Communion Reading	In Unison
When we bless the cup at the Lord’s Table, aren’t we sharing in the blood of Christ? And when we break the bread, aren’t we sharing in the body of Christ? And though we are many, we all eat from one loaf of bread, showing that we are one body.
1 Corinthians 10: 16-17
Call to Confession	Liturgist
John 3: 16 and 17 says: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that world might be saved through him.” Let us confess our sins and claim this promise.
-Makihiko Arase
Prayer of Confession	Unison
The sins I have committed are more in number than the sand of the sea; my transgressions are multiplied, O Lord, they are multiplied! I am not worthy to look up and see the height of heaven because of the multitude of my iniquities. I am weighted down with many an iron fetter, so that I am rejected because of my sins, and I have no relief;
-Iwah Satoh
Assurance of Pardon	Liturgist
“The blood of Jesus, God’s son, cleanses us from all sin. But if we confess our sins to God, God is faithful and just to forgive our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness. Christ himself is the sacrifice that atones for our sins-and not only for our sins, but the sins of the world.”
-Josefina Sanchez-Franco

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen	In Unison

Invitation to the Table:
Jes said, “Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and eat with you, and you with me.” Responding to the invitation, we have gathered here to celebrate the Lord’s Supper. And we celebrate it with all the sisters and brothers on earth. Keeping in mind that we are a small part of the one large family of God, let us give thanks to the Creator, sharing the body and blood of our Savior in the overwhelming power of the holy Spirit.
