GENERAL RULES AND QUALIFICATIONS
FOR THE
DR. AND MRS. ANDREW COLTHARP SCHOLARSHIP
AND THE
ETHEL AND ELIZABETH NOLEN SCHOLARSHIP

These funds were established to provide Iinancial assistance to members of the First Baptist Church seeking a college education and particularly to those who are preparing for the ministry, full time Christian work in the mission Iield or other church related vocational work.

To qualify for a scholarship, the applicant shall be a member of the First Baptist Church. Preference will be given to those applicants preparing for ministry, full time Christian work in the mission Iield or other church related vocational work. In the selection of a recipient of a scholarship, the committee, in addition to the aim and purpose of the education, shall consider the character, need, scholastic achievement and any other things that would have bearing on the selection.

The Scholarship Committee is given the direction to select a recipient for Iinancial educational assistance and to award up to $3,000 annually to qualiIied applicants. Scholarship funds will be disbursed by semester or quarter, according to the college's schedule. Grants for subsequent quarters or semesters will require successful completion of prior studies.

Applications should be returned to the office or by mail, First Baptist Church, P.O. Box 400, Alexander City, AL. 35011, by the last Friday in April.
