

Fourth Annual

FLOROVSKY-NEWMAN WEEK

returning to the sources for christian unity

May 31 - June 5, Anno Domini 2021 Wichita, KS

The Patristic View of Baptism

Public Proclamation or Salvific Sacrament?

Heeding Fr. Florovsky's advice, instead of overlooking or minimizing differences that divide Catholic, Orthodox, and Protestant Christians, this week of events seeks to overcome our divisions by returning to the common Tradition of the Faith of our Holy Fathers in the first thousand years of the Church's history.

FEATURED PLENARY DIALOGUES - JUNE 3-5

Dr. Matthew Levering

Mundelein Seminary

Catholic - June 3

Dr. Marcus Plested

Marquette University

Orthodox - June 4

Dr. Charles Raith II

John Brown University

Protestant - June 5

ACADEMIC PAPERS: JUNE 3-4

EIGHTH DAY SEMINAR: MAY 31-JUNE 1

Seminar by Joshua Sturgill

ICONOGRAPHY WORKSHOP: MAY 31-JUNE 3

Workshop by Anne Emmons

FESTAL BANQUET: JUNE 2

Fourth Annual Florovsky Lecture by Erin Doom

Toast to St John Henry Newman by Joshua Papsdorf

INFORMATION & REGISTRATION

eighthdayinstitute.org/FNW21 or 316.573.8413

Sponsored by Newman University, St. George Orthodox Christian Cathedral, and

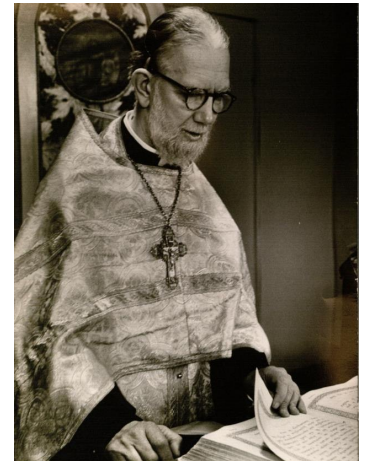

Gerber Institute for Catholic Studies

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Monday, May 31, Anno Domini 2021

At The Ladder & St George Orthodox Christian Cathedral

- 9:00 am Iconography Workshop (9-4pm)
- 5:30 pm Seminar - The Bible: Jonah
- 7:00 pm Dinner Break
- 8:00 pm Seminar - The Liturgy: Ancient Baptismal Service

Tuesday June 1, Anno Domini 2021

At The Ladder & St George Orthodox Christian Cathedral

- 9:00 am Iconography Workshop (9-4pm)
- 5:30 pm Seminar - The Fathers: Pacian of Barcelona & Gregory of Nyssa
- 7:00 pm Dinner Break
- 8:00 pm Seminar - Literature: The Golden Key by George MacDonald

Wednesday June 2, Anno Domini 2021

At The Ladder & St George Orthodox Christian Cathedral

- 9:00 am Iconography Workshop (9-4pm)
- 6:00 pm Festal Banquet Dinner
 - Toast to St John Henry Newman
 - Newman and the Standard of Perfection by Joshua Papsdorf
 - Fourth Annual Florovsky Lecture
 - The Cross of Loneliness by Erin Doom

Thursday-Friday June 3-4, Anno Domini 2021

At St George Orthodox Christian Cathedral

- 8:30am Third Hour Prayer in Cathedral
- 9:00am Academic Papers in Fellowship Hall
 - Iconography Workshop for those not attending papers on Thursday (9-4 pm)
- 10:30am Break
- 11:00am Academic Papers in Fellowship Hall
- 12:30pm Break for Lunch & Dinner (not provided)
- 7:00pm Convocation, Contemplation & Plenary Dialogues in Fellowship Hall
 - Thursday: Christ the New Joshua: Patristic Reflections on Baptism by Dr. Matthew Levering with Orthodox & Protestant Responses by Marcus Pleded and Charles Raith II
 - Friday: Baptism as Mystery & Pledge: A Macarian Response to Messalianism by Dr. Marcus Pleded with Catholic & Protestant Responses by Matthew Levering and Charles Raith II

Saturday, June 5, Anno Domini 2021

At St. George Orthodox Christian Cathedral

- 9:00am Third Hour Prayer in Cathedral
- 9:30am Convocation, Contemplation & Plenary Dialogue in Fellowship Hall
 - Baptismal Polemics & Forging a Third Way: Calvin Against the "Papists" & Anabaptists by Dr. Charles Raith II with Catholic & Orthodox Responses by Matthew Levering & Marcus Pleded
- 11:30am Q-&-A and Panel Reflections on "What Now?"