Beyond Ellington

Making a trip out of it? We compiled a great list of places to visit for extended stays!

Acadia National Park \(ME\)

Acadia National Park is a stunning coastal national park in Maine, mostly located on Mount Desert Island. It's famous for its mix of rocky Atlantic coastline, forests, lakes, and mountains—all packed into a relatively small, easy-to-explore area. It's also one of the first places in the U.S. to see sunrise, especially from its highest point, Cadillac Mountain.

Approximately 7 hours from Ellington

- Hiking, biking, kayaking, Beehive Loop Trail, Cadillac Mountain, Jordan Pond, Jordan Pond House, Thunder Hole

Cape Cod \(MA\)

Cape Cod, a hook-shaped peninsula of the U.S. state of Massachusetts, is a popular summertime destination. It's the site of quaint villages, seafood shacks, lighthouses, ponds and bay and ocean beaches. In the large town of Hyannis, the John F. Kennedy Museum is the first stop on the Kennedy Legacy Trail through downtown, where ferries depart to the resort islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket.

Approximately 2.5 - 3.5 hours from Ellington (depending how far up you go)

- Over sands permit to drive on certain parts of the beach (especially farther up the cape)
- Bike trails Along the National Seashore Beaches
- Lower Cape Cod (which is referred to the top of the hook - the farthest point) —especially towns like Wellfleet and Truro—feels quieter, wilder, and more remote than the rest of the Cape. It's defined by the natural beauty of the Cape Cod National Seashore: dunes, forests, marshes, and long, uncrowded beaches. The towns are small, low-key, and a bit artsy, with a strong connection to nature and local traditions like oystering. Compared to busier, more polished spots like Hyannis, it's slower, less developed, and feels more like a peaceful retreat than a typical beach destination. It has a very distinct feel compared to the rest of the Cape. It's quieter, more rugged, and deeply tied to nature.

Cape Ann \(MA\)

Cape Ann is a scenic coastal region in northeastern Massachusetts, about 30–40 minutes north of Boston. It's known for its rugged shoreline, historic fishing towns, beaches, and classic New England charm.

Approximately 2.25 hours from Ellington. Could spend time in the city of Boston on the way and would also pass through Salem.

- Rockport
- Gloucester
 - Hammond Castle

- Near Ipswich
 - Wildlife Marshes
 - MassWildlife's Great Marsh North Wildlife Management Area
 - Mass Audubon: Barnstable
 - Crane Estate on Castle Hill

White Mountains Area (NH)

One of the most popular outdoor destinations in the Northeast—known for rugged peaks, scenic drives, year-round recreation and quaint towns

Approximately 2.25 - 3.75 hours from Ellington (depending on where you stay)

- White Mountain National Forest
 - Kangamangus Scenic Byway - The Kangamangus Byway follows the Swift River - The water is clear and fast-moving, flowing over smooth rocks and forming natural pools, small waterfalls, and gentle chutes. It's usually cold (even in summer), the kind that shocks you at first but then feels incredibly refreshing on a hot day. You're surrounded by forested mountains, so it's quiet except for rushing water and wind in the trees. Unlike ocean swimming, it feels more tucked away and intimate—like you've stumbled onto a hidden spot. There's also lots of hiking trails
- North Conway - end of the Kangamangus Scenic Byway
 - Kids: Story Land, Living Shores Aquarium
 - Outlet shopping
 - Saco River: Kayak, Canoe or Tubing Rentals
 - Scenic Railroad
 - North Conway Village - old part of town with cute stores
- Mt Washington
 - Auto Road (to the summit)
 - Cog Railroad (to the summit)
 - Historic Hotel
- Crawford Notch State Park

- Kids: Clark's Trading Post, Lincoln, NH (beginning of the Kangamangus Scenic Byway)

New Hampshire: Lake Region

Located in the central part of the state, is a premier four-season destination centered around more than 250 bodies of water, including the 72-square-mile Lake Winnepesaukee. Key towns like Laconia, Wolfeboro, and Meredith offer boating, beaches, fishing, hiking, and skiing, along with attractions like Weirs Beach and the Squam Lakes Natural Science.

It's a great place to get a house rental and rent a boat for the week.

Approximately 3.5 hours from Ellington (depending on where you stay)

Adirondacks

- Lake George, NY
 - Lake George is a town in New York's vast, protected Adirondack region of mountains and old-growth forest. The town sits on the lake of the same name. On the shore, the Fort William Henry Museum & Restoration is a restored British fort, built in 1755. Nearby, Million Dollar Beach has picnic areas and a boat launch. The Prospect Mountain Veterans Memorial Highway offers views of the lake and the Adirondack High Peaks,
 - Approximately 1 hour from Castleton church, 3 hours from Croghan church, and 2.5 hours from Ellington
- Lake Placid
 - A small, scenic mountain town —best known for outdoor adventure and Olympic history.
 - Approximately 2 hours from Castleton church, 2.25 hours from Croghan church, 3.5 hours from Ellington
 - Kids: Wild Center
 - High Falls Gorge
 - Ausable Chasm (NY)- Immerse yourself in a journey through time at one of the United States' oldest natural attractions (Established in 1870). Hike, float, or climb amidst the primeval Adirondack forest, encountering captivating landmarks such as Rainbow Falls, Elephant's Head, Column Rock, Hyde's Cave, and the serene Mystic Gorge. Delve hundreds of feet below to traverse natural stone walkways, marveling at the eons of geologic history etched in stone. Approximately 1 hour from Lake Placid

Lake Champlain/Burlington VT

Lake Champlain in Burlington, VT, is a premier year-round destination offering stunning Adirondack mountain views, 587 miles of shoreline, and extensive water recreation. Key attractions include the vibrant Church Street Marketplace, the ECHO (science & nature museum), Leahy Center for Lake Champlain, and the scenic Burlington Bike Path. It is a hub for boating, swimming, and ice-related winter activities.

Approximately 1.5 hours from Castleton church, and 3.5 hours from Ellington

Quechee Gorge VT

The Quechee Gorge, formed 13,000 years ago by glacial activity, is Vermont's deepest gorge, stretching 165 feet down to the Ottauquechee River. With spectacular views from the Route 4 bridge and scenic hiking trails, it's a must-see destination for visitors.

Approximately 1.5 hours from Castleton church and 2.5 hours from Ellington

Stowe VT

Stowe, Vermont, in the summer is a premier outdoor destination offering hiking on Mount Mansfield, over 50 miles of mountain biking trails, and scenic, paved recreation paths. Visitors enjoy charming village shopping, local breweries, waterfalls, swimming holes, and the Gondola SkyRide for panoramic views. It is a cool, scenic escape known as the "Ski Capital of the East," thriving with activity from June through August.

Approximately 2 hours from Castleton church and 3 ½ hours from Ellington

Woodstock, VT

Historic buildings surrounding the central square, known as the Green, include the 1880s pink sandstone Norman Williams Public Library. Just north, Billings Farm & Museum is a functioning dairy farm, with an 1890 farmhouse and exhibits re-creating 19th-century farm life. Trails lace Marsh-Billings-Rockefeller National Historical Park, which contains an 1800s Queen Anne-style mansion.

Approximately 1 hour from Castleton church & 2.5 hours from Ellington

Amish Country \(Lancaster PA area\)

Amish Country in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, is the nation's oldest Amish settlement, offering a blend of authentic 18th-century culture, scenic farmland, and traditional Pennsylvania Dutch charm. Top attractions include guided buggy rides, farmland tours, and historical sites like The Amish Village, alongside towns like Intercourse and Bird-in-Hand.

Approximately 1 hour from Malvern church and 5 hours from Ellington

Things to Do within or near amish country:

- Shopping: The Main St Exchange, Kitchen Kettle Village, antique shops
- Brandywine Valley - The Brandywine Valley, spanning northern Delaware and southeastern Pennsylvania, is a scenic region renowned for its du Pont family heritage, world-class gardens, and historic sites. Located just outside Wilmington, DE, it offers top attractions like Longwood Gardens, Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library, Nemours Estate and the First State National Historical Park. It is a premier destination for history lovers and outdoor enthusiasts, featuring rolling hills, museums, and over 23 miles of trails.

- Valley Forge - Blends quiet natural beauty with deep historical significance. Rolling fields and wooded trails create a peaceful setting, but it's best known for the Valley Forge encampment, where George Washington and his army endured a winter during the American Revolution. Today, Valley Forge National Historical Park preserves this legacy with scenic paths, reconstructed huts, and landmarks like Washington's Headquarters—offering a calm, reflective glimpse into a pivotal moment in American history.

Philadelphia, PA

Philadelphia is where America began. It's where the Founding Fathers made history. It's America's first UNESCO World Heritage City. It's about diversity and innovation, pretzels and cheesesteaks, Betsy Ross and Ben Franklin.

Historic Downtown Philadelphia, USS New Jersey \(BB-62\) - Battleship Museum (across the river in NJ), and the Philadelphia Zoo

Approx 40 minutes from Malvern church and 3hrs 45 mins from Ellington

Hudson River Valley (NY)

Starting outside of NYC and stretching up to Albany, NY where scenic beauty, outdoor adventure, and rich history come together along the winding path of the Hudson River. Rolling hills, orchards, and charming small towns create a landscape that shifts with the seasons. The valley is known for its grand historic estates, including the Vanderbilt Mansion, which showcase Gilded Age elegance set against sweeping river views. Visitors can tour these homes, stroll formal gardens, and step into the lives of some of America's most influential families. In addition, other historic homes and places include the FDR Mansion & Presidential Library, Olana State Historic Site (mansion), Staatsburg State Park (Ogden Mills Mansion), Bannerman Castle, and the town of Sleepy Hollow - home to Kykuit (the Rockefeller estate, Lyndhurst Mansion, Washington Irving's Sunnyside, and Philipsburg Manor. Outdoor activities are just as compelling—hiking in Bear Mountain State Park, kayaking on the river, biking along scenic rail trails, or apple picking at local farms. Towns like Beacon and Hudson offer vibrant arts scenes, galleries, and farm-to-table dining that reflect the region's creative spirit.

Approximately 2-2.5 hours from Ellington, 2-3.5 hours from Castleton church, and 3-4.5 hours from Croghan church

Alexandria Bay/Thousand Islands \(NY\)
