

CINCO EN CLAVE

Latin-Jazz Quintet

CINCO EN CLAVE

Cinco en Clave is a quintet of musicians who present a program of their own compositions and arrangements, fusing the rhythms of Cuban and Antillean music with traces of classical music melodies and the characteristic improvisation of jazz.

The beginning of their journey is located at Codarts - University for the Arts in Rotterdam. They were recently selected to record one of their compositions on a music program broadcast on Dutch national television and have performed at the Grachtenfestival for Amnesty International in Amsterdam.

Oriol Marès (Spain) - clarinet and bass clarinet
Evelyn Vera Gallardo (Netherlands) - piano
Stefan Brunner (Germany) - electric bass
Lidrick Solognier (Aruba) - congas
Lucas Zegrí (Spain) - drums

"I loved the lyricism of the pianist, as well as the clarinet and the strings that you recorded"
– Paquito D'Rivera (world class latin-clarinetist)

"Spectacular! Love it! Bravo to all: Oriol, Evelyn and the whole band. This is so good, keep up the beautiful music!"
– Pedro Eustache (Hans Zimmer multi-instrumentalist)
