

American Legion Department of New Jersey

Perched 246 feet high on a hill in New Jersey, the Navesink Twin Lights are two famous lighthouses that once guided ships safely into New York Harbor. Built as a powerful beacon, this historic site was also used to test cool new inventions like early wireless telegraphs and new lighthouse technologies. Because of its unique architecture and important history, it is recognized today as a National Historic Landmark.

DEPARTMENT OF NEW JERSEY BE THE ONE

AMERICANISM COMMITTEE

American Legion Coloring Contest Information Form 2026/27

The Navesink Twin Lights

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY AND SUBMIT WITH COLORING PICTURE

(May be printed on back of picture or submitted as separate sheet)

Student's Name: _____

Student Age: _____ School Grade: _____

Teacher's Name: _____

Name of School: _____

School Address: _____

School Phone#: _____

Sponsoring Post Information

Name and Post number: _____

Sponsoring County Information

County Name: _____

Signature of County Americanism Chairman or County Commander:

❖ Completed pictures need to be submitted to your local American Legion.