THE NATURAL AND SPIRITUAL

SUBASH CHERIAN, SENIOR PASTOR

> "What comes first is the natural body, then the spiritual body comes later."
> - 1 Corinthians 15:46

We live in two realities at the same time: the natural world we can see, and the spiritual world we cannot see. Throughout Scripture, God often uses visible people, events, and objects to help us understand invisible spiritual truths. The natural comes first and points us toward the spiritual.

Adam and Jesus provide a powerful example. Adam, the first man created by God, represents the natural man. Through his disobedience, sin and death entered the world. Jesus Christ, called the last Adam, came as the perfect spiritual Man. Through His obedience, sacrifice, death, and resurrection, He brought forgiveness and eternal life.

The Old Testament also prepares us to understand Christ. Its sacrifices, covenants, symbols, patterns, prophetic pictures, and acts of deliverance were shadows pointing toward something greater. They find their fullest meaning and fulfillment in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

As we read Scripture, we should look beyond what happened in the natural and ask what spiritual truth God is revealing. From beginning to end, the Bible points us to Jesus, the One who brings life, fulfills God's promises, and makes all things new.
