Easter Reflection

Words of our Resurrected Lord

Devotional from Subash Cherian, Senior Pastor

What a glorious morning it is! We welcome you into this celebration of the risen Lord. Today we gather not to mourn at a tomb, but to proclaim with joy—He is not here. He is risen! May this message encourage your heart and renew your hope.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is not merely a historical event, it is the cornerstone of our living hope. The world memorializes great leaders with grand tombs and monuments, but our Savior is celebrated because His tomb is empty. Good Friday was the payment for our sins; Resurrection Sunday is the victory that justifies us and declares a new beginning for every one of us.

No matter where you find yourself today, whether you are seeking Him with tears like Mary Magdalene, walking in disappointment like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, or struggling with failure like Peter, the risen Lord meets you exactly where you are. He does not seek the powerful; He seeks an intimate relationship with the broken and the searching.

Just as Jesus restored Peter and transformed Saul, He is ready to transform your life. The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead lives in you, fully capable of raising you out of any dark situation you face today.

Don't miss "Words of Our Resurrected Lord" a powerful Easter teaching by Pastor Subash Cherian on Hope, Forgiveness, and Transformation. The risen Jesus still speaks, and His words are alive for your life today. Watch now on our YouTube Channel and share it with someone who needs hope this Easter season.
