

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 2024

Based on Charles Dickens' final unfinished novel, this hilarious whodunit was a smash on Broadway. It takes audience participation to new heights calling on the audience to determine the ending of the mystery by choosing the identity of the murderer. This Tony Award-winning tale, by Rupert Holmes, is presented as a show-within-a-show, "first night performance by Music Hall Royal" – a delightful loony troupe of Victorian actors.

Members $63.00

Guests $68.00

Bus departs CHSC at 9 am; Return time is 5:30 p.m.