a hat wherever possible
- not smoke, consume drugs or alcohol on school grounds
- report hazards, accidents or injuries to the Principal via Reception
- see Reception should you require any First Aid assistance.

Covid-19 and Pandemic Management

In times of major health disease outbreak the expectations/participation of volunteers in the School may change at short notice. The Principal will advise any COVID-19 safe measures that may need to be put in place to comply with public health requirements at the time.

Emergency Procedures

Emergency procedures for West Coast Steiner School are clearly outlined in the Critical Incident and Emergency Management Plan held in Reception and available on the School's website. In the event of an emergency, leave what you are doing, do not return for personal belongings and follow staff to the nearest assembly point. Wait with staff in the designated area for further instructions. No one is exempt from taking part in emergency procedures regardless of whether they are simulations or a real emergency.

Insurance and Liability

West Coast Steiner School provides relevant insurances for employees and voluntary workers on approved educational excursions/activities such as public liability insurance, workers' compensation insurance and personal accident cover. In case of a claim, supervising staff must demonstrate that all appropriate duties of care were undertaken. Volunteers will not be covered if they:

- act outside the scope of the community work organised by the School
- act contrary to the instructions given by the School in relation to the service they were providing
- are impaired by drugs or alcohol.

Volunteer Induction and Training

Regular volunteers, including parent and non-parent volunteers, practicum students and workplace students at West Coast Steiner School coming to assist in classes on a regular basis or attending excursions and camps, are required to take part in an induction before commencing their task. The reading of this policy and procedures is the start of the induction process. The specifics of this process will differ depending on who is volunteering and their relationship to the School, the type of volunteer work and duration or regularity of the commitment.

- Practicum and workplace students are inducted by the Deputy Principal.
- Volunteers attending incursions, excursion or camps will be inducted by the Teacher-in-Charge responsible for the organisation of the event.
- Class Teachers are expected to induct volunteers who assist in classrooms.

An Induction Checklist (see Appendix C) ensures that relevant aspects of the School's operations, policies, programs, procedures and responsibilities are understood. Once the induction has been completed, the Induction Checklist is retained by the School for our records.

Duty of Care

The term 'duty of care' is a legal concept that defines the duty a person has to use reasonable care towards others in order to protect them from known or reasonably foreseeable risk of harm and /or injury. Volunteers are not generally personally responsible for students and do not have the same duty of care to students as do teachers. However, in certain situations and under certain conditions, teachers may delegate a proportion of their duty of care to volunteers, in which case the non-teacher will then owe the same level of care to students as a teacher (see Duty of Care Policy).

Before delegation of duty of care responsibility to volunteers, it is necessary for the School and/or the teacher to ensure the volunteer:

- is suitable for the task being delegated
- is covered by either the School's insurance or have in place their own adequate insurance cover
- has been provided with clear instructions as to the level of care required
- agrees to assume this personal duty of care for the students - they have the right to refuse

Before agreeing to assume this additional responsibility, it is important the volunteer understands:

- the characteristics, abilities and support needed by the students for whom they are taking on this additional duty of care responsibility
- the context in which they are being asked to perform the tasks
- the instructions being left by the teacher
- they have the right to refuse.

Grievances and Breaches

West Coast Steiner School will not tolerate any form of harassment or bullying in the work place or any other venue. If you feel that there is a problem that makes your position as a volunteer uncomfortable, or that you have been unfairly treated, please discuss the issue with your supervisor. The Principal is always available to discuss any issue that you may have if you feel that the issue has not been resolved with your supervisor. The School has a formal grievance process which can be accessed through the School's website.

In the case that a complaint is made regarding the volunteer's conduct, it will be referred to the Principal who will make the volunteer aware of their breach of the volunteer agreement and if necessary, terminate the volunteer activity.

Volunteers must report possible breaches by others to the supervising teacher, or Principal. Factors the School may consider when deciding what action to take may include:

- the seriousness of the breach and the likelihood of the breach occurring again
- whether the Volunteer has committed the breach more than once
- the risk the breach poses to staff members, students or any others
- whether the breach would be serious enough to warrant formal disciplinary action.

The School will reserve the right to determine in its entirety the response to any breach.

Appendix B: Types of Volunteer Work (taken from School Handbook)

School Council

Parents can be involved in the governance of the School by joining the School Council through election at the annual AGM. The School Council is responsible for the vision, direction and financial management of the School. School Council meetings are held monthly and parents who are not elected Councillors can attend meetings as observers should this be of interest. Parents interested in attending a Council meeting in the capacity of an observer should register their interest with the Council Secretary in advance. An email can be sent to the Council Secretary secretary@wcss.wa.edu.au

WCSS Community Association (WCSSCA)

All families who join the School are eligible to become members of the West Coast Steiner School Community Association (WCSSCA). WCSSCA is comprised of parents and staff, and members of the community may also apply for membership. The aim of the Association is to promote and support the development of the West Coast Steiner School and its community.

WCSSCA volunteers co-ordinate many ongoing and one-off activities, and initiatives throughout the year, some of which include the Kambarang Fair, Market Day, Soup Days, the organisation of family events, fundraising initiatives and catering co-ordination for regular and one-off events and school tours.

WCSSCA meets monthly and all members are most welcome to attend and contribute. Dates for meetings are advertised in the School Newsletter and Facebook page. Further information and a membership form can be found on our website, by contacting Reception or emailing wcscsa@wcss.wa.edu.au.

Golden Threads

Our school shop, Golden Threads, is located within the Community Hub, near Reception. Opening hours are advised on our website. The shop offers a wonderful range of Steiner inspired products, and is a great place to purchase presents, school supplies, and coffee! Golden Threads is run by a Manager employed by WCSSCA and parent volunteers. If you would like to volunteer please see the Manager at the shop or email goldenthreadsperth@gmail.com.

Library Book Care

A group of volunteers meet weekly or fortnightly for a block of time to assist with covering of books, catalogue etc. For further details please contact the School's Librarian on library@wcss.wa.edu.au

Craft Group

A group of parents meet regularly to do handwork for WCSS and for school events. All are welcome to attend and no experience is necessary. Further details of the group are advertised in the School Newsletter.

Kiss 'n' Drive

Afternoon pick up of students is a busy time and supervising staff welcome assistance with guiding students safely into waiting vehicles.

Class Volunteering

Assisting within the classroom has many benefits – parents gain valuable insight into their child's day at school, teachers develop a closer relationship with parents and, importantly, our children benefit both directly from the activities and from the joy of having their parent participate in their classroom. Parent involvement in the classroom will be guided by the teacher to be developmentally appropriate for the whole class and individual students.

Class volunteering typically occurs through the following ways - one off assistance, extended assistance or helping on excursions or camps.

One Off Assistance

Parents typically sign up to assist in an activity in the classroom as part of the advertised teacher roster. This may be for one or more occasions, but is normally at a specified time slot. This form of assistance will normally occur in the child's classroom and may or may not include activities in which their own child participates. Examples include: providing arts/craft activity, small group reading or other 'help' programs.

Extended Assistance

In this role, the volunteer works under the direction of the teacher and may work with single or small groups of students, usually on a timetabled basis for a set period of time. Work may be within the volunteer child's classroom or in a different year level class to their own child.

Excursions/Camps

From time to time parent assistance is sought for School excursions or camps. This may allow us to provide a 'richer experience' by running additional or smaller groups for activities. It may also allow the School to meet required ratios without employment of additional staff, thus keeping costs down. Please see our Incursions, Excursions and Camps Policy.

Whilst many parents want to attend excursions, the teacher will normally be clear that an assistant is needed to provide a better experience for all students, not so that a parent can undertake an experience with their own child. This may result in a volunteer accompanying a group where their child needs extra supervision assistance or assisting with a 'different group' from their own child. The role of the volunteer may need to be different throughout the day. Selection of volunteers is based on many factors, including the nature and degree of difficulty of the activity and the experiences of the child. This is a decision made by the teacher.

Project Volunteers

There are a multitude of projects that parents and family members can participate in from assisting with the gardens and small building projects to being involved in planning and executing major events. These typically include parents either co-ordinating or working as part of a group on workshops, building projects or 'busy bees'. During these activities, children are often encouraged to attend and assist alongside their family members. Parents are expected to supervise their children at all times.

Any volunteer must be aware of normal work health and safety practice and wear suitable clothing or other safety equipment as determined by the job (e.g. enclosed shoes, eye and ear protection).

A co-ordinator must be nominated to take responsibility for overseeing the project and supervising the volunteer team. Before the workshop, project or Busy Bee commences, the Co-ordinator should:

- maintain an attendance register for volunteers to sign in / register
- explain tasks and boundaries of the volunteers' roles and their participation on the day
- clarify emergency, health and safety procedures
- ensure parents understand their responsibility to supervise their children at all times.
