

109. Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

ANDREW MOORE

Psalms 119(118):57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130, R. 97a

R. O LORD, how I love your law, how I love your law!

- | | | | |
|----|--|-----|--|
| 57 | You, O LORD, are my portion;
I have promised to obey your words. | 127 | That is why I love your commands
more than finest gold, |
| 72 | The law from your mouth means more to me than large quantities of silver and gold. R. | 128 | why I rule my life by your precepts, and hate false ways. R. |
| 76 | Let your merciful love console me
by your promise to your servant. | 129 | Your decrees are wonderful indeed ;
therefore my soul obeys them. |
| 77 | Show me compassion, that I may live, for your law is my delight. R. | 130 | The unfolding of your word gives light,
and understanding to the simple. R. |
