Psalm 40:1-12 Expectans, expectavi

Please join the Choir in singing the psalm.

- 1 I waited patiently upon you, O / LORD; *
you stooped to me and heard my / cry.
- 2 You lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the mire and / clay; *
you set my feet upon a high cliff and made my footing / sure.
- 3 You put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to our / God; *
many shall see, and stand in awe,
and put their trust in the / LORD.
- 4 Happy are they who trust in the / LORD! *
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn to false / gods.
- 5 Great things are they that you have done, O LORD my God!
how great your wonders and your / plans for us! *
there is none who can be compared with / you.
- 6 Oh, that I could make them known and / tell them! *
but they are more than I can / count.
- 7 In sacrifice and offering you take no / pleasure *
(you have given me ears to / hear you);
- 8 Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not re/quired, *
and so I said, "Behold, I / come.
- 9 In the roll of the book it is written con/cerning me: *
'I love to do your will, O my God;
your law is deep in my / heart."
- 10 I proclaimed righteousness in the great congre/gation; *
behold, I did not restrain my lips;
and that, O LORD, you / know.

11 Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart;
 I have spoken of your faithfulness and your de/liverance; *
 I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from the great congre/gation.

12 You are the LORD;
 do not withhold your compassion / from me; *
 let your love and your faithfulness keep me safe for / ever.

Hymn I heard the voice of Jesus say

Kingsfold

1. I heard the voice of Je-sus say, 'Come un-to me and rest;
 2. I heard the voice of Je-sus say, 'Be-hold I free-ly give
 3. I heard the voice of Je-sus say, 'I am this dark world's light;
 and in your wear-i-ness lay down your head u-pon my breast.' the liv-ing wa-ter; thir-sty one, stoop down and drink, and live.' look un-to me, your morn shall rise, and all your day be bright.
 I came to Je-sus as I was, so wea-ry, worn, and sad;
 I came to Je-sus, and I drank of that life-giv-ing stream;
 I looked to Je-sus, and I found in him my Star, my Sun;
 I found in him a rest-ing place and he has made me glad.
 my thirst was quenched, my soul re-vived, and now I live in him.
 and in that light of life I'll walk till pil-grim days are done.

The prayer continues, recounting and remembering the Lord's institution of the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist at the last supper to feed God's faithful people throughout this life and in the ages to come.

Then the Celebrant says:

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death.

We proclaim his resurrection.

We await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all...

The Celebrant voices our prayer that the Holy Spirit will descend upon our offerings of bread and wine so that they may be for us Christ's Body and Blood. We also pray that the Holy Spirit will also descend upon us, filling our hearts with God's presence as we prepare to receive them.

The Celebrant concludes:

Postlude

We warmly welcome you to join us for refreshments in Campbell Hall following our service, and, if you're visiting for the first time, we'd love to get to know you!

We believe Jesus when he says that by his life, death, and resurrection, "I will draw all people to myself."

Following his example, St. Paul's warmly invites all people - of all ages, races, means, politics, sexual orientations, and gender identities - to grow as Jesus' disciples together with us and fully participate in our church's sacramental life.
