The American Treasure Tour Museum is located in the old BF Goodrich Tire Factory & is 100,000 SF. It is packed from floor to ceiling of pop culture items from the 1870's to present, collected by one anonymous man over a course of 60 years. He is still alive & actively collecting. In their building you will see 70+ classic/antique cars including but not limited to a '54 Pennant Blue Chevrolet Corvette, a Stanley Steamer, Cadillac's, a WWI Nash quad truck & many others. This is also the home of the largest Slinky in the world! This is a trip you don't want to miss!
