

Thank you for choosing TradeCmart International (the "Company") to provide you, the Client, with services. This Engagement Agreement (the "Agreement") describes the terms on which the Company will be providing services to the Client.

We have undertaken and will continue to undertake the following work on your behalf:
See email of service request.

Should the matter entail any more than the original above listed agreement, the fee listed above shall be discarded and a new arrangement shall be made between the two parties. It is further understood that this agreement cannot be changed without written consent from both parties.

The fees and costs relating to this matter are not predictable. Accordingly, we have made no commitment to you concerning the maximum fees and costs that will be necessary to resolve or complete this matter. Any estimate of fees and costs that we may have discussed represents only an estimate of such fees and costs. It is also expressly understood that payment of the company's fees and costs is in no way contingent on the ultimate outcome of the matter. This fee does not include filing fees and other government fees or peripheral expenses.

Unless previously terminated, our representation of you will terminate with the closing of above listed service request. Following such termination, any otherwise nonpublic information you have supplied to us which is retained by us will be kept confidential in accordance with applicable rules of professional conduct. At your request, your papers and property will be returned to you promptly upon receipt of payment of outstanding fees and costs. Our own files pertaining to the matter will be retained by the company. These company files include, for example, company administrative records, time and expense reports, personnel and staffing materials, credit and accounting records, and internal Associates' work products such as drafts, notes and internal memorandum. All such documents retained by the company will be transferred to the person responsible for administering our records retention program. For various reasons, including the minimization of unnecessary storage expenses, we reserve the right to destroy or otherwise dispose of any such documents or other materials retained by us within a reasonable time after the termination of the engagement.

You must cooperate with us fully and provide us all the information we need to assist you. I encourage you to keep detailed notes of questions that may arise and any new information or other important matters that come to your attention. Please call us if something is truly urgent, but otherwise it is best to schedule an appointment to discuss your accumulated questions and concerns. If there is any change in your address or telephone number, please notify us immediately.

If at any time you become dissatisfied with our handling of this matter, you should not hesitate to tell me immediately so we can resolve the problem and maintain a good relationship. You may terminate our engagement at any time. In the event of termination, you will be responsible for payment of any fees earned or expenses incurred. We may terminate this engagement only if you fail to cooperate with us, fail to abide by the terms of this agreement (including payment of fees), or as otherwise permitted or required by law.

We will use our best efforts in representing you in this matter, but you acknowledge that we can give you no assurances as to the final outcome.

Upon our retention, a client file will be established regarding matters related to your representation. This file may become the repository for important documents as well as documents prepared by Associates reflecting the Associates' thoughts, conclusions and impressions. Should you request the removal of the files from our offices, we reserve the right to retain all our company work-product documents generated by our professional staff. Absent written instructions regarding disposition of client files, we reserve the right to store or destroy such files upon expiration of six (6) months following the conclusion of representation.

Unless you advise us to the contrary, we assume that we may communicate with you through any generally accepted form of communication, including, without limitation, regular mail or expedited and overnight deliveries to your address as provided above, emails, calls to cell phones, voicemails and facsimiles, and that the decision to use any particular medium of communication is within our company's discretion. We would welcome any communication from you through any of the foregoing media, but if we have asked you to use a particular method, we would greatly appreciate your doing so.

This written agreement contains all the terms and conditions of the engagement between the company and the client and there are no other terms or conditions which are not included herein. Client and the Company further agree that this Agreement may not be modified except in a written document signed by the legal representatives of all of the undersigned, including the client, any guarantor(s), and the Company.

If any part or provision of this Agreement is held unenforceable, such part or provision shall be deemed to be independent of all of the other parts and provisions of this Agreement, and all of the other parts and provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
